DE VALERA TO BE SUGGEST THAT FREED THIS WEEK

Release of Irish Prisoners Causes Speculation—Republic Question Raised

(British United Press)
LONDON, July 15.—The announcement that the remaining Irish leaders who are now in prison on sedition and similar charges, including Eamonn DeValera and Austin Stack, will be released this week is arousing considerable speculation with regard to developments in the Free State. Mr. Rutledge, secretary to the Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, Colonial Secretary, following the latter's statement that the Labor Government would not countenance any steps to establish a republic in Ireland. The carrying out of the plan of the Free State is generally regarded as a political barometer. It is feared that the general business depression throughout the Free State may induce many wavering voters to vote for a republic.

Conditions Not Good.

The number of bankruptcies and the distress throughout the congested districts of the west are said to be appalling. The immense destruction which is the result of the civil war has aroused fear that British capital will not be available for investment in Irish enterprises. The Free State is reported taking steps to interest Germany in financing several large schemes of development especially in connection with a great power scheme.

Total expenses for the year in regard to operation were $5,988.65 from which was deducted expenses which in the strict sense of the word were not chargeable to operation and amounted to $1156 leaving the net operating expenses at $4772.80, a most satisfactory and economical showing.

Mr. Wilfred Boulter gave the following interesting and comprehensive summary of the work done by the organization in the past year:

Mr. President and Gentlemen: We have met again in annual session to examine the work of the Association for the past year and to plan how we may best continue it.

One year ago we predicted that at this meeting we would be able to show almost half a million dollars for the year's business. The statement you received shows we have gone beyond the half million mark. I think we should be grateful for so successful a year. Grateful to our Creator who has permitted our efforts to be so remuneratively rewarded.

The Association year was a busy one, June finishing up deliveries of fertilizers, preparing financial statement and attending Potato Shows in Virginia, New Jersey and Long Island; July we held our annual meeting and prepared our plans for the season's work; August and September brought many interested potato men to whom we sought to extend every courtesy and gave them every facility for inspecting our crop; October and November were busy with shipping activities and the year closed with our meetings and conventions as shall be necessary to promote the work and aims of the Association. He shall collect all dues and other moneys belonging to the Association, keep an accurate account of

SUPREME COURT OPENED AT GEORGETOWN YESTERDAY

Chief Justice Mathieson Addresses The Grand Jury—No Criminal Docket.

The July term of the Supreme Court opened in Georgetown yesterday morning with the Chief Justice presiding. There being no criminal cases His Lordship was presented with the customary white gloves. After receiving the report of the Grand Jury and disposing of three civil charges comprising the non-jury docket adjournment was made until 11 a. m. this morning.

Following were the Grand Jurors: Bruce Butler, foreman; Murray River; William Leoin, Montague; Russell McLaren, New Perth; John T. Power Somerville; Wade Hughes, Souris; John McKinnon, Rollo Bay; John R. Lacey, Dundee; James McLellan, Montague; James Quinn, Cardigan; John MeIne, Rollo Bay; James Gordon, New Perth; Horatio Graham, Murray Harbor.

Addressing the Grand Jury His Lordship commented upon the gratifying absence of any bills of indictment. The presentation of the white gloves to the presiding judge is associated with freedom from serious crime and the number of titles present was far greater than in previous years. It is only by constant vigilance today and yet by patience, diligence, economy and hope our people have overcome them. Those same qualities must be exercised now. It was to be regretted that we have got into a habit of decry our country—and in this way have lowered the standard of our faith in its future. How different to the first settlers here who despite many hardships of which today we know nothing, won healthy prosperity and contentment as the result of their own efforts.

Referring next to the province in general His Lordship pointed out that we have one of the most desirable places in all the world in which to live, yet we are suffering an alarming decrease in population the cause of which must be deep-rooted, for that crime has become so far removed from us that it becomes the duty of every good citizen to look into the causes of this continuing decline and seek if possible for a remedy.

Looking back over many years His Lordship could recall other periods in which the real causes for depression were far greater than they are today and yet by patience, diligence, economy and hope our people have overcome them. Those same qualities must be exercised now. It was to be regretted that we have got into a habit of decry our country—and in this way have lowered the standard of our faith in its future. How different to the first settlers here who despite many hardships of which today we know nothing, won healthy prosperity and contentment as the result of their own efforts.

His confederates were charged with breaking in and entering the residence of T. C. Critchley. The Grand Jury not only to deal with bills of indictment presented to them by the Crown but also to dividually to report to the law officers any known case of serious infraction of the law. The reduction in the number of the Grand Jury imposes on each member a correspondingly increased responsibility. It is only by constant vigilance today and yet by patience, diligence, economy and hope our people have overcome them. Those same qualities must be exercised now. It was to be regretted that we have got into a habit of decry our country—and in this way have lowered the standard of our faith in its future. How different to the first settlers here who despite many hardships of which today we know nothing, won healthy prosperity and contentment as the result of their own efforts.

The fliers have covered from the Pacific Coast of the American continent to their present resting place a distance of nearly 18,000 miles, in something less than four months. They will not remain here long, but will proceed to London and from there flying by way of Orkney Islands, Iceland and Greenland, Labrador and Canada return to United States.

"Decoy" Women On Pacific Rum Boats

(Canadian Press)
VANCOUVER, B. C., July 15.—The use of "decoy" women is an innovation among rum runners in Puget Sound and British Columbia waters.

Recently a large yacht came into English Bay, near here. It was observed that women were seated in luxurious wicker chairs on deck. The vessel dropped anchor, the awning canvas was run back on a roller and the women disappeared. Only the pilot house was visible. Liquor then was loaded on the yacht and as it cleared, the canvas, wicker chairs and women reappeared.

Later, according to fishermen at Everett, Wash., the ship tried to land liquor there. But a suspicious craft appeared and a quick getaway was decided on. The vessel speeded toward Vancouver. In the excitement one of the women on deck fell overboard. Fishermen rescued her and found she was a dummy.

Houses in Danger Near Hampton

(Canadian Press)
HAMPTON, N. B., July 15.—Despite the rain of Sunday and the efforts of the fighters the forest fire burning here still is serious. Efforts have been of no avail and although with the dying down of the wind the fire is not burning so fiercely tonight it is feared that tomorrow will find the situation still very bad, and requests for more help have been sent out.

The fire has burned over an area, so it is estimated, eight miles long and four miles in depth. It is burning in the heavily timbered land as well as in the brush. Buildings along the Passakeag road are in danger. The woods are so dry it is feared that tonight that the men could do little more than save the building.

TAKE SHIP AND 4,000 GALLONS ALCOHOL

(Canadian Press)
BOSTON, July 15.—The coast guard cutter Ossipee today towed into harbor here the three masted Canadian schooner Frances Louise laden with 4,000 gallons of alcohol. The boat which was seized about 16 miles off Race Point, Cape Cod, last night was anchored in the harbor with an armed guard aboard. Customs officials and treasury agents held a conference to determine further procedure. It was understood that the schooner had been delivering part of her cargo to shore by means of a steamer or motor boat and officials contended that this boat was capable of reaching the shore within an hour. One of the points to be determined was whether this fact placed the schooner within an hour's steaming distance from shore as stipulated for seizure under the recent treaty with Great Britain. The schooner was last reported as leaving Lunenburg, N. S., on July 1st, with no destination.

Burned Man Saved By Water Treatment

BALTIMORE, Md., July 15.—Johns Hopkins University Hospital surgeons have been remarkably successful with a new water cure for serious burns.

Although two-thirds of his body was covered with burns received in an accident at an industrial plant Herman Majors, 38 years old, will leave the hospital within a week restored to health.

Heretofore a person with one-third of the body covered with burns was regarded as a hopeless case.

For six days and nights Majors was kept in a bathtub filled with water, which was frequently changed. Great quantities of water were given to him to drink.
