—IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

—ARE HARVESTERS FEW?—Not according to a correspondent who writes: Judging from the number of study men folk who spin along in autos throughout the country it hardly looks as if labor was scarce for the haying season.

—HAPPY BRIDES.—The Summerfield Presbyterian Church was the centre of attraction, last Sunday afternoon, the people coming in carriages of all kinds, automobiles—and others, strictly on principal came on foot. The cause of the "full house" was that it seemed to be brides day. Three happy buxom brides appeared out. They not only represented our own fair province, but, also the "Great West." The bridal couples were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McDonald of Bradaibane, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Haslam of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Haslam of Claresholm, Alta.—R

—WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place at the Manse, Kensington, July 29th at 2 p. m. when Mr. Harold R. Walsh and Miss Grace C. Bowness were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. The couple were unattended and the double ring ceremony was recited. The bride looked charming in her beautiful travelling suit. Miss Bowness has been in the millinery department of Kennedy & Co's store at Kensington for the past year and has many sincere friends who will miss her in their social circles. Mr Walsh is one of Summerside's popular young men and is manager of the sporting goods department in the R. T. Holman Co., Summerside. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to Brackley Beach and other points, where they intend spending their honey moon. Congratulations. (Summerside papers please copy.) R

—WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday, July 23rd, at St. Mark's church, Lot 7, when Miss Mary Doyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Doyle, and Mr. Edward Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Griffin, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Father Stephen MacDonald. The bride was daintily attired in a dress of battleship grey satin, with silver trimmings and wore a bridal veil gracefully draped with lilies of the valley, and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Josie Callaghan, who wore a champagne silk dress with white hat, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Thomas Griffin. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Maye Brennan, and the nuptial nigh mass sung by Mr. Patrick Butte, interposed by the hymn "Adora Te." An unusual large number of friends and relatives witnessed the marriage, and after the happy couple had been showered with the congratulations of their friends they wended their way to the home of the bride, where at the hour of 12 o'clock upwards of one hundred and fifty guests partook of a sumptuous dinner. During the afternoon the guests were entertained by music, singing and recitations, after which they left for their homes amid showers of good wishes. This ended the enjoyment of the elderly people, but, before the shadows of the evening had settled the young folks came crowding in until more than eighty couples had assembled, and enjoyed a delightful evening in dancing, music, etc. A: about midnight all sat down to a wedding feast served in Mrs. Doyle's usual good style. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold pendant and to the bridesmaid a pearl covered prayer book. The bride's gift to the groom was a ring. Amid showers of good wishes the happy couple left on Wednesday morning for their future home in Burton. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin were the recipients of many handsome presents, which testified to the popularity in which the young couple are held.

Bernard.

—A SURPRISE PARTY.—On Friday evening, July 26th Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griffin were completely taken by surprise when the young people of Burtin and surroundings entered their home to welcome the newly married couple in their neighborhood. They didn't forget to bring a good violinist with them. Consequently the evening was pleasantly spent in dancing until the wee sma hours when the company dispersed after once more wishing Mr. and Mrs. Griffin a prosperous journey through life.

—THE NORTHUMBERLAND.—The boat docked Friday evening at 10.10, with 121 passengers, one car salt, one car farm implements, one car lime, one car sugar, five cars mixed freight and one car autos consigned to Messrs. Grant & Kennedy, Charlottetown; and one private auto owned by Mr. B. W. Yuill, Mass., who is touring the island on a pleasure trip. There were 91 outward passengers on the morning trip. There were five cars of outward freight on Saturday morning, also one auto accompanied by the owner, Mr. Frank Arsenault, Summerside, who will motor to Moncton, Rogersville, etc. The schooner General Middleton, Captain James Cameron, entered Friday from Pictou, with coal for the P. E. I. Railway. H

TANKER GOT AWAY FROM GERMAN SUBMARINE

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Aug. 1.—A tanker has arrived here after a five hour fight with a German submarine six hundred miles off the New Jersey coast, late Friday last. The ship's cook was wounded in one leg by shrapnel during the engagement. The U-boat, sighted when eight miles away, tried to head off the tanker from the land and then opened fire, discharging about two hundred shots. The tanker replied with forty shots from her four-inch guns, as she raced away, sending out S. O. S. calls by wireless. The submarine was fully outdistanced.

REGULAR PRICES FLOUR SUBSTITUTES

Interesting Statements as to Prevailing Prices in Eastern Canada.

OTTAWA, Aug. 3.—In order to protect the public against exorbitant prices when purchasing substitutes for wheat flour the Canada Food Board to-day issued a statement as to what retail prices should be considered reasonable in view of present wholesale prices. It is pointed out that in Eastern Canada white corn flour costs $11.50 to $12.10 per bbl. of 196 pounds and blended corn flour from $10.50 to $11.10.

In view of these wholesale prices the food board states that the retail prices for small quantities of corn flour when bought by the pound should not be more than six and three quarter cents in Eastern Canada. Wholesale prices of rye flour range from $12 per barrel at points of production in the west to $13 in Eastern Canada. Rye flour at retail in small quantities should not therefore cost the consumer more than seven and a half cents per pound in Eastern Canada.

Barley flour wholesale costs $9.50 at points of production in the west to $11 in Eastern Canada. Barley retailed in quantities should not cost the consumer more than six and three quarter cents in Eastern Canada. The food board's statement contains a warning to retailers that exorbitant prices for wheat must not be charged.
