HOW TO BEAUTIFY THE COMPLEXION.

To have a soft, smooth skin free from eruptions and pimples, the blood must be healthy and pure. Ferrone invigorates enfeebled blood, and cleanses it of all impurities and poisons. It brings color to the lips and cheeks, brilliancy to the eyes, whiteness the teeth and sweetens the breath. No tonic compares with Ferrone in rapid action and permanent results. Try it. Price 50c. at druggists, or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS CURE HEADACHES

Tax Chief Superintendent of Education informs us that James E. Harris, son of T. J. Harris, passed the examinations held last July, for entrance to the Prince of Wales College.

The Guardian regrets greatly to learn that Dr. S. R. Jenkins will lose one of his eyes as the result of the recent affliction. His hosts of friends in the City and country will extend to him their sincere sympathy.

At a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. parlour last evening an advanced normal class in connection with the Provincial Sunday School Association was organized. J. D. Seaman was selected as conductor and Miss Ella Aitken for Secretary. The class will meet weekly in the Y. M. C. A. parlour on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

CHRISTOPHER WRIGHT has disposed of his fine farm at Nine Mile Creek to James McDonald. Mr. Wright with his family is removing to Alberton where he has purchased Mrs. Richard's farm. The people of Nine Mile Creek generally regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Wright and family, and Alberton has gained much in having them locate there.

Mr. Pope's lecture in St. Paul's school room last evening was largely attended. Judge Fitzgerald presided. The lecture was a most thoughtful discussion of the social structure and the duty of all in moulding the public conscience and the manners and taste of the times. The vote of thanks was moved by Horace Hazard seconded by E. Melkic and supported by Charles Palmer, K. C.

F. C. HIRE, head of the poultry branch, Department of Agriculture arrived in Charlottetown to superintend the shipment 400 cases of fastened chickens, each containing twelve chickens of an average weight of four pounds per bird, to Manchester by the steamer Manchester Commerce. The marriage takes place this morning at six o'clock in St. Dunstan's Cathedral of John J. Lappin of Sydney, to Miss Ellen M. (Dina) Handrahan, of this city. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Dr. Morrison. The bride will be attired in a travelling suit of fawn broadcloth with black picture hat, and will be attended by her sister Miss Mincie Handrahan, who will wear a suit of blue with black hat. The groom will be ably supported by Thomas Bonahan. The large number of costly and useful presents is abundant evidence of popularity. After a sumptuous wedding breakfast the happy couple leave by the Princess for their future home in Sydney. Congratulations.

The death took place at her home in Little Sands on Saturday, November 8th Catharine McDonald, dearly beloved wife of Duncan McNeill in the 67th year of her age, greatly beloved and respected by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She leaves a sorrowing husband two daughters and one son to mourn the loss of a loved one from their earthly home, but they rejoice in the sweet thought that she is now happy in the Heavenly Home beyond. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church and died as she lived trusting in Jesus and in the full assurance of eternal life and of a glorious resurrection. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord ye saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

MOUNT ROSE NOTES.—A great deal of shipping has been done at this shipping port, head of Grand River. Matthew & McLean were the principal shippers. Genial William Brehaut has got a great patronage his fall with his new threshing mill. Patrons were after him from St. Peter's Bay and he thrashed there also. Our obliging mail carrier and postmaster Albert Brehaut is performing his contract satisfactorily and punctually. A. Ward is visiting here the guest of Allen Robertson. Geo. E. Saville is visiting at Annandale the guest of Wm. J. Jenkins. James Enman is visiting at Brook Settlement the guest of Leonard Steele. Dan. Brehaut has moved to his farm Ducas Road. May good luck and success follow him.

THE Guardian learns that the following changes take place today in connection with the Massey-Harris Co's business in Province:—D. Schurman, who has had charge of the business on the Island since the formation of the Company, has been promoted to the supervision of the Company, has been promoted to the supervision of the Company's business in Western Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, with headquarters at Wolfville and Charlottetown. Arthur McKenzie succeeds Arthur Yeo in the office, the latter having resigned his position to attend college. Capt. H. F. Bissett, Cardigan, succeeds Mr. McKenzie as traveler, having charge of the eastern section of the Province and John E. Yeo, the western. All of these gentlemen are pioneers in the implement business. Next to good goods is good men to sell them. The name Massey-Harris stands for the best of the world and their organization in this Province is said to be one of the best in Canada. Their goods are in the hands of only the best men in every community. The farmer who buy them knows he has the best and is sure of being treated squarely by this big Company and its agents. Mr. Schurman crosses to Nova Scotia today to enter upon his new field and we trust he may there achieve a like success with like satisfaction to the Company and its patrons has so signally marked his management in Prince Edward Island.
