In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. C. Wood occupied the chair. Meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode followed by repeating the Club Women's Creed in unison. The Secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved as read. The sick committee reported having called on two sick folks and taken them fruit and a plant. The Secretary then read correspondence received. Our Institute had the pleasure of calling on a bride in the district and presenting her with a gift. The program consisted of a reading by Mrs. J. C. Wood, an organ selection by Pearl Jones, harmonica selections by Miss Rita Coody, Mrs. Kent Jones invited the next meeting, and call to be answered by paying your membership fee. Meeting closed by singing the National Anthem after which Mrs. Wood served a very dainty lunch, which brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

Crash of Trees Makes Wreck of Barnjum Dreams

(By C. F. MORIARTY) Canadian Press Staff Writer VICTORIA, Nov. 20—(C.P.)—A belief that making a will was an admission of old age and a disinterest in the future actions of governments have spoiled the dreams of a great forest conservationist. Frank D. Barnjum had envisioned the preservation for posterity of one of British Columbia's finest stands of big timber, Douglas fir sticks running from nine to 11 feet in diameter, 350 years old, and situated in one of the most beautiful parts of Vancouver Island. To this end he established a 2000-acre Barnjum Forest Reserve on the Cowichan River, near Duncan. When he died in Paris, Feb. 20, 1933, however, he had not made a will and prior to that he had paid out large sums in taxes rather than deed the reserve to the government for fear local or provincial administrations might despoil his gift. Now the great trees are being cut down and within a few years the Barnjum dream will be a waste of stumps and brush except, perhaps, for a tract of 200 acres comprising the most beautiful part of the forest with trout streams and magnificent falls in it. This was devoted to an old friend, Chandler Hovey of Boston, who may retain it. It is believed here that trails in Nova Scotia may also pass to Barnjum's hands for marketing. Mr. Barnjum, 74 years old when he died, was born in Montreal, a descendant of an old Norfolk, England family. As a young man he bought large tracts of timber in Nova Scotia and Maine, ultimately disposing of them except for 300,000 acres in Nova Scotia and some holdings in Maine. Pulp and paper companies purchased several million acres from him during and shortly after the War. He amassed a fortune estimated at various times as high as $30,000,000. From 1920 on Mr. Barnjum devoted his energies to a reforestation campaign. He had a mailing list of 3,000 which he personally attended to, sending out pamphlets on forest conservation every week to all parts of the world. He visited China and he was so disheartened by the barrenness there that he resolved to create a perpetual reserve in British Columbia safe from wind storms and bad fire hazards, yet accessible to the public. Consultation with two friends, R. W. Hiberson and W. B. Ryan, timber cruisers, led him to the Cowichan river. First he bought the 320-acre tract of Lady Stradbroke which had been acquired about 30 years ago by Lord Stradbroke. The then governor general of Australia saw it on one of his trips home via Canada and bought it for his children. Secured Great Acreage Property was acquired until the reserve aggregated more than 9000 acres and at the time of Mr. Barnjum's death Hiberson and Ryan were negotiating for the purchase of an additional 900 acres. An attempt to purchase 200 acres from Sir Oswald Stoll, London financier, was unsuccessful. In 1932 Mr. Barnjum was invited to Rome by the Italian minister in charge of reforestation to give his advice on the program upon

Canadian Bacon Well Received In India

The consumption of bacon and ham in India is confined almost entirely to Europeans and Anglo-Indians, the native not entering into the picture, principally on account of religious scruples. Trial shipments of Canadian bacon were well received in India but transportation costs and shipping difficulties operate against any extension of the trade being looked for at this time. The great bulk of the supplies come from Great Britain, according to the Agricultural Department of the Canadian National Railways.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20—The trousers Napoleon wore and the box of silver he pawned to buy food while a prisoner on the island of St. Helena, may be seen in a collection on exhibition at the Rockefeller Centre. A portrait of Napoleon in his coronation robes is significant in contrast to his unhappy days in exile. A case of mementoes is devoted to Marie Louise and her unhappy son.

Losses Felt On New York Exchange

(By Frank MacMillan, Associated Press Financial Writer) NEW YORK, Nov. 20—A last hour burst of selling followed irregularly brought losses of 1 to around 3 points on the stock exchange today. Some observers attributed the drop to increased unrest over French fiscal troubles and economic hostilities aimed at Italy. Others said an equally important deterrent to the rise was the opinion that the market had gone too long without a reaction. The remarks of J. P. Morgan, returning from Europe, that he did not think bull markets make for prosperity were also noted. Measured by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks the market was down 7 of a point to 55.4. Rails, utilities and industrials all declined. Transactions totalled 3,852,377 shares against 2,910,580 Tuesday. Chart readers pointed out that today's market was the first since Oct. 2 in which the volume expanded substantially on the decline. In spite of the decline, a few specialties bucked the trend, Collins & Aikman rising 3 7/8 to 43 1/2 and Houdaille-Hershey "B" up 1 to 27 7/8. Losses of 1 to 3 points were suffered by U. S. Steel at 40, Westinghouse Electric at 95 1-2, Chrysler at 86 1-8, Continental Can at 95 1-2, General Electric at 39 3-4, General Motors at 57 5-8, Case at 107, Santa Fe at 52, Union Pacific at 101 1/2 and International Harvester at 63 3-8.

MINING

(Canadian Press) TORONTO, Nov. 20—The Toronto mining market turned strong this afternoon on the leadership of the gold shares and although the advance was checked by the set-back in New York, the big end of the day's gains were retained. The gold share index registered an advance of 1.55 to 110.23 and miscellaneous mines 78 to 114.02. Close to 700,000 shares changed hands. The market was in a listless state until well on in the afternoon when bids for the high-price and a few of the secondary golds were lifted quickly to show gains up to 1-2 for the big ones and 5 to 15 cents for the cheaper issues. Teck Hughes closed 5 cents up at 45.00 and Hollinger held 15 points at 450 cents gain in good turnover. McIntyre gained 1-2, Dome 3-4 and Lake Shore 7-8. TORONTO, Nov. 20—

AN OLD OFFENDER

LONDON, Nov. 20—George Ray, 78, who had spent 11 of the last 15 years in jail, on being sentenced to three years' penal servitude for housebreaking, said: "I would rather steal than beg, and I won't go to the workhouse—my pride prevents me."

which Italy had embarked at Frederic Mussolini's direction. Mr. Barnjum journeyed to Rome and talked with Il Duce. He contracted a cold, however, and on the return journey became ill and died of pneumonia in Paris. No will was found and his great British Columbia preserve was disposed of to private interests. British Columbia has other stands of big timber but the only extensive tract readily accessible or on the highway is that of Cathedral Grove, near Cameron Lake, between Nanaimo and Alberni.

Quiet Session On Montreal Exchange

(C. F. By Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, Nov. 20—Little action was seen on Montreal Stock Exchange today until a buying spree in the late dealings pushed seven issues into new high territory for a year or more. Holders dumped shares of Canadian Industrial Alcohol and the "A" and "B" issues were down about a point each. National Breweries continued in demand and ended with a new top of 39 3/4. Three new highs were established in the power section by Montreal at 13 1/4, Power Corporation at 12 1/4 and Winnipeg Electric at 3 1/4-4, they later declined to finish unchanged. Other outstanding issues were Canadian Hydro Electric preferred, up one, and International preferred, up three. Bathurst, Brasilia, Shawingian and British Columbia firmed fractionally. Late selling forced Consolidated Smelters off three points and International Nickel down a small fraction after it reached a new peak of 38 1-2. Hollinger gained a few cents. In the steel division Hamilton Bridge preferred marked its first appearance in more than a week with a two-point gain while others held unchanged. Total sales were 46,186 shares; bonds $17,150.

Ottawa Reckons Earth's Shocks In Daily Round

(By Guy E. Rhoades, Canadian Press Staff Writer) OTTAWA, Nov. 20—Two men in a basement office of the Dominion Observatory here tend five machines that are watchdogs of the earth's trembling. They record an average of one earthquake a day, from vague, far-off rumbles to smashing shocks that wreck cities, cause tidal waves, crash mountain sides and kill people. Dr. Ernest A. Hodgson, chief seismologist at the observatory, has been an earthquake man for 20 years, but he has felt only two 'quakes himself, one in the spring of 1925 and one last Nov. 1, W. W. Doxsee, his assistant, has been at the observatory 15 years. Since 1925 when an slip in the earth's structure near Murray Bay, Que., damaged buildings in eastern Canada and sent the populace of a large area into panic, seismographs here have recorded terrific shocks from far-off regions, indicating extensive damage which is never reported because the districts are uninhabited. Such a 'quake was recorded Nov. 20, 1933. It occurred in Baffin Bay, the Canadian Arctic. The seismographs are set up on concrete bases in a vault 30 feet underground where they are protected from surface disturbances except nearby blasting which has been known to jar them. They make their records on photographic sheets by reflecting tiny beams of light from small mirrors. Observatory officials make no claim to be able to forecast 'quakes, although they say it is a safe assumption a 'quake will
