ODDS and ENDS

A little of This and a little of That N. E. M.

THIS WEEK'S LIMERICK As the world's greatest villains "go west" And the Allies ride Victory's proud crest, The very best way To give thanks for this day Is for all to invest in the best.

When the British got Hamburg it was overdone, - burned to a crisp, in fact. Theme Song of the week - (Chanted by the Prince County Progressive Conservatives): "McNaught for just an hour, McNaught for just a day, but (Strong) always!"

What will the prohibitionists say if Premier Jones achieves Rural Electrification, and even County Justice deal to Italy's Other heel!

The Navy has discovered something that will keep bread fresh at sea. Now perhaps someone will discover something to keep the Navy from being fresh on land.

Schoolboy's lament: "It'd be just like the dirty Nazis to surrender Friday night so the holiday would come on Saturday!"

Answer to last week's puzzles: 1. Mellet-part of bushel (Mal-peque). 2. Relation-ether A or K (Kin-pure). 3. Auto-delive-article (Cardigan). 4. Flowing-towards N. (Wellington). 5. Point of Compass-morning (Northam).

More Island place-names: 1. Conqueroria. 2. Guy who delivers fuel. 3. Lumber-birds. 4. Spill-totaled paid admission. 5. Served meals - N. (Answers next week)

MONCTON, N. B. May 4 - (CP) - Returns for the Atlantic Region of the Canadian National Railways for the first nine days of the Eighth Victory Loan have reached 62.2 percent of the objective with a total of $1,062,950 an increase of $10,100 over the same period during the last loan according to J. P. Johnson, regional vice president and general manager. Individuals subscriptions are for larger amounts than heretofore. Subscriptions for the first nine days totalled 9,307 for a total of 14,433 employees, as against 10,000 for the last loan. It is anticipated that at the close of the loan and canvassing is finished, the total amount subscribed for the region will be in excess of the Seventh Loan. A highlight of the day's contributions was one of $40,500 from the Insurance Association of the Railway made up mostly of employees on the Atlantic Region.

announcements made last week that all three holding permits to sell liquor must close their establishments for 24 hours following announcement of V-E day.
