WHERE THEY ARE EASY ON CRIME

Criminals Seem to be On Velvet In The City of Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Jan. 14.—Considerable comment has been heard on the streets lately owing to the number of men charged with serious crimes who have so far escaped punishment.

The police say that a number of men are wanted on charges of murder, but no systematic plans have been made to apprehend them.

It is claimed that the police department is seriously handicapped owing to the attorney-general's department declining to approve the spending of the necessary money to detect criminals or to bring them to justice.

The death occurred in Milton on Sunday last at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Moreside and Mrs. Richard Bolt, after a long illness. She leaves to mourn, besides a loving husband, the following family: Mrs. W. McNeill and Mrs. S. Moreside, Milton, Mrs. Ada McKinnon and John Bolt, Washington.

The funeral, which was conducted by Archdeacon Reagh, was largely attended, the burial being in Milton cemetery.

Three of the newsboys were placed under arrest and another disturbance followed at Station 2, on City Hall Avenue, when the police tried to get the arrested youths into the station.

The trouble was incident in a strike of union newsboys, called last Tuesday, against the American, which, it was claimed, had raised the price of paper to the newsboys.

NEW FEATS BY THE MAGICIAN

At Fairland tonight Hansone the magician will introduce a number of new features in his magnificent performance which is drawing great crowds to the Opera House. Among the changes will be the production of live ducks from mysterious places in a mysterious manner. Hansone is not only a star magician but possesses a fund of comedy so that his act passes off with a brightness and snap that adds greatly to the enjoyment. The great flag feature, the restoration of the borrowed watch, the wonderful disappearance and re-appearance of the coins, the marvelous egg trick, are puzzling, perplexing and picturesque. The professor is a leading exponent of refined vaudeville and has a most pleasing personality. Fairland is being heartily congratulated on securing such a favorite artist.

The moving pictures including "The Ferryman's Daughter," "The Plank," and others are all of the high standard which are making the Fairland programs famous. Cab No. 23. Everyone has heard of No. 23, Skidoo. Amusing and exciting experiences of a cab bearing this hoodoo number, will be shown tonight.

The new illustrated song to be sung by Mr. Maddison is another strong feature of the mammoth program which is making this week a memorable one at the Opera House.

PARLIAMENT WAS BUSY YESTERDAY

Spent Four Hours Discussing Immigration And Answering Questions Canadian Troops to Be Continued at Halifax

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—(Special)—The Commons spent four hours today talking immigration. The Opposition claimed the Government was responsible for too many people coming to Canada and people of the wrong kind. The Government retorted that many were brought by friends of the Conservative party including the Manufacturers' Association. Mr. Oliver contended that the Government had checked the flow of Canadian emigration to the United States and brought in a fine class of settlers to Canada.

Mr. Cockshutt denied that he was a member of the Association and claimed that body had done much to bring good skilled workmen here. Mr. Borden thought granting bonuses for immigration should cease. Hon. Mr. Brodeur told Mr. Smith of Nanaimo that the naval station at Esquimaux had not yet been taken over by Canada. Sir F. Borden said there was no ground whatever for the rumor that the Canadian garrison at Halifax is to be replaced by British troops.

RESUMPTION OF THE THAW TRIAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The Thaw trial moved with a rush today. After the state had presented its direct case and Assistant District Attorney Garson had characterized the killing of Stanford White as a "premeditated, deliberate and cowardly murder," Martin W. Littleton, for the defense, made the opening plea for the prisoner. His promise of new evidence was sensational and held the attention of all in the court room. District Attorney Jerome, seemingly taken by surprise, testified himself in the witness chair, the better to hear the outline of the new defense. Mr. Littleton promised to produce a chain of circumstances and to produce a line of testimony which will prove Harry K. Thaw was undoubtedly insane at the time of the homicide. Mr. Littleton's speech fairly bristled with surprises. He started the court room by declaring that after Evelyn Nesbit had told him her story in Paris in 1902, Thaw "drenched himself with a poison," and after would have died but for the heroic work of three physicians who labored over him all of one night.
