—SOURIS METHODIST CHURCH.—Divine Worship on Sunday the 27th. Led by the Rev. Robert M. Brodie at 11 a.m. Subject "Master, behold the Fig Tree which Thou cursedst is withered away. And Jesus said unto them, Have Faith in God". Sunday School at 2.15 p.m. And the Rev. E. Lockhart at 7 p.m.

—EASTER SERVICES.—On Easter Sunday the Rev. E. Lockhart gave a special address in the Methodist Church Souris at 11 a.m. And in the evening the Rev. Robert M. Brodie took for his text "I was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades". Special hymns and anthems were sung. The Church also was well filled. Amongst those present being the Captain and crew of the sealing steamer which arrived in harbor in the morning. The captain of the steamer expressed the thanks of the crew to the pastor for his kind welcome. At present the members of the Presbyterian Church are worshipping in the Methodist Church. Their own Church is being repaired. This is one of the places that benefits by the Legislature passing the Church Union Bill.

—FARM HANDS.—Young men (and old) and strong boys for the farm are by no means easily obtained this spring, and naturally demand high wages, and at least two months full time. The lobster factories are paying high wages, and usually give two months full time. Farmers therefore requiring help must necessarily duplicate those terms. No man will hire on the farm for one month as in times past, and $40 per is about the lowest wages demanded. A great many farmers are going lobster fishing this spring and need to hire for their help and it is doubtful if the products of the farm, at present prices, will justify this expenditure. Laborers too are scarce, so many having gone away last fall and not returned.

Gleanings Here and There

Harry Norton of Crapaud has been appointed secretary and salesman for the Butter Factory in that village. He succeeds the late Donald McLean, who so capably filled his position. Mr. McLean received five hundred dollars for his services per year.

Trout fishing has begun with the usual number of anglers, seeking to report the largest fish and the most numerous catch, John Lyman is said to have caught one evening three speckled beauties in the Tryon River whose combined weight was six pounds. Good for you, Johnnie!

Mr. Vernon MacLeod, merchant, at Albany, has received notice of his appointment of Post Office Master of that place. This position was held for about thirty-two years by Abraham ("Son") Noonan. The reasons for the change are political.

Lloyd Rogerson of Gamble's Corner, has returned home after spending some months in Guelph's Agricultural College, studying the art of butter-making, also the manufacture of ice cream. For the past three summers Lloyd has been the efficient assistant of Mr. Elmer Gamble at the Albany Butter Factory. This is one of the largest plants of its kind on P. E. I., and last year did a business of about one hundred thousand dollars. Lloyd is now well qualified to take full charge of any Butter factory, and his friends are hoping that he will soon secure a good position.

James Dawson, Sr., of North Tryon had a very serious accident, last week which resulted in fracturing several ribs and giving him a bad shaking up. He was doing some special work on a water tank in his barn when he slipped from his usual support and fell heavily against a board, injuring his side. He is being treated by Dr. Bell of Cape, Traverse. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Messrs. Affleck and Howatt, who lost by fire their large warehouse with supplies of flour, feed and potatoes, amounting to about six thousand dollars are losing no time in preparing to re-build and resume business. A fine spirit of sympathy and helpfulness has been shown towards them by the people in the neighborhood of Albany, who are coming to their assistance with donations in cash and lumber landed on the building site. It is expected that early this spring a new building equal in value to the one destroyed will be erected.

On April 15, John Bell of Cape, Traverse, had a removal sale of furniture, machinery and stock. He has rented his farm for a period of five years to Charles Crossman. For the present Mr. Bell is retiring from farming owing to illness in his family.

Last week, owing to ice conditions, the car ferry found navigating the straits a difficult undertaking. Many believe it was the hardest week for her since she came on this route. She left Monday morning for Tormentine, reaching there about 7.30 p. m. She started in return the same evening about eight o'clock for Borden, but was held up by heavy, drifted ice-fields and did not reach Borden until Wednesday evening taking nearly two days in making the round trip. The high, north-east winds so prevalent have kept the straits filled with ice. The north-west storm this week should help relieve the situation.

Mr. Harold MacLean, son of the late Donald MacLean of Crapaud came home last week. He has been for some time National Bank Examiner in Seattle, and has done well. He is undertaking to settle up his father's business, and is now in charge of the dry goods store. His intention is to sell the goods and in time close down the business.

It is reported that Gordon McWilliams of Cape Traverse, who had planned and advertised a removal sale, has now decided to stay by the farm and remain on P. E. I. He had planned to go to the Eastern States. Friends have lately sent him word not to come as times are dull.

Captain MacLean of the Steamer Harland, Charlottetown, has been visiting last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wallie Field, Borden.

Several P. W. C. students are home for the Easter holidays. Among these are Raymond Harvey of Cape Traverse, A. Harvey, of Crapaud and Kathryn MacQuarrie, Hampton.

Mrs. Dixon, Sr., is visiting her son Mr. Reg. Dixon of North Tryon. Mrs. Neil MacDonald, formerly of Argyle Shore, has gone to Summerside as house-keeper for Rev. J. P. Denny, Methodist Minister of that place.

Mrs. Newton Dawson, of North Tryon is recovering from a severe illness, which will be pleasing news to her many friends.

Mr. Stead Green, popular salesman for Carvell Bros., passed through Crapaud, Tryon and Albany this week and called on the merchants in these centres and made sales for his firm.

Mr. John Holm of Desable is very ill. His condition is causing much anxiety for his relatives and friends. He has been ailing the greater part of the winter.

Lorne Lodge, L. O. L., Desable, made plans for a grand anniversary celebration on Friday evening, April 18th. It is forty-four years since this Orange Lodge was organized. Through death and removals Father Time has wrought many changes. Still the Lodge is active and strong, new members being added regularly so filling the numerous places vacated through death.

Mrs. William Patrick of Hampton, was pleasantly remembered last Thursday evening, April 10th, this being the anniversary of her birth. A number of people old and young called at her home and

For Mothers—"FRY'S"

For true nourishment in delicious form FRY'S COCOA is supreme. Make it this way and you will find it most appetising and digestible. To 3 good teaspoonfuls of FRY'S COCOA add three spoonfuls of sugar, mix well. Then add one half cup of boiling water and mix thoroughly. Add two cups of boiling water and boil very slowly for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Then add milk or cream to taste. This will give you Cocoa at its best.

presented her with many useful gifts. Mrs. Patrick is now in her eighty-second year. For a number of years her husband conducted a store here. She is a native of Nova Scotia, her maiden name being Miss Falconer. She is an aunt of President Falconer of Toronto, University and Professor J. W. Falconer of Halifax. Nearly sixty years ago her brother, Rev. Alexander Falconer was a Presbyterian clergyman in Charlottetown. During his ministry there Sir Robert now President of Canada's leading university was born, so Charlottetown is his birth-place. T.

"CARRY ON"

Whether or not we choose to be "We belong in the class called humanity. Why then not accept this fact so plain. And do our best to play the game? No matter how great our lot may differ, Against adversity we struggle together. The road may be hard, the way so steep, But why sit down and accept defeat.

Just plod along and do your best. And leave the issue to the rest, Who midst the strain and stress of life Give the glad hand and not the knife. For together we traverse life's highway, Where the pleasant smile will always pay, And the helping hand will cheer the whole. And make hope vocal in the soul.
