ODDS and ENDS

A Mile of This and a Mile of That N.E.M.

This Week's Limerick

I've studied the stars in Orion I've gazed at the moon and clouds I'm sure that a meteorite will give me the answer: X March will go out like a lion.

Have you heard of the world's most famous man who is suing his wife for divorce because she held hands with the dentist while he was extracting her tooth?

Personally, when the pain is more than I care to bear, I make frantic efforts to kiss him on the cheek.

Theme song of the week — (Hitler's future prospect) — "Swing and Sway."

But not with Sammy Kaye! Elmsler, Goering and Goebbels will likely be his partners in this dance.

"Comin' Thru the Rhine" is an appropriate song for the British and American soldiers these eventful days.

THE JINGLE SERIES

Life's Tragedies

GOVERNMENT HOLIDAY

As usual the Provincial Government offices will be closed on Easter Monday.

YORK UNITED CHURCH, Rev. J.A. Nicholson, minister. Services Sunday, 11 a.m., Central Church, subject, "The Risen Lord." Communion service postponed. 2:30 York: funeral service for the late Stanley Crockett, 7:30 p.m., Brickley, subject, "Message of Easter." 3-31-11

WOUNDED IN ACTION—Mrs. Margaret Costello, 166 Cumberland Street, has received word that her husband, Gen. John Costello, was wounded in action in Germany on March 26. The message, from the Director of Records, said that the extent of the wounds was not yet known.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES—The possibility of an early end to the European war coupled with the midweek of the Lenten season, perhaps, partly accounted for the large number of church-goers. At any rate, the services at the holding Good Friday services were filled with worshippers.

POOR COAL CAUSES TROUBLE—A car of poor coal caused the temporary city blackout between the hours of 9 and 11 on Thursday night, according to officials of the Maritime Electric Company. One of the plant's boilers became plugged with so much dirt it became necessary to draw the fire and clean the boiler before the power could be restored.

Y'S MEN'S CLUB—At the regular meeting of the Y's Men's club on Thursday evening, Y's man Carl Thompson was chairman. Guests were F.O. Campbell, Vancouver; Angus Paterson, Montreal; and Ross Baker, the special speaker was F.O. Donald Keith, Kenville, N.S., who gave an interesting and vivid account of his experiences in the air forces in Europe, and in the Middle East. He told of his escapes from Singapore after its fall and from Java after its conquest. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker.

BAHAI MEETING—Mr. John A. Roberts, prominent Toronto business man, was the speaker last evening at the Good Friday Peace Program held at the Charlottetown Hotel under the auspices of the Charlottetown Bahai Assembly. In his talk Mr. Roberts showed how the peace principles laid down eighty years ago by Bahai'ah, founder of the Bahai' Faith, are reflected in the trend of progressive modern thought and in the present-day willingness of national governments to create the machinery for peaceful adjustment of differences through consultation. "This new attitude of co-operation," declared the speaker, "constitutes the true post-war security." In his address as guest speaker, the Bahai's were several members of the Allied Club, representing Ireland, Poland and Norway.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Joseph Holland, Tarantum, accompanied by her nephew, Daniel Holland, left yesterday morning for Boston where they will visit relatives and friends.

The many friends of Mrs. Donald McEachern of Long Creek will be glad to know she is steadily improving after a serious operation in the P.E.I. Hospital.

BRIMMINGHAM, England — (CP) — One hundred housewives in a residential area got so tired of staying home at night that they formed their own health and beauty class. It meets weekly and the husbands look after the children.
