GRAND RIVER DRAMATIC CLUB PRESENT PLAY—The Grand River Dramatic Club presented their play, "The Governor's Daughter" in Tyne Valley Hall last week. Mr. G. The proceeds, which amounted to a tidy sum, was divided between the Grand River Club and Tyne Valley Women's Institute. The ladies of the Tyne Valley Institute served a dainty supper to the cast after the performance.—S.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S BANQUET—The Young People of the United Church at Bideford held a most enjoyable banquet last Thursday evening in their hall. Pussy willows and tiny paper umbrellas made charming decorations and the place cards were little white bunnies, suggestive of the Easter season. Miss Berma Miller was the toast mistress. A toast to the Young People was given by Miss Whitmore and responded to by Rev. J. A. Nicholson, Tyne Valley. The guest speaker of the evening was Rev. C. E. White of Tyne Valley, who gave a most interesting address. His subject was "You cannot live your own life." Mrs. Found, leader of the Young People's Society, gave a short talk outlining the work of the Society. The evening was brought to a close by a sing song led by Miss Marjorie Farrell. The ladies of the W.M.S. served the banquet which was a most delicious one. A vote of thanks was extended to them for their delicious repast.—S.

CALLANDER, Ont., April 6—(CP)—A few miles from flooded North Bay, the Dionne Quintuplets were not even mud-marooned today. On his regular visit to his charges Dr. Allan Roy Dafeo had difficulty getting his car over muddy roads to the Quint nursery, but he managed it.

There was no danger of the rocky land on which Dafeo nursery is built being flooded.

Worried By Pimples And Eczema

Complexion Unblemished after 6 Weeks of Kruschen

"For the past two years," writes a woman, "my face was covered with hard pimples and red blotches, and I also had eczema on my neck and fore-arms. I tried lotions, creams and ointments, without the slightest effect. I was so worried. Fortunately I decided to give Kruschen a trial, and without any exception, within six weeks my face was without a blemish, and I have not had a sign of eczema since. I take Kruschen regularly every morning, and would not be without it." (Mrs.) J. A.

Pimples and eczema are frequently due to impurities in the blood—irritant poisons which sluggish body organs are falling to expel from the system. Kruschen Salts help to keep the body organs functioning normally and healthily, thus preventing the accumulation of impurities in the blood.

under the Act. An investigation of administration of the Act in Prince Edward Island should be conducted; but in the meantime its operations in that province should be suspended for a few months, he submitted. Conservative Leader Arthur Meighen said he had received four or five bitter complaints. He was afraid some of the complaints of Senator Hughes were only too true. Senator Raoul Dandurand, Government leader, declared this was the first time he heard of these complaints. The Government leader said he would bring the representations to the attention of the minister of the Government concerned.

"I do not see any benefit that would result in making rash statements in connection with the administration of this Act," Senator J. E. Sinclair (Lib. Prince Edward Island) warmly declared. Administration of the legislation in Prince Edward Island was equal to that in any part of Canada, Senator Sinclair said. "Unnecessarily wild statements did no good," he added. The Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act was performing a good service in his province, Senator Sinclair declared. It would be unwise, he contended, to suspend operations of the Act.

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) TORONTO, April 7—The broadest and strongest industrial advance of the present economic revival was recorded in March according to the monthly commercial letter of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. More than three-quarters of the industries whose records are available operated at 75 per cent of capacity or better, the report said, while a fairly large proportion were on full capacity basis.

The Bank estimated that industrial production as a whole has increased 15 per cent from March, 1936. In some cases the acceleration was attributed to fear of possible future shortages in event of prolonged labor disputes.

Delays to forest industries in Eastern Canada caused by the weather have been largely overcome by an increase in late-season activity. Full-time operations in British Columbia lumber mills, largest, are now being restored.

Mr. Philip Holland, Well Known Tryon Farmer Passes

Friends throughout the province will regret to learn of the passing of Mr. Philip Holland, whose death occurred last Friday, April 2nd at his home in Tryon.

Mr. Holland was 75 years of age and was a life long resident of Tryon. He was the son of the late F. F. Holland of that place. He was a well known farmer and in his long and useful life he had accomplished much for the betterment of the district. He took a keen interest in agriculture and kindred subjects.

He was a good neighbour and very hospitable, visitors always finding a warm welcome at his lovely farm home.

His widow, formerly Miss Agnes Dunbar, is left to mourn. There was no family. Two brothers, Samuel E. Holland and Camden Holland, Tryon, and three sisters, Mrs. Frank Webster, Charlotte; Mrs. Howard Clark, Saskatoon; and Mrs. Castle, New York, are also left to mourn.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. There was a short service at the house followed by a service in the Presbyterian Church at Tryon, of which the deceased was a member.

Rev. Fred Young conducted the service, which was very largely attended. Interment was in the Presbyterian cemetery.—S.

Death Of Mrs. J. Henry Gaudet Of Summerside

Many friends will learn with regret of the passing of Christen Gaudet, wife of Mr. J. Henry Gaudet, who died at her home on Granville Street, Summerside, early yesterday morning.

Mrs. Gaudet was 57 years of age and had resided all her married life in Summerside. Of recent years on account of ill health, Mr. and Mrs. Gaudet had spent their winters in Florida. Her death came as a shock to her husband and friends as she was only taken ill on Saturday and her condition was not considered alarming. She was a faithful member of St. Paul's Church, Summerside.

She was of a kind and charitable disposition taking particular interest in the welfare of the sick and needy.

Mrs. Gaudet was a native of Tignish and will be kindly remembered by old friends in the west of the Province.

Besides her husband, two sisters and one brother are left to mourn, namely, Mrs. Zenck, of Boston; Mrs. Arnold Driscoll, Moncton, and Albert Rochford, Tignish.

Mrs. Louise Church of Ottawa is a niece, and is expected home to attend the funeral.

Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives.—S.

Explains Need For Anti-Nazis Decree

CAPE TOWN, April 6—(CP Cable)—Prime Minister J. B. M. Hertzog, speaking in the House of Assembly tonight on the proclamation curbing German activities in Southwest Africa, said he regretted Germany in her note of protest appeared to think the manner in which South Africa was acting towards Germans in the mandated territory had changed.

The South African Government was as friendly as ever, General Hertzog said, but it had to discharge its duties. "Since 1924 various Governments have tried conciliation measures without success," the Premier added. "During the last three years something has been started which might have the most serious results if a stop is not put to it. The proclamation is intended to give power to the administrator of Southwest Africa to prevent a repetition of such conduct."

Hardware Better Millinery Down

TORONTO, April 6—Barring those lines directly affected by current weather conditions, business throughout Canada continues generally on an expanding scale, says The Financial Post.

Hardware and millinery are doing well, but the latter is being hit by the present situation in retail distribution appears to be hardware. Stimulated directly by the Home Improvement Plan of the National Employment Council and by the enormous backlog of deferred construction, both of the repair and new type, which accumulated during the depression, sales of paints, hinges, sinks, glass, nails, locks, tools and the hundreds of other things used in building are mounting steadily right across Canada. And the best selling season of the year has barely started.

A close second to this expansion in hardware has been a similar gain in lumber sales. Local supplies at central points in Canada which in some cases had been piling up for years, largely disappeared early in 1936 and since then volume has come directly from new stock.

Winter trade in nearly all parts of Canada in the clothing and millinery business is reported as far below average. Unfavorable and unseasonable weather, of course, is entirely responsible. While the deferred purchasing of staple clothing will undoubtedly be made up later when snows and cold rains give way to April sunshine, some of the buying that might have been carried through if weather had been favorable will now be put off for another Easter.

RESOLUTION TO OUST PREMIER RULED OUT

Insurgent Secreds Fail In Move To Declare Cabinet Offices Vacant.

EDMONTON, April 6—A resolution presented by an Insurgent Social Credit member that would declare the office of Premier William Abernethy and his Social Credit cabinet vacant was ruled out early tonight by Speaker Peter Dawson of the Alberta Legislature.

The resolution was presented earlier by S. A. G. Barnes, Independent Social Credit member, and would have given the Legislative Assembly the right to elect by majority vote "a Premier and members of the cabinet."

It was seconded by W. J. Lamprey, Social Credit member for Peace River, who identified himself with the insurgent group last week.

The resolution declared "this Government has admittedly been unable to take the first steps to introduce the principle of Social Credit in Alberta" and continued: "Be it resolved that this assembly do now declare all cabinet offices including the office of the Premier vacant and that we forthwith proceed to elect a Premier and also members of the cabinet by a majority vote of this assembly. The Premier thus named, if he should so desire, would be privileged to nominate proposed ministers before the final selection is made by the whole Assembly. The present holders of these offices shall be eligible for election to any such offices and they shall assume their duties immediately upon this appointment."

The resolution cites the Irish Free State as one of the British nations where the elected members of the people may follow the procedure of electing their own Premier and cabinet ministers.

It also declared "a crisis has arisen—creating a situation among us which requires that all members of this assembly united to carry out the will of the people."

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) MONCTON, N. B., April 6—With medical science remaining helpless, Miss Martha LeBlanc, 21, died today from an acute attack of lymphatic leukaemia, rare and deadly blood disease.

For days the daughter of Mr. Justice A. LeBlanc, of the New Brunswick Supreme Court, grew weaker as her blood gradually changed to water. Doctors in Hotel Dieu Hospital found themselves powerless as death relentlessly approached. The treatment for such cases, radium applications and blood transfusions, was unavailing.

A third-year student at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, Miss LeBlanc suffered three attacks of influenza during the winter. She returned to her home here three weeks ago, and soon after her condition made hospitalization necessary.

She is survived by her parents, four sisters and three brothers. The eldest sister, Aline, is a social service nurse in Toronto.

The funeral will be held Thursday morning.

In conclusion I wish to thank our Chaplain, Rev. Dr. McMahon and all those who have in any way helped us in our social undertakings, especially the Business Girls' Unit for placing their hall at our disposal.

My sincere thanks to our very efficient Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and Corresponding Secretary; to the Executive, convenors and every member of the C. W. L. for their assistance and co-operation during the year. I would speak for the incoming officers the same sympathetic and wholehearted support. It has been a real pleasure to be associated with so many zealous women, working for the higher interests of the league, "for God and Canada."

TRADE BOARD

understood them were carried out, several council members felt when the matter was discussed at a meeting of the council on March 23.

The following was the text of the committee report:

Committee Report

"The committee are informed that it is proposed to erect a one-storey addition upon the western side of the main Post Office building, such addition to extend westwardly from the present building to within a few feet of the sidewalk or street. If this were done it would completely close up the present three large western windows on the main floor.

"The proposed addition would destroy the unity of design of the building which has a very considerable architectural beauty. Queen Square was laid out according to a definite design and with certain landscape effects. The lawn and ornamental shade trees at the western side of the building would be destroyed and the proportions and symmetry of the Square and Public Gardens would be seriously impaired.

"If an enlargement of the Post Office Building is found necessary, the committee strongly urge as an alternative that the present north wing of the building be replanned; the present very wide stairway be removed and an elevator installed. In the opinion of the committee this would give more available space than the present contemplated addition. If more space should still be necessary, the vacant space at the northwest and northeast corners of the present building could be utilized for extensions. This would not spoil the beauty and symmetry of the building or interfere with the landscape.

"The committee strongly urge the adoption of the Board of Trade plan and that the Board of Trade take all possible steps to prevent any definite action being taken in furtherance of the proposed scheme until such time as definite and final plans are examined and approved by the Board.

Respectfully submitted, J. H. Howard, Jas. E. Harris, J. E. Blain, J. J. Morris, W. E. Bentley, T. E. Wonnacott, Civic Improvement committee.

Export Warehouse Clauses In Act To Be Withdrawn?

with my hon. friend. There is no question but that evil minded people sometimes give false information to stir up trouble. The police have instructions to attempt as far as possible to probe the source of their information before they act on it in any hasty way. I may state that there is a change at the end of this section. It was formerly provided that the liquor should be dealt with as the Commission deemed best. Now we are giving jurisdiction to the Magistrate instead of the Attorney General."

The section carried. Sec. 130 reads: "Any person who may be suspected of selling liquor from or keeping liquor for illegal sale in his pockets or from or in any vehicle may himself or himself and his vehicle, be searched by any inspector or other officer authorized by him or by the Attorney-General, and if at or near any tea party, gathering, horse race, public meeting or other public demonstration, by any of the committee or persons having the supervision or charge thereof, and if liquor is found upon his person or in his vehicle, it may be seized and the finding of such liquor shall be prima facie proof that the same was kept for sale in violation of the provisions of this Act by the person with whom or in whose vehicle the same was found."

"(2) If any liquor, whether obtained from a vendor or not, is found in or about the premises of any dance hall, place of entertainment, hotel, (other than a private guest room), restaurant, shop, warehouse or other place wherein refreshments are sold or kept for sale, or if at or near any tea party, gathering, horse race, public meeting or other public demonstration, or in any place other than the ordinary residence of the person for whom the same has been lawfully prescribed, or in any automobile or other vehicle except in the course of transit from the office of a vendor, automatically you may attach his property."

Mr. Barbour: "No, not under the Stewart Government."

Premier Campbell: "Under a great many governments."

Sec. 170, subsection (2) provides that the Attorney General, instead of the original prosecutor, may execute any assignment, satisfaction or release of judgment or any lien thereby created.

Mr. Saville: "Does this section mean that when a man is fined for selling liquor, automatically you may attach his property?"

Premier Campbell: "Not necessarily; but it may be done."

Sec. 174, repealing the Prohibition Act, 1918 with all amendments thereto, was allowed to stand over. The schedule of forms 1-14, consisting of some seventeen typed pages, was on motion "taken as read" and carried accordingly.

At 5:15 p.m. the Committee reported progress, and the House adjourned until 2 o'clock this (Wednesday) afternoon.

Premier Campbell said there was a substantial change in this section regarding liquor found in automobiles or other vehicles. "I think it is the unanimous opinion of this committee that if there is any place where liquor should not be kept or found, it is in an automobile. This provision simply is to the effect that if liquor is found in any automobile, it is presumed to be illegally kept, whether it is vendor's liquor or not, and the onus will be on the person who has the liquor in the automobile to show that it is merely in the course of transit from the vendor's office to the home of the person for whom it was prescribed."

Mr. Barbour thought the section was a "rather drastic one" if it involved the seizure of the automobile as well as the liquor.

Premier Campbell: "I don't think this section provides for the seizure of the car—it is only the liquor."

Mr. McIntyre thought the section should be modified. The liquor in question might be badly needed as medicine.

Premier Campbell: "If it is in course of transit from the vendor to the patient, then it does not come under this. It is only to prevent people from drinking vendor's liquor on joy rides."

Sec. 146, dealing with actions or proceedings against inspectors, was allowed to stand over.

Sec. 165 provides that the Attorney General's remuneration including his duties under the Act, shall be $2,000 per annum, any statute of the province to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Premier explained that this was a re-enactment of the amendment passed at the short session of 1935. The salary had then been increased from $1,500.

Hon. Mr. Allen said the Attorney General's administration of the Prohibition Act had saved $2,100 and he should therefore be entitled to more than an additional $500 in salary.

Sec. 167 provides that all moneys received or collected under the administration of the Act shall be paid into an account in the name of the Provincial Treasurer and shall form part of the consolidated revenue of the province.

Mr. Barbour: "I would like to ask how these moneys are collected now. In the old days the inspectors collected the fines. The accountant had a book printed with the names of prosecutors and the fines and costs were collected and handed over to him. In 1931 after the Stewart Government came in the enforcement was handed over to the Mounted Police. I understood the Mounted Police were not allowed to collect the fines and turn them in themselves, but they were paid over to
