OLD LANDMARK DESTROYED — The old Chiles grist mill, a landmark east of St. Helena for the last 85 years, was partially blown down during the recent storm, says the Lake County Bee, Lakeport, California. Colonel Joseph Chiles, leader of the first wagon train into Napa County, built the mill in 1855 of hand-hewn redwood timber. The mill, weakened by 85 years of weather and the depredations of vandals, topped its second story into Chiles creek a few weeks ago. Chiles Valley, where the mill was located was named for the Colonel who first came to the valley in 1838. A daughter of Colonel Joseph Chiles is the wife of Alphonse N. Bell of St. Helena, a former Sumner (P.E.I.) boy, now a retired business man. The couple have been married about 55 years.—Oakland Maple Leaf.

Dr. and Mrs. James Reddin who have been visiting their former home in Hunter River have returned to Moncton.

In Memoriam

MISS MARY E. LANIGAN

The people of Cambridge and surrounding country, was saddened to hear of the death of Mary Etta Lanigan, which took place at her home on March 12th, in the 61st year of her age. Although not feeling well for some time she was able to be around and attend to her work, until four days before she received the final call, and her soul passed on to its Heavenly reward on the above date. Miss Lanigan was a kind, loving and charitable woman and was liked by all. She was an active worker in any movement for the welfare of the community, and was a faithful member of the C. O. M. Society of Sturgeon Parish.

During her illness she was attended by her pastor, Rev. M. F. Mulhally who administered the last rights of the church. There are left to mourn their loss two sisters and one brother, namely, Margaret, Mrs. J. Caughlin, Dorchester, Mass. Clara, Dorchester, Mass and Wm. H. at home. The funeral was delayed to wait the arrival of Clara from the U. S., and was held on Sunday morning to St. Paul's church, Sturgeon, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wm. Giddings, Patrick Giddings, J. D. Lannigan, Wilfred Lanigan, Harry Dunn and Wm. Landreigh. Hugh Collins was the undertaker.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The subject of the morning sermon by the Rev. Harvey L. Denton, B. D., was "Holding The Mystery of the Faith," based on the words of Saint Paul in 1 Timothy 3:1. St. Paul was a man with a great sense of awe. Bold, courageous, enduring, he held a deeply reverent awe of God and His mysteries. Basically the mystery of the faith is the mystery of the Eternal God, the mystery of the Saviourhood, the mystery of the way in which the spirit of God works on the hearts of men. Holding the mystery of the faith... It is essential that all Christians should maintain the glory of the mystery of the spirit in hearts made fit for this so precious a deposit. Holding the mystery in faith supplemented by faithfulness with awe in the presence of God, with fidelity to Jesus. Let us have pure hearts to hold pure truth.

At this service Messrs. S. D. Irwin, A. K. MacPhee and J. W. Bouliere were ordained. Lessons and added to the present board. The anthem of the morning was Stainer's "They Have Taken Away My Lord."

The evening service opened at 8:45 p.m. with a fifteen minute period of congregational singing led by the male choir who had charge of the evening music under the direction of John Inch, Mus. Bac, organist and choirmaster. Mr. Denton's evening sermon "What Will You Leave To Your Children?" a searching message was heard with deep interest by a large congregation. Messrs. E. H. Cook and Russell Jones sang as a duet "Come Holy Spirit" with fine expression.

Sacrifice

In Flanders field our honored lie they threw the torch, that they held high.
To us: And let us not forget, To them we owe a nameless debt, The men who lie in "Flanders".
Renew their struggle with the foe Hold high their torch that they did throw.
To us: "And let us not forget, They lie out there in Flanders."
The flaming poppies wave and nod
A requiem to them and God!
And the white crosses, row on row,
Just mark the place; for well we know
Where rest our honored sacred dead,
In Flanders
A sacrifice for us to God,
As long as blood-red poppies nod
Their heads in reverence onto God
Above the silent blood-soaked sod.
Of Flanders,
By Charlotte R. Foley.
