"WHERE OLD FRIENDS MEET"

Alberton

The softness of the 17th was brief, but raised the water levels here and there. The threat to the roads and sleighing passed without seriously breaking up.

The Alberton Fishermen's Co-operative are preparing for the reopening of their factory in Alberton South and are anticipating a bigger season than ever.—A.

St. Patrick's Day was observed in the Sacred Heart Church by the celebration of High Mass at 8.30 p.m. by the Rev. Father Monaghan with a large congregation in attendance.

Local talent staged a play in the institute hall. The presentation was excellent throughout with brilliancy here and there and a good laugh at intervals, which the audience appreciated by its generous applause. The hall was crowded and the net returns most satisfactory.

—March is endeavouring to make amends for harsh treatment in its opening days. The reformation is slow and at times of doubtful sincerity. The reversion to zero and sub discloses a yearning to return to the fleshpots of former misconduct. Cold but fine with solid showing strength and vigor, eating into the snow.

The Presbyterian congregation recently entertained at a social evening and supper in the Rebekah Hall, in honor of the men, who so kindly helped to move the Manse. There were about one hundred in attendance. The Reverend pastor, Mr. Cunningham sincerely thanked all those who so kindly helped with the work.

The National Film Board under the direction of Mr. McInnis presented the following films to a large and appreciative audience in the Women's Institute Hall on Monday evening: Birds of Canada; Electricity; Modern Guide to Health; Singing Stars of Tomorrow; Shepshaw; Canada Takes Her Place at United Nations Security Council; British Columbia; Mexico Today; Fit for Tomorrow; Community Centre.

The United Church, Y. P. U. entertained the A.Y.P.U. and the Presbyterian Y. P. S. at a St. Patrick's party in the church hall. The chief feature of the program consisted of games and contests under the direction of Mr. Henry Clarke. The worship service assisted was led by Mrs. Carl Weeks closed by Mr. Arnold Herlihy, the Rev. G. B. Cunningham and the Rev. J. M. Fraser. Following a sing song a bounteous lunch was served.

St. Philips Church, Etobicoke, February 9th was the scene of the wedding of Miss Anne Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Weeks, Alberton, and Mr. Harvey G. Morris, son of Mrs. Morris and the late Mr. G. Morris of Malton, Ontario. The Reverend Mr. Butler performed the ceremony. The bride wore a grey wool suit, with black accessories and corsage of red roses. Miss Helen Fountain of Hamilton was bridesmaid wearing a pale blue gabardine suit with Navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mr. Clifford Bird was groomsmen. At the reception held at the St. Regis Hotel continental room, Toronto the groom's mother received in beige suit with white accessories and a corsage of red carnations. After a short honeymoon they will reside in Malton.
