THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Rev. Ewen McDougall will preach Sabbath twenty-sixth at Kinross at ten-thirty a.m.

The closing exercises of the Model School will take place Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Rev. Gordon Dickie, St. John, well known here, has fully recovered from his recent illness.

Prof. Earle caught a beautiful dea trout at the Park yesterday morning that weighed two pounds. Beat that.

The many friends of Miss Mattie Bethune, City, will regret to hear that she is ill of appendicitis in the P. E. I. Hospital.

J. K. Ross, City, has returned from Sydney and Glace Bay where he spent three weeks in the interests of the North American Life Assurance Co.

Every day at about noon the weather probabilities for the next twenty-four hours are posted up at Johnson's Drugstore. These are the official forecasts as received from the Meteorological Department of Canada.

On Saturday Captain Lugar, Halifax, successfully adjusted the compasses of the Government steamer Earl Grey, during a dense fog and under weather conditions that would have puzzled the skill of many mariners.—Chronicle.

Rev. I.C. and Mrs. Archiba'd, missionaries from India, and well known here, addressed a meeting in Hampton, N.B., last week. Mrs. George Howard and Mrs. March, also well known here, took active parts in making the meeting a success.

For the past two weeks, The Guardian has on Saturday morning published a short sermon from Shakespeare, the great dramatist. These sermons will appear weekly in the Saturday Guardian and are written in such a way as to appeal to both educated and uneducated, young and old. There is nothing in them that the humblest reader cannot understand and appreciate. The style is attractive and in every paragraph there is something to make even the most careless think over the problems of life and death.

The Brant arrived in port yesterday afternoon at two thirty from Pictou where she had been on the slip for the past few days. She leaves this evening for East Point and will take up a cargo of timber for construction work and repairs which are necessary to the East Point Lighthouse buildings. When through there the Brant will proceed to Georgetown and will bring the dredge Prince Edward from that port to Brush wharf. While in Georgetown Harbor the dredge has been doing things and the result of her work will be properly appreciated next winter when it will likely be necessary to dock the Government steamers at that port. Heretofore the complaint of a lack of water has been re-echoed but now there is a cut on the west side of the marine wharf in the harbor which is three hundred feet in length and one hundred feet wide. At low tide, water to a depth of twenty-four feet will be found which is ample to accommodate almost any steamer or sea-going vessel which makes Prince Edward Island a port of call.

Miss Sadie Calhoun, in The Girl and the Boys, thoroughly delighted the large audience gathered at the Opera House last evening. Miss Calhoun, is an old favorite, always sure of a kindly reception and is supported by a strong company. The plot opens in the western states the home of Sunshine, Miss Calhoun the girl, and Dovey, Jacky and Lively, the boys, the question to decide being whether Sunshine should be sent to School. The decision made, sadness fills their hearts. Arthur Bimthrope, the scapegoat of an aristocratic English family appears on the scene, makes love to Sunshine and tries to induce her to run away from her boys. Sunshine, who thinks herself in love with the villain, does not understand his proposal at first and is filled with horror as the truth dawns on her innocent mind. In the struggle which ensues Jacky, one of the boys, who has witnessed the scene from the door unnoticed and to whom Sunshine is dearer than life, shoots Arthur dead, he lying too vile to live. Sunshine then visits her English relatives, falls earnestly in love with Arthur's brother Col. Brimthrope but refuses to marry him when she discovers him to be the former's brother. She returns home to her boys and later is followed by the Col. She tells of the shooting and all ends happily. The ladies were exquisitely gowned and acted their parts with thorough ease and left that feeling of pleasure and longing to see them again. The gentlemen well sustained their parts and the strong western comedy drama was one well worth seeing should it be repeated.

J. J. Pitre and bride, Bathurst, have returned from a visit to this city.

B. F. Smith, Kensington, came to the city last evening and registered at the Revere.

A new concrete walk has been laid on Grafton Street past the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

It was a portion of the Sermon for June 25th which appeared Saturday and not July 25th as stated yesterday.

The schooners Champion, Neal Dow and Maple Leaf, from this port arrived in Rexton, N. B. on Saturday.

All readers when writing to advertisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

M. Ross Bethune, City, returned last evening from Toronto where he had been attending the annual convention of the Canadian Order of Foresters.

The ladies of St Joseph's Sodality propose holding a Strawberry Festival on the beautiful grounds of Judge Sullivan on the evening of Wednesday, July 6th.

Many friends were at the station yesterday to bid farewell to John McDonald who left for Prince Rupert, B.C. Jack was immensely popular and his departure for the west is much regretted.

C. M. MacRae of the Live Stock Branch, Ottawa, will address Agricultural meetings this week as follows, Tuesday, June 21st, Bethel, Wednesday, June 22nd, York, Thursday, June 23rd, Mt. Herbert, Friday June 24th, Cornwall, Saturday, June 25th, Brackley Point. It is earnestly hoped these meetings will be largely attended.

Teasdale, a former pastor of the First Methodist Church here, was also spoken of and a memorial service was held for those ministers who have passed away in the past year. The Rev.
