Among the passengers by the Northumberland to this City last evening were the following: James Edson and S. A. McDonald, returning from Sydney; A. Cullen, R. M. and Mrs. Johnson, from Halifax; Mrs. J. F. Trainor and child from Antigonish; and J. P. Woodbury from New Glasgow.

Advertisers are again reminded that their "business local" as well as their "changes" must be received at this office not later than one o'clock sharp of each week day, exclusive of statutory holidays, to insure insertion in next issue. All received later than the above hours will also appear when they do not interfere with the setting in type of the regular news of the day.

The funeral of the late Donald McKenzie took place yesterday afternoon at Peoples' Cemetery, the Masons attending in a body. The service at the house, which was largely attended, was conducted by Rev. T. F. Fullerton and Rev. D. McLean. Following were the pallbearers: A. Murray, S. W. Crabbe, H. Squarebriggs, W. Leah, W. L. Cotton and Prof. Robertson.

In first year Medicine at McGill the students from this province have made an excellent showing in the spring examination. In aggregate honors, F. H. McKay, Mount Stewart, takes third place, and L. G. Houle, City, secures fifth position. F. H. McKay obtains honors in physics, practical chemistry, inorganic chemistry, zoology, bacteriology, and passes in histology and anatomy. L. S. Houle has honors in practical chemistry, inorganic chemistry, botany and passes in other subjects. J. S. McLeod, City, passes in all subjects and gets honors in practical chemistry. L. W. McNutt, City, passes in all subjects. A. V. Webster, Mt. Stewart, is passed in all subjects with honors in inorganic chemistry.

The social occasion of the week in Pembina, N. Dak., was the tea given by Chas. and Mrs. Full on Wednesday evening complimentary to their daughter, Miss Muriel. Some twenty young ladies were invited and at seven o'clock were ushered into the dining room where a delicious course luncheon was served. The long table was lavishly decorated in pink. Pink ribbons were draped from the ceiling about the table and pink shaded candles lent their glow to the pretty scene. Place cards were fashioned in the form of pink and white slippers, and concealed therein each guest found a happy secret, announcing the betrothal of Sarah Muriel Full to Dr. Benjamin D. Lemery, of Inkster, and the date of the wedding to be on June 10th; which announcement called forth many congratulations and sincere wishes for the future happiness of both of these young people, and especially to those young who count every one a friend and who will be so greatly missed in social and church circles, in this the home of her girlhood. At nine the young ladies were joined by gentlemen partners selected according to the rules and regulations of the year A. D. 1908, and what was enjoyed until late hours, dancing which refreshments were served. Chas. Full referred to above is a brother to Geo. E. Full of this city and Mrs. Full a sister to Mark Wright and G. D. Wright also of this city.

"An elegant line of smokers goods just received. Choice briar pipes clear Havana cigars, and all kinds of tobacco. Prices right, kindly remember the place. A. W. Redfern, Phem. B.

Mrs. J. Wilfrid Davison will receive Wednesday, June 3rd.

W. T. Lindsay, of Truro, came to the City last night.

James Bell, jr., White Sands, is reported seriously ill.

George H. and Mrs. Tanton, Chelsea, Mass., are visiting in this City.

Sam Doyle of St. Francis Xavier College, Antigonish, is visiting in this City.

Capt. Jos. Read, M. L. A., Summerside, was a passenger to this City last night.

Reserve Monday July 20 for the League of the Cross picnic. Place and particulars later.

Mrs. W. S. Stewart of this City, returned home last night from a visit to Moncton and St. John.

Guardian readers should watch for date of recital to be given by an American artist of the highest rank.

Rev. D. McLean will preach in the Orwell Head church at 11 a. m. and in St. Andrew's church, Orwell, at 3.30 p. m., next Sabbath.

The funeral of the late James Pendegast will take place from his late residence Tea Hill, at 8.30 a. m., this Wednesday to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to Roman Catholic Cemetery.

Any young girl about sixteen or seventeen years of age, with a good common school education and who desires a position should apply to X. Y. Z., P. O. Box 1230 at once stating wages desired.

The surveying steamer Ellinor leaves Halifax today for the northeast coast of Newfoundland to resume the survey work where she left off last season. The Ellinor lay at the dockyard all winter and her surveying officers occupied during the winter, offices in the dockyard, where they completed reports of last summer's work and charted all the soundings taken. Since coming to Halifax the Ellinor was overhauled and several thousand dollars were spent on her. She went on the maine ship and a new propeller fitted and was painted inside and outside with the result that the handsome vessel presents a much better appearance than when she arrived last autumn. Joseph Blackney, been first officer on board, for two who is well known in this City, has for three years continues in that position this season.

The entertainment in St. Paul's Schoolroom last evening was well attended and was one of the best local events of the season. The court of Justice, Act IV of the Merchant of Venice was decidedly good, each character being aptly taken and well delineated, the different speakers being clearly heard all over the hall. The musical portion consisted of vocal solos by Miss Earle, Miss Fitzgerald, Miss Blanchard, violin solo by Miss Helen Palmer, club swinging and mandolin solo by Rufus Hogan, male quartette by Messrs. Moore, Wellner, Foster, Hine and enjoyable readings by Miss Harrison and C. N. Pruner. The charming Dish Tragedy by three young ladies assisted by Geo. D. DeBois was exceedingly mirthful and caused much applause as did the other items of the lengthy program and many encores were gracefully given.

FAMOUS SOAP

Is Good Soap

It's the Goodness of the Soap, that should cause you to buy it. It's really better Soap than other wrapped laundry soaps sold at Five Cents. An 1 it's a bigger cake too.

There are other reasons why it's worth your while to use Famous Soap. It's made at home. It keeps your money in local circulation where some of it will come back to you again. And the making of soap is a growing industry which will help build up your own town and province.

A WORD TO THE SOAP SELLERS

How is your stock of Famous Soap and Silver Bar. Don't by any chance let yourself run short. These are the laundry soaps that are selling today, and may be had at a day's notice from the P. E. Island Soap Works, Charlottetown, P. E. I.
