

THE LURKING MOTH

In putting away furs and woolen garments don't overlook the fact that unless you properly protect them, they may be ruined by moths during the warm months.

Moth balls, gum camphor naphthaline flakes, cedar and avender flakes cost but a trifle and are an effective safe guard. We keep the best quality of these.

TWO LONG YEARS HE SUFFERED "Fruit-a-tives" Made Him Feel As If Walking On Air

ORILLIA, ONT., Nov. 28th, 1914. "For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. One day I saw your sign which read "Fruit-a-tives make you feel like walking on air." This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends."

WOUNDED IN FRANCE NOW IN ENGLISH HOSPITAL

Mrs. Walter Whitlock, Hunter River, has received the following letter from her son: 5 Block Firvale Hospital Sheffield England April 14th 1917

Dear Mother:—Just a few lines to let you know that I am getting on fine. How is everybody in H. R.? I suppose you heard of the big Battle that we went into. It was an awful slaughter. It was on the 9th of April that we went over the top at 5.30 in the morning and we met the Germans face to face. I think that I shot about 19, and I drove the Bayonet into about 20, so I think that I did my bit and a little later on in the morning I was working around in no man's land when a German shell from his artillery came over and I happened to be in the way when it busted and blew me up in the air and a piece of the shell hit me on the elbow. It hit the bone and I never came out so I have got to go under an operation to get it out. My chum that was with me got out fine. I am in England now and as soon as I get better I am going back to kill a few more. I must come to a close for now. Love to all. My address is at the top of the letter so write soon from your loving son. WILFRID

P. S. I will write as soon as I come out of the operation and let you know how I go along. Put my number and Battalion on the letter. Write soon. No. 712235 Pie.W. Whitlock C. Co. 13 Canadian B. N. R. H. C. B. E. F. Firvale Hospital Sheffield Eng.

FOUGHT TWENTY MONTHS IN THE TRENCHES

Then Luck Deserted Lieut. R. J. Macdonald and Death Called—Formerly of P. E. Island.

The following reference to Lieut. R. J. Macdonald will be read with deep regret by many relatives in this Province. Lieut. Macdonald was a nephew of the late Capt. J. A. Macdonald of this city, and is the second nephew to make this great sacrifice. His father the Rev. A. D. Macdonald was pastor at Hampton, P. E. I., before moving west.

The official figures given out by Ottawa mentions that since Easter Monday the total casualties among the Canadians now amount to 13,184. From other sources it is learned that a heavy toll is being taken of Calgary men, and according to an official telegram received this morning Lieut. R. J. Macdonald, the only son of the Rev. A. D. Macdonald, of the Church's aid, and Mrs. Macdonald, has been killed in action. He was a most popular young officer in the battalion in which he enlisted here and was chosen among others to precede the main unit with a draft on Labor Day, 1915. He had been in the trenches for close upon twenty months before yielding his life in the great conflict.

Lieut. J. R. Macdonald, the only son of the Rev. A. D. Macdonald, of the Children's Aid Society, and Mrs. Macdonald, has been killed in action. This sad intelligence was only received by telegram this morning from Ottawa. The brief statement merely mentions that he had been killed, but that, as he had been in the trenches for close on twenty months, he would shortly have a well-deserved rest. Bitter, indeed, is this grief and sorrow, for being the only son he was idolized by his parents.

A fine young man never offered his services to his country. He left with a draft of that battalion which was exclusively recruited in Calgary by Lieut. Col. Armstrong on Labor Day, 1915. As mentioned by The Herald when the draft left for overseas, his ambition was to get away to the front, and when he was appointed to the draft his whole platoon volunteered to go with him.

The late lieutenant was only 27 years of age. He was widely known in the city and had a host of friends. For several years he was one of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, but immediately before answering his country's call was connected in business with A. M. Williams, of the Motor Livery company.

The heartfelt sympathy of citizens will go out to Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald and the other members of the family in their sad loss. They have resided in Calgary for the past eleven years and came from Prince Edward Island.

The late lieutenant's stay in England was but short when he crossed with the draft. He specialized in machine gun work, and within two months of arriving in the old country was sent to France as an officer in that battalion which was originally commanded by the late Lieut. Col. Boyle. Without intermission he had been in the trenches ever since and up to the 28th of last month had borne a charmed life although he had been through some of the most severe engagements on the western front.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OF DR. AND MRS. HEARTZ

The handsome home of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Heartz was the scene of a rare event, yesterday afternoon—a Golden Wedding Anniversary, when more than two hundred friends gathered to extend their heartiest congratulations, upon attaining this supremely happy event in their life.

All classes of people in all walks of life, representing fully the varied religious denominations in the town of Amherst, were present to extend their felicitations. Congratulatory telegrams and letters were received by scores from all parts of the Dominion and the United States.

In one telegram in particular does Dr. Heartz take great pride. It was sent from the pastor and Official Board of the First Methodist Brick Church, Charlottetown. Forty-five years ago our worthy townsman entered the ministry from this church. The pastor and board in a lengthy wire, delivered to Dr. and Mrs. Heartz their sincere congratulations, over the great happening in their lives.

All yesterday afternoon until late in the evening, the residence was filled with friends. Little Miss Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes, presented Dr. and Mrs. Heartz with a gorgeous bouquet of flowers, in the midst of which was a valuable brooch. From his children Dr. Heartz received a handsome gold watch, with an inscription suitable for the occasion upon the case. Mrs. Heartz was presented with a magnificent gold bracelet watch. At the close Rev. Mr. McConnell, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, delivered an eloquent address of appreciation for Dr. Heartz's services to the Methodist Church in the Maritime Provinces, during the many years in which he has labored so faithfully.

Many other valuable gifts were also received from numerous friends and relatives.

The children present were: Dr. and Mrs. Williamson, Yarmouth; Mr. A. G. Bell and his wife, Mrs. (Dr.) Bell, Halifax; Mrs. A. I. Johnson, whose husband is an officer with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces; Dr. and Mrs. G. E. O'Brien, of Amherst; Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Campbell, Amherst; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Heartz, of Marshfield, P. E. I.; Mrs. Taylor, Dr. Heartz's sister, was present, as was also Mrs. Heartz's only surviving brother John H. Killam, who with his wife, were in attendance at the Anniversary.

Speaking about the career of Dr. Heartz, we may say that he was born in Charlottetown and took up the ministry as a labor of love fifty-five years ago. His wife, Mrs. Heartz, is a daughter of the late Hon. Thomas Killam, the first Member of Parliament for Yarmouth County in the Federal Government at Ottawa, fifty-one years ago. Dr. Heartz with a class of thirteen associates was ordained for the ministry at St. John incidentally it might be added that nine of these have gone to their reward. One has married for the second time; the rest are widowers. Of the number, Dr. Heartz is the only one that has celebrated his Golden Anniversary.

Sgt. Duncan MacNeil of the Canadians says Dr. Cassell's Tablets Cured his L. Dyspepsia Completely.

Sergeant Duncan MacNeil, of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, writing from Europe (his home address is 116, Pleasant street, Halifax, N. S.) says: "For six years I suffered from frequent attacks of dyspepsia, of an being in bed for days at a time. When the war broke out I joined the Expeditionary Force and came to England. I had not been long there, however, when my old trouble returned and I had to go to hospital. While in hospital a friend told me of Dr. Cassell's Tablets, and I decided to try them. The first box brought such pronounced relief that I continued the treatment to make a long story short, a complete cure was effected."

THE "WINDOW UMBRELLA" MAKES ITS APPEARANCE.

There is no longer any need for pedestrians to go to blind when trying to get about town in a storm and risking precious lives under the feet and wheels of vehicular and automobile traffic, for a New York manufacturer has brought out an umbrella with a window in it. The window umbrella, or "See-oscope," as it is called, now being offered to the trade is said to fill a popular demand for a rain shed that can be carried well down over the head and face in a driving storm and still permit one to see ahead and thereby avoid knocking into other pedestrians and horses.

The little window, more than half way down from the tip and equidistant from a rib on either side in the silk, is made of a pliable substance through which one may see clearly what is in front or on either side. The window does not prevent the umbrella being rolled up tightly when not in use.

Riley: "So Casey was killed intricately by the explosion. Who broke the news to the widdy?" Rooney: "Twas big Tim Houlihan as did it."

Riley: "Did he do it gently, and by degrays?" Rooney: "Troth, he did, thin. He begun by askin' her to marry him."

Home Industry!

In order to facilitate the exchange between farmers having

Young Pigs for Sale

and those by whom such may be WANTED, we respectfully tender our services free of charge, and invite correspondence from all interested.

It is not our intention to deal in those at all, but if farmers having any for sale will write us full particulars of number, age, breed and price, we will pass the information along in reply to any inquiries we may have from farmers desiring to purchase.

The finished pork will all be needed, and at good prices, and co-operation in this way, to keep as many hogs as possible for feeding within the province, instead of being exported, should tend very materially to our mutual benefit.

KEEP BRIGHT

It is easy to keep that armour bright which is daily used, but hanging by the walls till it is rusty it will ask some time and pains to refurbish it over again; if an instrument be daily played upon, it is easily kept in tune; but let it be but a while neglected and cast into a corner; the strings break, the bridge flies off, and no small labor is required to bring it in to order again.

And thus also it is in things spiritual, in the performance of holy duties, if we continue them, with a settled constancy, they will be easy, familiar, and delightful to us but if once broken off, and intermitted, it is a new work to begin again, and will not be reduced to the former estate but with much endeavor and great difficulty.—Spencer.
