A FAIRYLAND OF GIFT SUGGESTIONS

Visitors to the store of The Two Maes, at 149 Great George St., will find it a place of good gift suggestions. Here you will find articles of every day utility and genuine work that will make ideal gifts for men, women, and the younger folks.

First among the dainty suggestions are chocolates. This store makes a specialty of handling the very best lines on the market today and put forth special efforts to make the Christmas display better than anything else of its kind in the city. Here are chocolates in beautiful holiday boxes—the choicest confections from such famous makers as McIris, Nelson, Rockwood, Lowmyer, Ganong, and Nylo. The prices range from 25c. to $5.00 a box.

Then there are dressing cases for men and women, made of genuine leather, very stylish, with fittings from 3 to 10 pieces, priced at $6.00 to $15.00. Also manicure sets in genuine leather cases with fittings of the best.

A splendid line of the famous English cameras, an English hand camera that is recognized by experts as one of the most simple, safe and satisfactory. This line ranges in price from $1.50 to $10.00.

Then there are Thermos bottles, tobacco jars, cased pipes—a special agent's sample line, no two alike, agent's prices $1 to $3, special holiday discount of 25 per cent.—photo albums, cased military brushes, safety razors ranging in prices from 75c. to $4, hand mirrors in ebony and Parisian ivory, pocket flasks ranging in price from $1 to $2.50, cased perfumery from the leading perfumers in Canada, the United States, England and France, all the leading brands in cigars in boxes at 55c. up, a splendid line of smoking tobaccos put up in such a dainty way that they will make most acceptable gifts for your smoker friends.

Notwithstanding the unvarying high quality of these articles the prices are most conservatively low and will appeal particularly to those who want to get a timely, useful and appropriate gift without paying an excessive price.

The store is open each evening until nine o'clock, Saturday 10.30. You should make it a point to call in and look over the line before the better suggestions have been taken up. 3155.

Getting a Start In Business

The Oliver Typewriter Company is establishing new Local Agencies in all parts of the United States and Canada, where territory is not already taken.

At each of these points some bright fellow will be given the opportunity of his life to create for himself a permanent, profitable business.

The lack of sales experience is no handicap. The Company gives successful applicants a thorough training, which includes a course in The Oliver School of Practical Salesmanship. We coach them individually.

Young men who have recently graduated from colleges and universities are eligible for these Local Agencies.

Bankers, business and professional men, or their employees, with time to spare, can handle the work.

—GOOD CONCERT.—One of the most successful concerts ever held in Kensington took place on Friday, December 5th, in the C. M. B. A. Hall. The object of the concert was to obtain funds for the payment of the deficit which exists on the new open-air rink, and, judging by the number present which completely filled the capacious hall, the people of Kensington and surrounding districts are not slow in supporting a cause which demands their sympathy. One thing very notable indeed was the splendid order maintained throughout the entire proceedings, and the Kensington Athletic Club, under whose auspices the concert was held, have every cause to be grateful in this respect. Perhaps the fame and imposing physique of the chairman of the evening had a beneficial influence in that line. Be that as it may, all were glad to hear Mr. James Pendegast chairman of the evening. In a neat speech he set forth the object of the concert after which the following program was rendered Solo, Darling, I am Growing Old, Mr. H. Burgess, Reading, The Habitant, Miss Nellie Green. This was received with great applause, Miss Green responding to the encore. Instrumental Music, Miss Glen Leslie, Messrs Harry Mill, Vernon Lynds and Harry Burgess. Declamation, Miss Ella McMahan (encored). Miss McMahan delighted all by her rendition of Lascia. Then came instrumental music and sale of candy while the stage was being prepared for the comedy, How to Tame your Mother-in-law.—The caste of characters was as follows:—Mr. Sampson Whiffles, a hen-pecked husband, from whose life many pleasures were banished because of the oppressive tendencies of his wife and his mother-in-law. This part was taken by Mr. Allan Cole. Mrs. Sampson Whiffles, that tyrant of a wife, Miss Jannie Lynds. Mrs. Incubus, the awful mother-in-law tamer, Mr. Ralph L. Eaton. Mr. Hunx, a land lord from whom Mr. Spangle has obtained lodgings, and who is in pursuit of that gentleman for payment of same.—Mr. Ernest Pidgeon. Tompkins.—Mr. Whiffles's shop-boy Mr. William Delaney. While Mrs. Incubus is on a visit to her daughter, Mr. Spangle managed, by a series of disguises to make her life so thoroughly miserable, that she vowed she would never again come near the place. Thus the shadow was lifted from Mr. Whiffles's life. This came a reading by Master Samuel Profit. This was followed by step-dancing by Master John Perry, Summerside. While only a boy Master Perry demonstrated his skill as a step dancer and was called back to the stage twice by the delighted audience. Next came a solo by Mr.

—Cameron, Summerside, which received a hearty encore. Last, but by no means least, indeed it was an instance of saving the best till the last, came a duet, When You and I Were Young Maggie. This was excellently rendered by Messrs John Thompson and Henry Burgess, and received very favorable comment. After the concert chairs were speedily piled up, and the hall cleared for dancing, music being provided by Mr. Harry Mill on the banjo, Mr. Bernard Ready on the violin and Miss Alice Shea on the organ. The accompanist of the evening was Miss Glen Leslie who performed that duty in her usual capable manner. The sum of $75 was realized, and the K. A. C. extends thanks to all who helped to make the affair a success.—K

OLIVER Typewriter

The standard Visible Writer

The Oliver Typewriter is now the big seller everywhere. "The Little Giant of the Typewriter World" has so many strong features that it is useless to attempt a detailed description here.

The Oliver's new and exclusive Printype, the type that prints real print, has won universal acclaim.

We Share Profits

No manufacturing concern gives its sales organization a more liberal share of its earnings than The Oliver Typewriter Company. We pay out many thousands of dollars every month to Oliver Local Agents.

Each Local Agent is given exclusive control of the sale of all new Oliver Typewriters in his territory. This gives our men a double incentive to earnest work—a liberal profit on every sale and a chance to build for the future.

Local Agents are authorized to sell the Oliver Typewriter on the "17-Cents-a-Day" Plan, and even have the privilege of paying for their sample outfits on the same basis.

Applicants who are qualified for these positions can start at once.

Full particulars of the Local Agency proposition, the "17-Cents-a-Day" Plan, together with Catalog and specimen Printype letter mailed on request. Address Agency Department.
