Wood-MacLure Nuptials

On July 24th at 7:30 p.m., the Charlottetown Baptist Church was the setting for the wedding of Hilda Mabel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh John MacLure of Charlottetown, and Hollis Thomas, son of Mrs. John Wood and the late Mr. Wood of Brookfield, with Rev. J. D. Davison officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated for the happy occasion with lovely summer flowers. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in an ivory satin gown fashioned on princess lines, blue lace train and matching headpiece.

The bride was attended by Miss Phyllis Burhoe, who wore a gown of ice blue moire taffeta, fashioned on princess lines, blue lace mitts, and matching headpiece. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The little flower girl, Virginia Shaw, cousin of the bride, wore pink tulle over tulle and carried a basket of orange blossoms. Mr. Ralph Cruwys ably supported the groom.

Derrell MacLure, cousin of the bride, and Horace MacSwain, friend of the groom, were ushers. Miss Shirley MacKay sang "O Perfect Love" while the register was being signed. Mrs. Allison MacRae presided at the organ.

The bride's mother was attired in black flowered sheer with black and pink accessories and wore a corsage of tallman roses. The groom's mother wore black flowered jersey with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

IN MEMORIAM MRS. JOHN M. MCINNIS The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on Sunday, July 3rd, of Mrs. John M. McInnis, of Mount Mellick, formerly Miss Jennie Lively of Halifax, in her 53rd year. Thought in failing health for the past two years, she was able to be about and attend to her household duties, and her sudden passing after one week's illness came as a shock to all her relatives and friends.

Despite all that medical aid could do she passed peacefully away, surrounded by her family, after receiving the last rites of the Catholic Church from the Rev. Msgr. Maurice McDonald. Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn the loss of a good wife and loving mother, five daughters, Ethel, Mrs. Wilfred Hayes, Charlottetown; Agnes, Mrs. James Cannon, Charlottetown; Helen, Mrs. Beverly Parker, Halifax; Jennie in Hamilton, Ont.; Mary, Mrs. Errol Dayman, Toronto; also one son Charles at home. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Blake Lively, Beaver Bank, N. S. The funeral was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Cannon, Belmont Street, on Tuesday, July 5th, to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, where Requiem High Mass was sung by her pastor, Rev. Urban Gillis, P.P., who officiated at the grave.

The pall bearers were W. H. Drake, Hett Richards, Arden Richards, Daniel Cannon, Edwin Duffy and Charles Duffy. The casket number present testified to the esteem in which she was held. May her soul rest in peace. The following is a list of Mass cards, floral tributes, cards and letters of sympathy.
