The little money-time-and-trouble-savers

The quarterly meeting of the P. E. I. Presbytery was held yesterday in Zion Hall with a large attendance of ministers and elders. The chair was occupied by Rev. J. A. Greenlee in the absence of the Moderator.

After adoption of minutes, Rev. Dr. McEwen was elected Moderator for the ensuing term. Intimation was made that Mr. A. McKay had accepted the call to New Richmond and Mr. J. M. McNeill about the same time with pleasure. The heartfelt sympathy of all will go out to the two orphaned children deprived of a father's and mother's care at a tender age.

Short complimentary speeches were made by Mr. Freeman, Mr. Cotton, Mr. Nash, and Mr. Smith. Mr. Horace Haszard at the close of an encouraging speech offered $100.00 to be spent as the Board wished and said the Y was an institution that was a credit to the city.

Mrs. Henry Smith chairman of the nominating committee moved that Mrs. R. E. Mutch, Mrs. Samuel Kennedy, Mrs. (Dr.) Smallwood, and Mrs. Harold Jenkins be appointed to fill vacancies on the Board.

Much regret was expressed at the enforced absence of Mrs. E. T. Higgs convener of the furnishing Directors. The work of this committee was very arduous and well performed as was shown by her report read by Miss Amy Earle.

The House Committee's report was read by Miss Margaret Cotton, convener, and showed faithful work. After business was completed, Miss Lillian Earle, gave well executed piano solo and Mrs. Dingwell sang very sweetly "As-thore."

The business meeting then closed with the Dextery, Miss Lillian Earle, at the piano. A social hour was then spent, dainty refreshments being served.
