WILD WEST RODEO, THEME OF "CALGARY STAMPEDE"

Calgary, once a roarin', tootin' wild west town sprawled over the crossing of rangland trails in the Canadian Rockies, is today a bustling city. But for a week each year, this busy metropolis takes time out to recall its romantic history with the staging of the Great Stampede, a gala rodeo celebration. Here, guests from every province of the Dominion and many from below the border are given hearty welcome by Indian braves and white men alike. All the color, action and excitement of this great celebration has been captured in Warner Bros. two-reel Technicolor short subject, "Calgary Stampede," which is currently the added attraction at the Capitol Theatre.

"UP IN CENTRAL PARK" PLEASING TO EYE AND EAR

The eye-and-ear-pleasing musical extravaganza, "Up in Central Park," which had a long and successful run as a Broadway play, opens today as a motion picture at the Prince Edward Theatre and it may be said with sincerity that the film version not only recaptures the color, beauty and gaiety of the original but outshines it. Packed with splendid music to which the lovely voice of Deanna Durbin does full justice and balanced nicely with a credible story, the Universal-International picture is big time entertainment.

Co-starred with Miss Durbin are Dick Haymes, in the role of a crusading young reporter and Vincent Price, as the politically ruthless Boss Tweed. The film tells the story of Miss Durbin's arrival in New York from Ireland with her father, played by Albert Sharpe. They fall in with the Tweed political machine for the Boss can appreciate beauty when he sees it in the voice and face of the young coleen. Haymes secures the support of the girl's father and he exposes the corrupt nature of Tweed's machine. Miss Durbin sparkles brightly as she sings a number of hit songs with great freshness and beauty.

Tom Powers and Hobart Cavanaugh are featured in the film directed by William A. Selter and producer and written for the screen by Karl Tunberg. The music is by Sigmund Romberg.

Miss Helen Martin, Jacksonville, Florida, is spending her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, New Perth. At present Miss Martin is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. R. Garrick, Montague.

Mrs. Ira MacLaren, Brudenell, left last week for Sackville where she will visit with her brother, Herman Martin. She will also spend some time in Deedsbury, Alberta, with her sons Bruce and Kenneth who are residing there.

The July meeting of the Young Women's Guild of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Mrs. Leonard Glass, Monday evening. In the absence of the president, the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Byron Stewart. The hymn "Just As I Am" was sung with Mrs. Elsie Waterworth as organist. The scripture was read by Mrs. Douglas Nicholson followed by prayer led by Miss Thelma Larter. Roll call was answered by thirteen members. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The financial report was read by the treasurer, Miss Larter, and after some discussion, it was moved and seconded that the society give three hundred dollars towards the redecoration of the church. Tentative plans were made for an ice cream social to be held on the church grounds in the near future. The meeting closed with the Misspah Benediction, after which lunch was served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Waterworth and Mrs. Percy Myers.

The annual school meeting of District No. 3 was held in the Montague High School, June 29th with Mr. Lorne Wigginton occupying the chair. The minutes of the last annual meeting and other special meetings were read and adopted. The secretary, Mr. Lester MacLeod, read a letter from the Department of Education, and also the trustees' report. The auditor's report was also read, and found correct and adopted. Mr. Warren Wightman was re-elected as auditor for the coming year. Mr. Arthur Sullivan was re-elected trustee for the next three years. The trustee board now comprises Mr. Ben MacLure, chairman, Mr. C. R. Boehner, and Mr. A. E. Sullivan. The teaching staff has undergone a few changes and now comprises Mr. Harold F. Landry, Mr. Leslie Stuart, Miss Ruby MacLeod, Mrs. Minnie MacDonald, Mrs. Elsie Waterworth, Miss Annie MacEachern, and Miss Marion Furness. Miss Anne Matheson, former grade nine and ten teacher, has accepted a position on the teaching staff of Prince Street School, and Miss Mary Gill, has resigned her position in the county department. At the close of the meeting the Domestic Animal Act was taken under discussion, and it was moved by Judge C. St. Clair Trainer that Reeves be appointed to enforce the Domestic Animals Act. Further discussion took place with regard to the building of a two-room annex on the main building, which had been discussed at a previous meeting. Plans are now in the hands of the architect, and work on the new rooms is expected to begin within the near future. Owing to the growing number of students present facilities have proved to be inadequate, and as a consequence, it is felt only two rooms will alleviate the situation. It has been proposed that the two rooms be so constructed that they will open into one large auditorium thus providing the community with a community hall which could be used for all purposes. The necessity of such an enterprise is apparent to all, and would provide facilities for many other subjects which might be added to the curriculum. The trustees and citizens are to be greatly commended for their initiative and foresight in looking to the future education of their children in this growing community.—Lan.
