CHARLOTTETOWN and QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

M. C. Delaney, M. L. A., and Mrs. Delaney, North Tryon, were in the city yesterday.

Miss Edith Cox, who has been on the nursing staff of the Baptist Hospital of Roxbury, Mass., has been appointed Principal of the Falconer Hospital of Jamaica Plains, Miss. Cox is a daughter of R. N. Cox, M. P., of this city.

A correspondent from Cyron writes:—"We regret to learn that our genial merchant, P. D. Hagan, is suffering from blood-poisoning in his right leg, resulting from an injury sustained on Friday, Dec. 30th. He is doing as well as can be expected under the treatment of Dr. Murchison, Clyde River.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Christian Hansen took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her son, Chas. Hansen, 224 Euston St., interment being in People's cemetery. The pall bearers were—Premier Haszard, W. G. Gillespie, Henry Lowe, John James, John McInnis, William Connolly.

The officials working on the Blackmer Jewelry robbery have learned that the P. E. Islander with the criminal record who is suspected of turning the trick, purchased a ticket at Fredericton Junction for St. John on the C.P.R. the day following the robbery. Chief Hawthorn, who is at St. John, has been communicated with and efforts are being made to locate the suspect at St. John.—Gleaner, Fredericton.

At the installation of officers in the Oddfellows Hall on Wednesday night a pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Henry Kapthorne, installing officer, of a magnificent bouquet by the members of Alpha Rebekah Lodge. The presentation was made by Miss Mary Bessory, President of the Maritime Rebekah Assembly. Each of the officers elect of Alpha Rebekah Lodge was presented with roses by the St. Lawrence and Wildly Lodges.

The excellence of the show put on at the People's Theatre last evening was thoroughly appreciated and the proprietress can justly feel proud of her efforts. A Man and a Legend was one of those charming sacred stories, beautifully dramatized and exceptionally clear, holding the audience spell-bound from beginning to end. The Message of the Violin, also of a superior merit, while the Western photo play, Cow Boy Justice, delighted the lovers of strong Western pictures full of intense situations. Mr. Stewart in his spot light specialty "I got the time, I got the place. Please introduce me to the girl," simply brought down the house while Mr. Todd's accompaniment was a feature of the evening. The program, "as one of the audience said," was simply grand.

Among the outward passengers by the Earl Grey this morning will be John Callbeck, Forest Park, Chicago, Ill., who has been visiting his friends and relatives in this city. Mr. Callbeck is a son of William W. Callbeck, formerly of Tryon, but now of Linkletter Road, and has been absent from his home for twenty-seven years. He is also a nephew of Mrs. E. Billingsley, Euston St., city, and was her guest during his brief stay in this city. When seen by a Canadian representative yesterday Mr. Callbeck talked freely of his experiences in the domain of Uncle Sam and many interesting topics of discussion arose in the conversation. Telling of his earliest experiences in the U. S., where he went in his eighteenth year, he said he first located in Waterman, Ill., engaging as a carpenter, having had some previous experience in his native province. He remained there a winter and then went in a wood working factory, later becoming connected with a large car shop in Aurora. He made several changes until in 1891 he began work with a large contracting firm of Chicago and remained with them until one year ago when he branched out for himself, and is now managing a lucrative Real Estate and building business with a number of men under him. In this venture he has met with the large measure of success his perseverance and evident ability in his chosen profession deserves. With the hundreds of other P. E. Island boys abroad Mr. Callbeck's name can be placed well up at the top of the list of those who have left their homes here endowed with little more than an indomitable will and a strong arm and with these characteristics of their land carved out for themselves a share of the good fortune which rewards honest effort. Mr. Callbeck was accompanied to the city yesterday by his father, who was so surprised just before Christmas when his son unexpectedly stepped in on his first visit in 27 years. Colin Callbeck, formerly of The Patriot, and now of Ottawa, is a brother of Mr. Callbeck.

Miss Aggie Gillespie, Sherwood, was in the city yesterday.

Any person paying their electric light bill on or before Jan 10 will receive the discount and thus save money.

Among the inward passengers to this city yesterday by the Earl Grey were Capt Richards, C. B. Russel and Byron Barnes, Halifax, J. P. Martin, St. John, and F. Richardson, New York, M. P., and Mrs Hogan, City.

George Nediff, the Syrian wrestler who has a challenge out to meet anyone his weight, (140 pounds) arrived yesterday morning from Newfoundland via North Sydney. Nediff, who is 23 years old, leaves this morning for Lunenburg.—Halifax Herald.—Nediff wrestled in this city.

The outward cargo by the Earl Grey from this port, this morning will include: four cars smelts, two cars oats, one car dressed hogs, three cars way freight and two horses. Her inward cargo yesterday contained: four cars way freight, one car empty barrels, and one car bran.

The pupils of Argyle Shore school recently presented their teacher Richard McKee, with a valuable fountain pen as New Year's gift. Master Mark Inman, on behalf of his school-mates, read an address referring to the cordial relations existing between the pupils and their teacher, and wishing the latter a happy and prosperous New Year. In reply, Mr. McKee thanked the pupils for their kindness, and expressed his deep satisfaction at the reception of their courteous and useful gift.

Mrs. Fred Power, Water St., City, was recently removed to the P. E. Island Hospital to undergo an operation for appendicitis. Her many friends will be pleased to learn that she is now doing well. This is Mrs. Power's second operation for appendicitis. In August last she was treated in the hospital for five weeks and after apparently recovering from the operation was removed to her home. She became poorly again recently and a second period of treatment and another operation was found necessary.

The semi-annual public examination of the Mt. Mellick school took place on Thursday, Dec 22nd a large number of ladies and gentlemen of the district being present. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by their teacher Miss Belle Curley assisted by Chester Robertson and showed by their prompt and correct answers that they had been carefully taught. After the examination the following program was nicely rendered: Recitations by Charles Richards, Russel Drake, Mary Drake, Arden Richards, Mary Drake, Ellice Vessey, Colin Boswell and Francis Vessey. Readings by Arthur Huggan and Helen McKinnon. Dialogue—Florence Huggan and Bruce Wood and songs by Clara Praught and Mable Richards. The manner in which the pupils acquitted themselves was highly creditable to both the teacher and themselves. The pupils presented their teacher with a choice and suitable Christmas gift and in return were heartily thanked and treated to candy and fruit. The examination was brought to a close by a few words of approval in favor of the work carried on in the school and by the singing of the "National Anthem."
