Astounding Example Of Misrepresentation By The Liberal Leader

Thanks to the MacMillan Government, co-operating with the other Maritime Governments and the Bennett administration at Ottawa, this Province now enjoys an additional subsidy increase of $150,000 per year for all time.

Thanks to the Saunders-Lea Government, Prince Edward Island was deprived of obtaining this subsidy increase six years ago, when according to Liberal apologists Canada was enjoying an era of unprecedented prosperity.

Who was responsible for this loss of federal subsidy, amounting to $750,000 on the basis of the amount received last year by the MacMillan Government?

Here is the alibi given by Mr. W. M. Lea, Liberal party leader, at the last session of the Legislature:

"I remember when we were on that side of the House and had endeavored during the four years of our administration to have a hearing of our claims at Ottawa and to prevail on the Premiers of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick to join with us, AS THEY HAVE NOW JOINED WITH OUR FRIENDS, their replies first were favorable, but on the approach of a federal election THEY BECAME INDIFFERENT, and as Prince Edward Island was the only Liberal Government, the chairman of the audit board did not wish to recommend our claim without being able to include the two Conservative Governments in the Maritime Provinces. Evidently the Governments of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick DID NOT WANT TO GIVE MACKENZIE KING A CHANCE TO PAY THE PROVINCES INCREASED SUBSIDIES JUST BEFORE THE ELECTION OR TO IMPLEMENT THE FINDINGS OF THE DUNCAN COMMISSION."—Hon. W. M. Lea, in speech on Draft Address, PATRIOT, March 9, 1935.

And here are the facts, as stated by Ex-Premier Saunders, October 7, 1929, in a letter to Hon. James A. Robb, Minister of Finance in the Mackenzie King Government, in the matter of subsidy claims presentation:

"You further suggested last spring, that this Province should come ALONE, RATHER THAN IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE OTHER MARITIMES. Accordingly, I have ON DIFFERENT OCCASIONS DECLINED TO CO-OPERATE WITH PREMIER RHODES AND PREMIER BAXTER IN A JOINT PRESENTATION. I ALSO DECLINED TO HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH A PROPOSED MEETING OF THE MARITIME BOARD OF TRADE IN THIS CONNECTION."

McInerney-Henderson Nuptials

(St. John Telegraph-Journal)
A wedding of interest to many friends throughout the province and Prince Edward Island was solemnized Monday morning at 8 o'clock in St. John the Baptist Church when Miss Mary Margaret McInerney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. McInerney, was united in marriage to John Donald Henderson of Charlottetown, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson of this city. Very Rev. Dean J. J. McDermott was celebrant at the Nuptial Mass.

Peonies of American Beauty shade and white graced the altar vases. Standards of the same fragrant blooms flanked by ferns and other greenery were used in the sanctuary. White satin bows marked the guest seats. Jack and George McInerney, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Miss M. Augusta McGrath was the organist and for a processional played Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin. During the ceremony Miss McGrath played nuptial music and as a recessional Mendelssohn's Wedding March. At the offertory John A. Bordan sang Millard's "Ave Maria" and during Communion "There is no Heart Like Thine."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a distinctive model of white duchesse satin. The bodice was of tunic effect. It was finished at the high neckline with a sunburst of plaiting and in the front the tunic fell to above the knees. A row of tiny self-covered buttons trimmed the back of the tunic from the neckline to the waist. From the waistline in the back the tunic lengthened into a divided train also edged with plaiting. The skirt of her gown was snug fitting to the knees from whence it flared into fullness to the toe tips. The long tailored sleeves finished in a point over the hand. With her gown the bride wore a small hat of matching satin having a rose length veil. The brim of her hat was corded and rolled well off the face. A cluster of orange blossoms trimmed the side back. Her slippers were of white satin and crepe. She wore white lace gloves and carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Zita McInerney was her sister's bridesmaid. Her frock of cornflower blue crepe was made on long fitted lines, slightly entraine. The bodice of the gown had lace sleeves in dolman style finished with an elbow length cuff of crepe forming a point over the hand. The high neckline had a flare collar of matching lace, caught at the front with a rose formed of lace and crepe. Her hat was a Rose Valois model of cornflower crepe. The graduated brim flared off the face in folds which were banded in the centre with self material. Slippers and lace gloves of corresponding shade completed her costume and she carried a cascade bouquet of butterfly roses and baby's breath.

Gustave Comeau attended the bridegroom as groomsmen. Mrs. McInerney, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black Spanish lace with jacket to match. Her hat was a large model of similar lace, with the brim of which was edged with tulle. A bow of black taffeta formed side crown trim. She wore a corsage of Richmond roses.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Henderson, was attired in an attractive blue ensemble. Her coat of navy blue was worn over a flowered silk dress of blending shades. Her hat was a tailored model of navy mohair and she wore a corsage of Ophelia roses. Mrs. M. J. Murphy, grandmother of the bride, wore a black crepe gown having sleeves of black lace. Her hat was of black platted maline having osprey trim. She wore a corsage of mauve pansies with centre of yellow roses.

Following Nuptial Mass a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 243 Charlotte Street. The bride's table was covered with a lovely cloth of Italian outwork and was centered with a three-tier wedding cake surmounted with a spray of tulle into which was knotted a spray of orange blossoms and three silver bells. Pink and ivory tapers in silver sconces and sweet peas in various shades of pink completed the artistic arrangement. The favors were hand made baskets of silver and pink having beaded handles. To the baskets were attached tiny nosegays of forget-me-nots in pink and white.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Henderson left on a motor trip to Montreal en route to Boston via the White Mountains. Upon returning to Saint John they will visit for a few days with the bride's parents prior to leaving for Charlottetown, where Mr. Henderson is a representative of the firm of Vassie Brock Manufacturers Limited.

For travelling the bride donned a hand knitted suit of raspberry shade boucle de laine. The blouse was boat necked with mother of pearl button trimming at the shoulderline and on the pockets. Her coat was a raglan sleeved sports model of Rochdale flannel. With it she wore a white Breton sailor and other accessories in white.

Among the many beautiful wedding gifts was a coffee table and magazine rack in walnut from the firm of Vassie Brock Manufacturers Limited, and an English tea table in red walnut from the Fox Film Corporation with whom the bride was employed. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson will reside in Charlottetown.

OUR SUBSIDY CLAIMS TREATED AS JOKE BY LIBERAL POLITICIANS

On Jan. 21, 1930, while Premier Saunders was in Ottawa presenting a "memorial of claim" for some four hundred thousand dollars annual subsidy, Mr. W. M. Lea, as Acting Premier, PUBLISHED OVER HIS NAME IN THE PATRIOT NEWSPAPER A STATEMENT OF CLAIM FOR $3,372,165 additional annual subsidy, plus $200,000 "cash subsidy."

On the same evening, the Charlottetown Board of Trade at the suggestion of Senator Hughes, adopted a resolution urging the appointment of a Royal Commission to adjudicate on the subsidy claims questions. Senator J. E. Sinclair, who was present, objected on the ground that a Commission was not necessary and might do harm. He stated that our case was then before the Dominion Government and "was well advanced", and that we might expect a settlement "shortly". Furthermore, he contended that any Commission would mean a year's delay "and Prince Edward Island could not afford such delay."

On Jan. 25, 1930, Premier Saunders returned from Ottawa and in an interview with the Patriot newspaper expressed agreement with everything Senator Sinclair had said, adding that he was surprised that anyone would advocate a Royal Commission in view of the progress the Federal Government was making in the matter. He announced that he had filed "a special memorial" at Ottawa setting forth the Province's claims in lieu of public lands in the light of the settlement of the Manitoba case; that "an audit board of expert accountants" had been appointed to make FINAL ADJUSTMENT OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND SUBSIDY CLAIMS."

This statement, transmitted by the Patriot editor to the Canadian Press, received wide publicity in the Maritimes and its reaction may be judged from the following statement in a Halifax Newspaper of January 29, 1930: "These announcements from Charlottetown have left the impression that Prince Edward Island claims are to be dealt with first and specially and that the Premier of the Island was able to make arrangements of this kind. This impression is incorrect. It appears however, to be the fact that the Premier of Prince Edward Island was a party to a conference regarding this vitally important matter to which the Premiers of the other two Maritime Provinces were not invited, and of which they were not advised. THIS IS REGARDED BY THOSE AWARE OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES AS DISTINCTLY UNFORTUNATE AND LIABLE TO LEAVE THE FURTHER IMPRESSION THAT THERE IS SOME BREAK IN THE MARITIME FRONT."

It was then revealed that the "board of experts" WAS MERELY THE DOMINION BOARD OF AUDIT, WITH NO JURISDICTION TO MAKE FINAL ASSESSMENT OF ANY SUBSIDY CLAIMS. But the effect of the mischievous Liberal propaganda may be judged from the Board's own report, dated October 8, 1930, from which we quote:

"The Board have been somewhat handicapped in these investigations by the early impression of the Province of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick that the Board of Audit were to be final arbitrators. FINAL AND COMPLETE NEGOTIATIONS MUST BE CONDUCTED DIRECTLY between the Provincial Governments and the Dominion Government... The Board DO NOT FEEL THAT THEY ARE IN A POSITION TO ADVISE FINALLY AS TO AN EQUITABLE REASSESSMENT OF THE SUBSIDIES before a complete investigation is made into the various forms of taxation which prevail throughout Canada."

It was before this Board—incompetent, on its own admission, to make any authoritative recommendation—that Mr. Lea presented his "ideal budget", asking for a subsidy increase of $438,000. He obtained nothing, of course, NOR WAS IT UNTIL THE MACMILLAN GOVERNMENT TOOK THE MATTER IN HAND, AND BY CO-OPERATION WITH THE OTHER MARITIME PROVINCES, obtained, first the appointment of the White Commission with Chief Justice Mathieson as Maritime representative, and subsequently a claims recognition for this Province to the amount of THREE MILLION DOLLARS or an annual subsidy increase over the Duncanson award of $150,000.

GIRL GUIDE NEWS

The First Charlottetown Guide Company's eleven days under canvas are drawing to a close. There are seventeen girls camping on the north bank of the Brudenell River, two miles from Georgetown opposite Brudenell Island (Three Rivers Island) in charge of Miss Gwenneth Fry, Commandant, assisted by Miss Dorothy Bentley, Quartermaster, Miss Joan Brady, Assistant Quartermaster, Miss Margaret Black, Sports Officer, and Miss Kathleen MacLean, P.N. The Patrol Leaders and Second formed an advance party and left Charlottetown on July 9th, accompanied by the Guides. The other campers arrived on Wednesday July 10th. The weather man has been very considerate so far, arranging to have the rain at night and sending glorious days of sun and wind. Last Sunday was Victoria Day and everyone was delighted with the campsite of which the Guides themselves are very proud. Tuesday afternoon was spent collecting and pressing specimens for the nature logs of each patrol. Wednesday was Sports Day and showed great improvement both in land and water sports. An expedition to the Island has been planned for Thursday or Friday depending upon weather conditions. Plans are in progress for a masquerade on Friday evening. Many and varied will be the costumes in spite of the fact that there are no girls in camp over fourteen years of age and very few over thirteen there have been no bad attacks of homesickness, and everyone is healthy and happy. "We have shared the same tent. And side by side. The streets of the old world trod. In sun and rain we have done our best. And we're closer drawn to God."

President Keeps U. S. Congress Busy

(Canadian Press)
WASHINGTON, July 18—Under climatic conditions closely resembling those on the coast of Africa, a fatigued and jumpy Congress flounders in its labors for the new deal and thinks of holidays, but it is understood President Roosevelt is determined to push through his full legislative program.

Progress of the new deal two years and three months after its inception, finds the National Recovery Act unconstitutional and the beginning of a legal fight over the constitutionality of the Agricultural Adjustment Act in the decision of a Boston court against the processing tax.

Mr. Roosevelt pushes for increased income taxes in the higher bracket, a bill for regulation of the coal industry (almost certain to be attacked on constitutional grounds) and an omnibus banking bill.

He rests at the moment upon a victory giving more power to the Tennessee Valley authority and has suffered a setback in the defeat of a bill which according to its opponents would have been a "death sentence" on utility holding companies.

The latest tariff dicker, made by Secretary of State Cordell Hull with the U.S.S.R., has aroused some opposition particularly in circles interested in Manganese, and it is suggested the constitutionality of the administration's action in making reciprocal trade agreements may be challenged. Meantime negotiations with other countries, including Canada, are proceeding. The question of the Guifey coal bill which provides agreements between two-thirds of the operators in a district and the union shall become binding upon the producers, raises again the matter of constitutionality. On this point opponents of the new deal have been hammering since the supreme court laid a lily on the blue eagle. It has been suggested in some quarters the President will make an issue in next year's election campaign of constitutional amendments to meet economic conditions of the present day.
