MR. MOSES M. DOIRON

There passed away in the City Hospital, November 15th, 1932, after a lingering illness, Mr. Moses M. Doiron in the 69th year of his age. In most cases death warns the victims of its approach, but sometimes God in his judgment releases His children from this earth, when they least expect it; and it is usually those who are well prepared that He calls in this manner. It is indeed a consolation to recall that he departed his earthly existence as he lived, a good Christian man; and that he is far better off than we are in this world; for what is our life here but a restless existence of sorrow and suspense; intermingled sometimes with touches of joy that gives us a faint idea of the bliss of Heaven. The deceased was a son of the late Maurice Doiron and Edesce Doiron. The late Mr. Doiron was a man of sterling qualities, kind in nature, hospitable always and truly benevolent as far as circumstances would allow; was always with helping hand to all movements which might enhance the general welfare. The funeral which took place to St. Ann's Church was largely attended. A Requiem High Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. W. V. McDonald. After the chanting of the Libera, the procession reformed and proceeded to the cemetery where the sad last rite of committing dust to dust was performed by Rev. W. V. McDonald and amid the tears of relatives and friends all that was mortal of a devoted husband, a kind and loving father was tenderly laid to rest in the plot beside his daughter, Mrs. Florene Doiron who predeceased him in 1931. There are left to mourn his beloved widow, one son and five daughters, Wilfred, Margaret and Laura at home, Phyllis at Charlottetown, Mrs. Fidele Doucette of Martin Lot 23, and Mrs. Catherine Crockett of Boston, Mass., and the following family of his first wife, Peter, Henry and Joseph all at Boston, Mass., Maurice at Montague, Theodore at home. He also had one brother and four sisters, Joseph Doiron of Charlottetown, Mrs. William Perry of Rimford, Me., Mrs. Frank Saviole of Quebec, Mrs. Napoleon Gallant, St. Mary's, also Mrs. Jerome Blaquiere who died January 15th, 1933 at Rogerville, N. B. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family in their sad bereavement. The pall bearers were: Thomas Doiron, Joseph Doiron, Peter Doiron, Cyrille Buote, Florent Doiron, Peter Murray.

May his soul rest in peace.

Concert At York

Once again our young folks have come out to the front To find quite their equal a long time you'd hunt.

For when its a concert, they're hard to be bet
So now I'll begin since I've got the stage set.

Again was a contest put on in good style
Again did they practice for quite a long while
Till the night came around when excitement was tense
All wondering which side would be left on the fence.

Some banked hard on Gordon's—they'd win out they knew—
While others were betting on Lester and crew.
But lo and behold, when the ballots were read
My gosh—neither won—'twas a split tie instead!

The judges were thanked for their duties—all three
And next plans were made for the concert to be.

By popular vote the date was soon set
For the best entertainment they've given us yet.
The program got started at soon after eight
And those who came after were those who came late.

The first was a chorus—an old one made new
With girls all in costume, it sure looked good, too.
When a reading was given by Miss Doris Blirt
Who told of her husband in tones very pert.

A dialogue next followed, put on with good force,
A real laugh producer—"I want a Divorce."
With Lester and Roy in the principal part
Great plans they did make right away from the start.

And Verna and Rema, Naom' and Frank,
And two niggers too—How that woman could yank—
Along came our Paul with accordion rare
And sounds of sweet music did burst on the air.

Then Lily and Amy together did sing
A well known piece which seemed quite the thing.
A reading by Lester "An old Man's Lament
Who showed us quite clearly his best days were spent.

A dialogue came next, which they called one word "Fame"
And in it we found many, many a name.
First Doris and Elva, two Myrtles and Stan,
With Harold and Raymond made up quite a clan.

And why was she famous? Well that was the fun
Which wasn't found out till the dialogue was done.
Next our Tom took the floor and sang as he can
A real "cheery Song" which we liked to a man.

Mrs. Peter and Myrtle as everyone knows
Then sang very sweetly "My Wild Irish Rose"
Then Arthur stepped out with violin in his hand
And played "Daddy Boy"—the best tune in the land.

A reading by Roy was the next on the fare
As old Brother Watkins' great sorrows did share
The reading was funny—he acted it well
And brought gales of laughter until curtain fell.

Then all took the stage and each happy face glowed
As all joined in singing "The End of the Road."
A short pause was held while the candy was sold
And scenery to change ere the next part was told.

Soon the curtains were drawn and away did the din.
As we studied with care "A Fat Chance to Get Thin."
A dialogue is always a popular thing
And this one, as usual, its laughter did bring.

With Stan as the doctor, assisted by Art
'Twas one great big laugh right away from the start
With Gordon, the thin man, and Harold, the fat,
Unexpected results were produced in the vat!

A solo, sung sweetly, came next on the bill
By Miss Doris Taylor who lives at the mill.
A reading by Margaret, as usual was good
Who entertains company as comic people would.

Came Mary and Amy all dressed up to kill.
They sure looked just right and they sang with a will.
I thought 'twixt their dresses and long curly hair
And soft blending voices—'twas perfect—so there—
A solo by Naom' was also quite numerous.

MISS CATHERINE MACINNIS

The passing away of Miss Catherine MacInnis of 77 Arlington St., Brighton, Mass., on January 11th severs another connecting link with the past. She was born at West Bay, Cape Breton, ninety four years ago, a daughter of John MacInnis (an Sgathach) and his wife Catherine MacInnis, natives of Isle of Skye, Scotland. For more than ten years she made her home with Mrs. Frank Bainbridge (Mary MacInnis) a distant relative.

Miss MacInnis exemplified in her daily life the characteristics of her Highland blood and training. She possessed a high sense of honor. She was industrious, charitable, kind and generous. Her faith in God never wavered, and death to her meant an entrance into "the rest prepared for the people of God." Her body was buried in Mount Hope cemetery, Jamaica Plain, Mass., Rev. Andrew H. Mulnix conducting the services. (Miss MacInnis has near relatives in Kings County, Prince Edward Island.)

Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home
Saves $2. No Cooking! So Easy!

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It takes but a moment to prepare, and costs very little, but it positively has no equal for quick, lasting relief.

From any drugist, get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a 10 oz. bottle and fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup, made with 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed—it's so easy! Thus you make 16 ounces of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and children love its taste.

This simple mixture soothes and heals the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease. It loosens the pernicious phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing. It is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, the most reliable healing agent for severe coughs. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.
