ITALY MEANS REAL BUSINESS IN TURKEY.

LONDON, Sept 28—A despatch from Paris says that Italy has sent an ultimatum to Turkey saying the latter must agree to the Italian occupation of Tripoli and that unless a reply is received by today Italy will immediately proceed with the threatened occupation.

"VENGENCE IS MINE" or "THE MINISTER'S SWEETHEART."

There is one class of play that appeals to all, old and young, man or woman, and that is the Rural-Comedy-Drama, and in "Vengence is Mine" those theatre-goers who may be fortunate enough to witness the performance, will congratulate themselves, as a purer, sweeter or more wholesome play has never been presented on the English speaking stage of today.

The story is the old one of the country girl who is won by the polished exterior of the "gentleman from the city" while blind to the true worth and heart of bold the young minister, who would gladly lay down his life for her. The father, whose kindly nature and sweet simple faith are clouded by sorrow, but to whom the Divine Light comes at last wins the love and sympathy. The jolly Irishman, the shrewd though kind hearted Scotch woman, the "Rube" who is "Wise" and his Sis Hopkins" sweetheart keeps one convulsed with laughter, after having wept with the serious characters.

"VENGENCE IS MINE" is a companion piece to "THE OLD HOMESTEAD" and has been pronounced a worthy successor. The scenes are laid in New England on the farm of Eben Mazwell, a well to do farmer, and in one of the "Gilded Palaces" of New York, thus showing both phases of life.

Poor "June" the farmer's daughter, listens to the voice of the Tempter, but the young minister saves her and in the final act his appeal to the seemingly obdurate father is one of the strongest and most touching scenes imaginable. The audience waits in breathless wonder to learn the old father's decision, in fact, they are wrought up to such a tension, that when "Mike" rushes on with his quaint Irishisms, it is almost a minute before their risibilities are aroused, then the change is so great that they laugh to their hearts content, indeed the play is well named one of "Tears and Laughter."

EARL GREY GIVES A FAREWELL ADDRESS.

OTTAWA, Sept 28...In a speech marked by rare tact and dignity and by whole hearted and inspiring Imperialism and. Canadianism, Earl Grey had the Canadian public farewell yesterday concluding with an eloquent tribute to the political leaders, Laurier and Borden, in whose high leadership, he said Canada was indeed fortunate.

The occasion was a farewell banquet tendered His Excellency in the restaurant of Parliament by the Canadian Club to which he had been an active and helpful patron.

Horse Races

Details Tomorrow

Specialties between the heats at the Horse Races

1.—The 2 Clairmont Bros in their Comedy Revolving Ladder Act.

They do handstands on the ladder, headstands, handstands on the back of a chair balanced on the ladder, trapeze and other chair work.

Their entire act is of the hair raising kind and filled with thrills.

2—The 2 De Macos graceful, lithe, skilled gymnasts, whose acts are strikingly novel and original, including aeriel acts.

3—Piquo in the clown novelty act. He is considered one of the best clown bar performers before the public. To this he adds comedy pantomine which never fails to amuse.

3.—Mr and Mrs Couser with their ten performing dogs.

Trained animals always appeal to our people.

These dogs do everything but talk. Among them are dancing dogs, leaping dogs, dogs that jump, and turn somersaults, clown dogs and every other kind of dogs.

5.—Mr and Mrs Couser again in their great wire act. Suspended 10 feet above the platform with nothing but a silver wire for a foothold they perform as if they were standing on the ground without the slightest sign of fear. with all the confidence born of the knowledge of being perfect masters of the art. Enough said, come and see them.

6.—Robin—the great juggler—not a bird this time but a bird of a juggler, manipulating large and small objects with rare skill and keeping the comedy going at the same time. He is a top-notcher in his line and truly a great entainer.

7.—La Belle Faustina, the great contortionist.

To-day is the opening day of the Annual Provincial Exhibition at Charlottetown.
