Smith, president, Alberton Mr. Hudson Jeffery, vice president, Bedeque. Mr. Harry S. Cannon, Secy. Treasurer, Summerside, R.R. Meeting adjourned with the National Anthem.—S.

Friends throughout the province will learn with regret of the passing of Dr. J. T. Collins which occurred at his home in Vernon River early last evening. He had been unwell for the past several weeks.

Dr. Collins, one of the oldest practicing physicians in the province, had been attending the sick in Vernon River and vicinity for a half a century. On February 17 last he celebrated the anniversary of his 50th year in that community.

He was born at North River, near Charlottetown, Nov. 1, 1867 and after receiving his primary education in the district school attended Prince of Wales College. He then went to the Detroit School of Medicine where he received his M. D. in 1890. Immediately after he started practicing at Vernon River. He was a typical country doctor and family physician and was well beloved by all his patients because of his cheerful bedside manner. In all kinds of weather, he turned out to visit the sick and continued this service right up until he became ill recently. The amiable physician will be greatly missed in the community.

In 1891, the deceased married Miss Elizabeth Hennessey of Charlottetown who died Sept 20, 1935.

He leaves to survive: Four daughters, Mary, R.N., at home; Helen, Mrs. A. R. MacInnis, Charlottetown; Margaret, R.N. and Anastasia, New York and one son Frank, Chicago; also a sister-in-law, Anastasia Hennessey, who made her home there.

The marriage took place last night at 8 o'clock of Hilda Rebecca McLaughlan, daughter of Lea McLaughlan and the late Mrs. McLaughlan of Charlottetown to James (Jimmy) Power, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Power also of Charlottetown. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. McKenna of St Dunstan's Basilica staff.

Mrs. Edison Wood was matron of honor, while Mr. William Brown, Jr. was best man.

After the ceremony the relatives and friends of the contracting parties were guests at a reception at the home of the bride's father 36½ Elm Avenue.

BRIDAL RECEPTION —At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Whitlock, Park Street, a wedding reception was held in honor of the marriage of their son Richard and his bride, formerly (Anna Matta of New Glasgow). A host of relatives and friends were present. Out of town guests were Mrs. Dora Kane, Halifax; Mrs. McKay of New Brunswick, and James Collins of St. John. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers and many beautiful bouquets. A delicious supper was served and the evening was spent in merriment and guests departing after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitlock many years of happy wedded bliss. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitlock have returned to their future home in New Glasgow.

PRESENTATION—A large crowd assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cummings, Milton, on the night of Aug. 14th to do honor to their son Roddie MacDonald who is going overseas, also two other young men namely, George and Roy MacNeill, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Tourquil MacNeill, Milton. The meeting was called to order and a splendid address was read by Mrs. Herbert Dollar. The gifts were presented by three young men, friends of the boys. The MacNeill brothers were each presented with a set of Military Brushes, and Roddie received a beautiful watch. The boys though taken by surprise, thanked those present in their usual genial manner, after which all jointed in the usual merriment. The rest of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and social intercourse, the music being supplied by Messrs Reagh Younker and Pte. Burns from Beach Grove Inn. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies. In the wee small hours all departed for their homes feeling they had spent a very happy evening.

An aged and much respected resident of Baltic, Mrs. George Champion was called to her Eternal home in the early hours of the morning of September 22nd at the age of 97 years. The deceased had been a lady of fine principle always ready to help in time of sickness and trouble, a fond wife and mother and her memory will long be cherished by a wide circle of friends. The funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon from her late residence thence to Keir Memorial Presbyterian Church where the service was conducted by the student Minister Mr. Haye who gave a most impressive address on the worth while things of life and being ready when the call comes for His or Her Service. At the close of the service interment was in the adjoining cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Franklin Day, Francis Shields, Russel Champion, Roy Campbell, Hurtle MacLeod and Horton Champion.

There are left to mourn her passing one daughter Mrs. George Campbell, Hamilton and three sons Arthur of Darnley, James of Hamilton and Oatway at the old homestead with whom his mother resided beside a wide circle of friends. Kind sympathy is extended to all in their bereavement.—V.

WEDNESDAY

RECITAL AT ST. JAMES — There was a large attendance at the recital by the pupils of Miss Lena McLure, A.T.C.M. which was held in St. James Church Hall last night. The young artists staged a very enjoyable program and the capable manner in which they performed reflected much credit on their teacher. Every number was well received by the audience, many of whom travelled a long distance to be present at the recital. A more extended report will appear later.

"There is only one issue in Canada today and that is the winning of the war, and the reconstruction of His Majesty's Loyal Opposition, to be justified in a war-time period, must be related closely to—first of all, the more effective prosecution of the war and to the solution of the post war problems which will follow at its close," Mr. Gordon Graydon, M. P., National Chairman of the Conservative Party, Brampton, Ont., said in an interview at The Charlottetown Hotel last night shortly after arriving here. He is in the city to address the annual meeting of the Queen's County Conservative Association Thursday night.

FIRE CAUSES DAMAGE—Firemen were called out about 8 o'clock yesterday morning to fight a stubborn blaze, which had gained considerable headway in a double tenement house owned by Mr. Arthur McQuaid, Gaytown. The blaze started from a stovepipe in the kitchen and had worked its way between the walls and through the roof before being discovered. When the firemen arrived the dwelling was blazing furiously while neighbors were quickly removing furniture. Two lines of hose were laid from the motor pumper and in a short time the blaze was under control. A quantity of furniture that could not be reached was damaged by smoke and water. The rear of the house, including the roof is badly damaged. Mr McQuaid, the owner, occupied one tenement. It is understood the loss is partly covered by insurance.

After an absence of almost 60 years, 71 year old H. S. Saville, San Francisco, Calif. returned to his native province last night to satisfy a yearning of many years to visit his old haunts at Bridgetown about seven miles from Cardigan. He also anticipates meeting some of his friends of childhood if there are any still residing there. He is accompanied on this trip by his wife who is a native of San Francisco.

His father was Captain Edward Saville, who was well-known in the province. In 1871 when Mr. Saville was only six years of age, his father was drowned when his schooner the "Emmeline" was lost with all hands off East Point during a violent storm in January.

Mr. Saville has a family of five, three boys and two girls, all living in California. He intends remaining here about a fortnight.

OUTSIDE HUNTERS HERE — Sportsmen from outside the province as well as many Islanders were out yesterday in search of Hungarian partridges and most of them were able to bag a few of the birds. Hunters came from as far away as New York to indulge in this popular sport. Mr. Fred Tyler and Mr. A. Pyke, both of New York, were out yesterday and in the course of their travels encountered five different coveys. They succeeded in returning to the city in the evening with eight Huns. The following Haligonians were also on the Island in quest of the partridges: Messrs. S. A. Beatty, H. M. MacLeod, L. C. Teesdale, R. H. Boland. It is reported that the birds are quite plentiful although they are difficult to find.

—WEDDING BELLS — A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at St. John the Baptist Church, Miscouche, when Miss Eliza Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Perry, St. Nicholas became the bride of Mr. Maurice Darte of Charlottetown. Rev. Dr. Monaghan performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The ladies choir with Mrs. Patrick Martin at the organ played appropriate hymns during the ceremony. The bride was very attractive in a navy silk crepe dress with white trimmings and white accessories. Her bouquet was snapdragon and fern. Miss Adeline Wedge was bridesmaid and wore a wool dress of mauve with black accessories. Mr. Vincent Perry brother of the bride acted as groomsman. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home to which about forty guests were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Darte are spending their honeymoon in the Maritimes and will visit Sydney, C. B. They will make their home in Charlottetown.—S.

"Not only Conservatives but citizens all over Canada are giving thought to the rebuilding of the National Conservative Party as an absolute necessity to the more effective prosecution of our war effort and to the solution of post-war problems," declared Mr. Gordon Graydon, M.P., national chairman of the Party, in the course of a rousing address at last night's annual meeting of the Queen's County Conservative Association.

The meeting, which was large, representative and enthusiastic, was held in the Oddfellows Hall, with President P. W. Turner presiding. Seated with him on the platform were Mr. Graydon, Hon Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, provincial Conservative leader, Mr. W. Chester S. McLure and Mr. John O. Hyndman, Queen's County Conservative candidates in the last federal election.

A meeting of the executive held after the general meeting resulted in the reappointment of Mr. P. W Turner as President and Mr. George MacKay as Vice President. Mr. P. J. Rossiter was appointed Secretary.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER. — The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCarvell, Emerald, was the scene of a very pleasant event, Friday evening September 19th, when upwards of one hundred people gathered to tender a shower to Mrs. McCarvell's brother, St. Clair Croken. The groom was accompanied to his chair by his brother Mr. Aloysius Croken while the well filled baskets of gifts were carried in by the little Misses Camilla McCarvell and Blanche Cameron. Miss Helen Shreenan and Miss Harold Day opened the many dainty and costly gifts while Miss Elsie Mayne read the accompanying verses. Mrs. John E. Cameron tastefully arranged them on a table. The groom were flittingly expressed his surprise and gratitude to all present and invited them to visit him in his new home. After singing For He's a Jolly Good Fellow, and bouncing the groom, lunch was served by Mrs. McCarvell, assisted by some of the ladies present. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and singing, music being furnished by the Mulligan boys accompanied by Mr. Ernie Clark. After wishing Mr. Croken a very happy future and thanking Mr. and Mrs. McCarvell for their very enjoyable evening, the crowd dispersed.
