THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province. BAD ROADS.—The roads on Monday were in bad condition being dangerous for the horses as it did not freeze hard enough to make the roads firm.—R.

FOX NEWS.—The directors of the Greater Bed Bridge Fox Ranch have disposed of nearly all the shares in the paid up capital. It is thought that the prospects of this ranch are among the best.—R.

RAIDED.—The policemen on Tuesday raided the store of Ernest White on Grafton Street for intoxicants. The only kind of liquor found in the place was beer, a sample of which is now being analyzed.

DAMAGED BY FIRE.—A serious fire occurred at the home of Mr. Charles McKenna, Newton Cross, last Friday morning. The outburst occurred early in the morning and before it was noticed the interior of the house was badly destroyed.

FOOD ADVICE.—The New Glasgow News advises all foxmen of Nova Scotia who are desirous of finding out "how they do it" in Prince Edward Island to secure a copy of The Golden Pelt, which that journal says is the only complete and exclusive black fox book published in Eastern Canada.

PRICE WEBBER RESTING.—Mr. H. Price Webber, the popular actor, who is well known in this Province, has disbanded his company after having completed a forty-one weeks' tour of this province and Maine. They will remain idle until Easter, when they will again tour the Provinces and Maine.

DRIVERS AND TRAMPS.—During the past week the roads have been in splendid condition for driving and sleigh rides have been in order. Almost every evening parties of happy, joyous youths and young ladies have been seen skimming over the roads on the outskirts of the city, and after a reasonable time spent in the drive pulling up at the home of some housewife and getting a bountiful repast.

A WOOD NYMPH.—The experience of the man Joseph Knowles, called the "Man of the Woods" which were told by himself to audiences in Charlottetown and other places in the Island a few months ago, when on a lecturing tour, are to be repeated by a Maine girl, according to an announcement given out by the girl's father, although her identity has not yet been revealed.

A GOOD WORD FOR P. E. I.—Before a large and enthusiastic audience in the club rooms of the Montreal Publicity Association the other evening Mr. W. T. Robson, formerly of the C. P. R., delivered a stirring address on the tourist attractions of Canada and advised that the Dominion be advertised abroad.

Mr. D. D. will cure the worst case eczema if you give it the chance. We know of dozens of people who have been cured by this wonderful remedy—it gives instant relief from the terrible itching and we highly recommend it in all skin diseases—25c. and $1.00 bottles. E. A. Foster, Central Druggstore, Agent for D. D. D.

MOUNT EDWARD FOX CO.—The Canada Fox Exchange have a few shares in the Mount Edward Fox Company for sale. This company was very successful during the past year and should pay good dividends in 1914. Shares are $100 each.

Mr. Dennis D. Arsenault, who is a news reporter for the Guardian will be pleased to receive news of importance by mail to North Rustico or by phone. 2788-11-12metf

FOR ALBERTON.—A team from St. Dunstons College went to Alberton yesterday afternoon to play a game of hockey there with a team from that town.

ICE RACING.—The last rain storm cleared the ice of North Rustico River entirely and gives free access to those who intend to do some trotting in this section.—R.

THE FARMER—THE FOWL.—The poultry department of the McDonald College at St. Anne de Bellevue, Que, recently inaugurated a bulletin for the members of the girls' and boys' poultry club. It is the object of the poultry department of McDonald College to assist in every way in the development of the poultry industry.

SERIOUS OPERATION.—The many friends of Mrs. S. F. Tarbush in the city and country will be sorry to learn that she has been so seriously ill that she was required to undergo an operation and was removed to the Prince Edward Island Hospital yesterday morning. Last night the operation was reported successful and it was pleasing to learn that Mrs. Tarbush was resting comfortably.

CHURCH BUSINESS MEETING.—The parishioners of St. John's Church Crapaud, held their annual business meeting on Tuesday Jan. 27th. The Church Warden's report showed the parish to be in a flourishing condition financially, the Rector's stipend and all expenses being fully paid, and a snug sum still remaining in the hands of the Warden.

Why the Rosemont Fox Company is a Good Investment

In the first place a Company with ten pairs of foxes makes a safe investment as a good average can be secured from this number. The fact that the foxes are principally proved breeders almost entirely eliminates every element of risk. The fact that the Rosemont Company made such a record and received so much free advertising will enable the Company to secure the highest market price for its stock.
