Souris Gleanings

Mr. Pius Cheverie has been admitted to Souris Hospital. His condition is said to be serious.

Mr. Elmer Cheverie has accepted an offer to study for a dark room technician at St. Mary's Hospital, Montreal.

Mr. Jerry McCormack was a weekend visitor to Souris. Mr. McCormack is enrolled at P. W. in the commercial class.

A very spacious and modern meat market has recently opened up in Souris. It is located on Street in Mr. Francis' building opposite the Rosewood Tearoom.

A very delightful bean supper was held in St. Mary's Convent hall on Friday evening. Many other forms of amusement were available thus giving the very large crowd present a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. Daniel McDonald died recently at the Sacred Heart Home. Many people of Souris will remember Mr. McDonald as an active Legion member and the only seller of a traditional poppy in Souris for many years.

The Knights of Columbus held their annual banquet in their rooms on Main Street on Wednesday, December 1st. The banquet was largely attended with many distinguished guests present. The banquet dinner was under the direction of Mrs. Dell Kemp, proprietor of the Rosewood Tearoom, Souris.

The railway tracks at Souris and all roads leading to the west have been a bustle of traffic for the past week in the farming community of potato boats have left at anchor and the potatoes of Eastern Kings have been steadily disappearing into the holds to be taken to distant lands thus maintaining the importance of P. E. I. as our million acre farm.

On November 22nd, the Home Guard at Souris tendered a social for their friends in the Legion Rooms on Main Street. Two hundred people including many army officials from Charlottetown made the event a very pleasant one. Lieut. MacDonald, Souris, introduced to the group many of the army officials including Captain Rands. Much snappy music was supplied by Clifford Peiers and the Chaisson boys. Mrs. Dell Kemp and her staff of the Rosewood Tearoom catered to the guests and pleasantly served sandwiches and coffee.

On Friday afternoon the teachers of Eastern King's assembled at Souris High School for the annual fall convention.

A large attendance was realized thus breaking previous records. The topic chosen for discussion was the curriculum. Mr. McKenzie, from the department, was the guest speaker. He clearly pointed out the need for a revision in the text books on the island.

A general discussion followed in which Mr. Hynes, supervisor, Mr. E. J. MacDonald, principal of Souris High School, Rev. Mother St. Elizabeth took an active part. Mr. Francis Cheverie, teacher of the second department at Souris High was appointed chairman, while Alicia Mulloy was appointed as secretary. Many interesting books were on display for the benefit of teachers to look at. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

On November 11th, Miss Ann Stubbart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stubbart, became the bride of Mr. John Cheverie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Cheverie both of Souris. The marriage ceremony took place in St. Mary's Church with Rev. Father Murphy officiating.

The groom, entering the church by the side entrance, dressed in navy blue, proceeded to the centre of the church accompanied by the groomsmen. Mr. Francis Cheverie; while the bride-to-be entered the main entrance dressed in blue dress and accessories accompanied by the bridesmaid, Mrs. Arnold Cooper reached the front of the church and both repeated the vows that made them man and wife.

During the service the choir rendered many beautiful hymns, under the direction of Rev. Mother St. George. A very beautiful hymn was sung by Mrs. Lennie McCormack, guest soloist.

After the church service, the bridal party drove to the Rosewood Tearoom, Main Street, Souris, where a wedding breakfast was served by the proprietor, Mrs. Dell

NEW LONDON W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of the New London United Church held the November meeting on Thursday evening, the 4th, at the home of the president, Mrs. Ray MacLeod. The worship service was conducted by Mrs. Frank Brown, using the theme, "Thy Kingdom Come—Through the Healing Ministry of the Church." Several members read passages of scripture of Jesus' healing ministry. Mrs. James M. Campbell dedicated the silent prayer for our adopted missionary.

The president took charge of the business period and roll call was answered by thirteen members and one visitor with a verse on healing. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Conlon gave a report of the mailing of boxes to Korea and Trinidad. Two letters of thanks for messages of sympathy were read by the secretary and the treasurer gave a satisfactory report of the finances. Seven sick calls were made and six boxes and thirty-one cards sent during the month.

A reading on Christian Stewardship was given by Mrs. Hugh Campbell and the opening chapter of the Study Book was very capably presented by the president, assisted by Mrs. Wm. MacLeod. Questions were asked and answers given by the different members. This program was most interesting. The offering amounted to $11.70.

The December meeting will be held at Mrs. Harold Mayhew's. The roll call to be answered with a Christmas verse, Mrs. Leigh Brown to be leader and Mrs. Sterling McKay will give the dedicatory prayer. Mrs. Dunning and Mrs. Wren will prepare the program.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison. A delicious lunch and social hour was then enjoyed.
