GAINED 65 POUNDS!

"Five years ago when I was first married, I had wonderful energy. I could be on the go all day long without feeling the least bit fatigued. I had a great appetite and would eat anything. I weighed 147 pounds. I used to be busy every minute of the day and, when the day was over, I could go to bed and never waken once during the night. Thirteen months ago my first baby was born. After that my energy seemed to leave me. I was tired all the time. I had to force myself to do my household duties. Instead of being a pleasure as formerly, these duties became a real task. I lost all desire for food and nothing would tempt me. I had to make myself eat. I would go to bed at night and toss from side to side for hours at a time. After a while I would doze off only to find that I had been sleeping for ten or fifteen minutes. Naturally when morning came, not having slept, I started the day completely tired out. I was shaky and nervous. The least noise would startle me and make my heart race along. I could see that my husband was worried. I was losing weight every week and had already lost 54 pounds. I tried all kinds of tonics, but they didn't help me. One night, a night I shall never forget because it started me on the way to health and happiness again, my husband brought in a bottle of Carnol. A friend told him that Carnol had saved his wife's life, so he insisted upon my trying it. Six weeks after I began taking Carnol, my weight increased from 93 pounds to 158, an increase of 65 pounds. And, am I well these days? Every morning I fairly jump out of bed ready to tackle anything and every minute of the day is a joy to me now."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money. 8-622

THE SKY LINE OF SPRUCE

©1922—Little, Brown & Company

BEN DARBY, a prisoner, is declared to be a victim of amnesia by a noted alienist, and is paroled to an old friend,

EZRA MELVILLE. Together they start on a trip to the Yuga River, where Ezra goes to take possession of a rich claim left by his brother,

HIRAM MELVILLE, who recently had died. Ben is to have a partnership and a new lease of life. At Seattle lives

JEFFERY NEILSON and his two partners, Ray Brent and

CHAN HEMINWAY, Neilson, leader of thee notorious gang, has a beautiful daughter. Beatrice, with whom Brent is in love She detests him. Brent complains to Neilson and her father promises to aid him in his suit, Neilson hears of the rich pocket discovered by Hiram Melville and plans with his confederates to steal the claim before Ezra can arrive. When Ben and Ezra reach the north woods Ben suddenly regains his memory, knowledge of his past life returns. They meet a friendly stranger who directs them.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Yes. Goin' to Snowy Gulch."

"It's only five miles up this road," the sarangèr return d. "I'm goin' up to Saltsville way myself, but I won't have no river to tow ye. I've got to do my own paddlin' Thank the Lord I'm only goin' a small part of the way."

"You ain't goin' to swim, are you? Where's your boat."

"My pard's got an old craft. and he and I are going to pack it out next trip.' The stranger paused blinking his eyes. "Say partners—you don't want to sell your boat do you?"

Ezram stated his figure, and Ben was prone to believe that he had adopted a highwayman for a buddy. The amount named was nearly twice that which they had paid. And to his vast amazement the stranger accepted the offer in his next breath.

"So you don't know any folks in Snowy Gulch then?" the stranger had asked politely. But you'll get acquainted soon enough—"

"I've got a letter to a feller named Morris," Ezram replied. "And I've heard of one or two more men, too—Jeffery Neilson was one of 'em—"

"You'll find Morris in town all right," the stranger ventured to assure him. He lives right next to Neilson's. And—say—what do you know about this man Neilson?"

"Oh, nothin't at all. Why?"

"If you fellows is prospectin' Jeffery Neilson is a first class man to stay away from—and his understrappers too—Ray Brent and Chan Heminway. But they're out of town right now. They skinned out all in a bunch a few weeks ago—and I can't tell you what kind of a scent they got."

Ezram felt cold to the marrow of his bones He glanced covertly at Ben; fortunately his partner was busy among the supplies and was not listening to this conversation.

"You don't know where they went do you " he asked.

"Not exactly They took up this creek here a ways through Spruce Pass. and over to Yuga River—the country that kind of a crazy old chap named Hiram Melville. who died here a few weeks ago, he always prospected."

The stranger marvelled that his old listener should have suddenly gone quite pale.

Ezram had only a moment's further conversation with his new friend. He put two or three questions in a rather curious, hushed voice and got his answer.

"What have you and your poor victim been talking about. all this time?" Ben asked.

"Oh, just a gab-fest—a tat-i-tat as you'd call it. But you know Ben I've got a idea all of a-sudden." Ben straightened, lighted his pipe and prepared to listen. "This old boy tells me that we'd save just twelve miles by striking off from here, instead of goin' into town Snowy Gulch is six miles, and we have to come back to this very place. What's the use of goin' into town at all?"

"Good heavens, Ez Have you forgotten we've got to get supplies? And your brother's gun—and his dog?"

"Yes I know, one of us has. But Ben. it seems to me that one of us ought to strike off now and figure out the way and sort of get located"

Oh it would be all right. Ben began rather doubtfully. "I don't see that much is to be gained by it. But I'll strike off on foot if you want me to."

Ezram's mind was flashing with thoughts like lightning and his answer was ready. Ben if you don't mind I'll do that, he said.

"But you'd get a ride if you waited—"

"I hate a horse anyway—"

"You've surely changed a lot since the war.'

"I was thrown off not long ago—and have been leery of the dum things ever since."

Ezram was wholly deliberate He knew what waited him on his arrival at his brother's claim Jeffery Neilson and his gang had assembled there and had already jumped the claim just as his brother had warned him that they would do and cooly and quietly he had resolved to face them alone.

He made his pack—a few simple provisions wrapped in his blanket—and a knife and camp axe swung on his belt. He took his trusted pipe—because he knew well that he could never never acquit himself creditably in a fight without a few lungfuls of tobacco smoke first—and he also took his rifle. "You keep this copy of the letter." He handed Ben the copy he had made of Hiram's will "I'm the worst hand for losin' thing you ever seen.'

They said their simple goodbys shaking hands over a pile of stores. "I've only got one decent place to keep things safe." Ezra confided. "and that ain't so all-fired decent. either. When I get any papers that are extra precious. I always stick 'em down the leg of these high old—

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $2. Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made and saves easily $2. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

It Has Done Worlds of Good for Me Says Dartmouth Man

Couldn't Get Rid of His Trouble. Says He Took Dreco and His Health is Restored

"I have suffered for a long time and tried many different things. Then when I saw in the papers what Dreco was doing for others I decided to give it a trial," says Mr. Thos. Hewerdine, employed by the Department of Marine and Fisheries, Dartmouth, N. S. "It is just what I needed."

"I never felt better in my life since taking Dreco. My case of stomach and kidney trouble was of long standing. Everything I'd eat would sour. I was troubled with gas, causing me to belch and bloat, and pains around my heart. Constipation was a curse with me and I always had to be taking medicine. My appetite was very poor and for a long time I didn't know what a good night's sleep was. My joints ached from rheumatism.

"I can now eat most anything without suffering afterwards. My kidneys are in good shape, no more pains across my back or in my joints, my bowels act regular, in fact, Dreco surprised me and I feel much stronger. I have gained 3 pounds in just a short time. I am sure that I am glad to tell what Dreco has done for me."

Dreco, the herbal remedy that did so much for this man, is a vegetable remedy, containing no Iron, Mercury, Potash nor any acids or oils. It acts on the stomach to assist it to digest the food. It rouses a sluggish liver to full action, quiets the nerves, induces sound sleep, and rebuilds a run-down condition.

Dreco is being specially introductd in Charlottetown by E. A. Foster. It is also sold in Summerside by Gallant Drug Co., Limited, and by good drug stores everywhere.

Tax Stamp

CONCERNING DOMINION LEGISLATION REGARDING PLACING OF A TWO CENT STAMP ON ALL RECEIPTS OF TEN DOLLARS AND UPWARDS, WHICH WILL COME INTO FORCE ON JAN. 1, 1923, AND WHICH MUST BE STRONGLY OPPOSED BY EVERY RETAIL MERCHANT.

Compiled by The Retail Merchants Association of Canada, Dominion Executive Council and Dominion Board.—E. M. Throwern, Secretary, Ottawa, Canada.

What the Act Requires.

According to the Special War Revenue Act which was passed at the last session of the Dominion Parliament, and which will come into operation on January 1st, 1923, upon all receipts of ten dollars ($10.00) and upwards there must be affixed thereto an adhesive stamp of two cents (2c.) or, unless there is impressed thereon by means of a die, a stamp of the value of two cents (2c.), which is to be cancelled by the person by whom the receipt is given before he delivers it out of his hands. Cancellation shall be effected by the person who cancels the stamp, writing or impressing his name or initials on or across the stamp, together with the true date of such writing or impressing.

What a Receipt Means.

A receipt means any note, memorandum or writing whereby any money amounting to ten dollars or upwards, or any bill of exchange or promissory note for money amounting to ten dollars or upwards, is acknowledged or expressed to have been received or repaid, or whereby any debt or demand, or any part of a debt or demand, of the amount of ten dollars or upwards is acknowledged to have been settled, satisfied or discharged, or which signifies or imports any such acknowledgment, and whether the same is, or is not, signed with the name of any person.

Exemptions.

The receipts which are exempted under the Act are as follows:—

(a) A receipt for any money deposited in any bank to be accounted for to the person to whose credit the money is deposited.

(b) A receipt or document in the nature of a receipt which is taxable under any other section of this Act.

(c) An acknowledgment by a bank of the receipt of a bill of exchange or promissory note for the purpose of being presented for acceptance or payment.

(d) A receipt for or upon the payment of money paid for any purpose to or by His Majesty for or out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada or for or out of the Consolidated or General Revenue Fund of any Province of Canada.

(e) A receipt endorsed or otherwise written upon or contained in any instrument liable to stamp duty and duly stamped acknowledging the receipt of the consideration money therein expressed.

All Legislation Should be Made Clear.

Sub-section (b) of the exemption clauses is not clear. We took it up with the Department but found that no rulings have yet been made. We suppose they mean that when a cheque is received in payment for an article or in payment of an account, that when stamps have been put on the cheque it is not necessary to put them on the receipt. This is another evidence of poor legislative drafting, and we contend that all legislation should be drafted in plain, simple language.

Penalty for Violation.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of the above sections of the Act, or who refuses to give a receipt, duly stamped, or who upon the receipt of a payment to the amount of ten dollars or upwards, gives a receipt for a sum not amounting to ten dollars (when the actual amount received is over ten dollars) or who separates or divides the amount paid with intent to evade the tax, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars.

It Will Disrupt Every Cash and Credit Sales Slip.

This Act was passed by the Government on June 27th, 1922, and it will come into operation on January 1st, 1923, if the Government, in the meantime, does not see fit to have its operations suspended, which we hope they will.

This Act will give the retail trade of Canada, as well as other interests, a staggering blow when it goes into operation. Only those engaged in the retail trade have any idea of what it means to carry out the provisions of this Act. It will disrupt every cash and credit sales slip, and cash register system that is now in existence throughout Canada, and it will add more expense in a great many cases to the office staff of retail merchants than the amount that will be paid to the Government by them in stamps

Its operations will cut both ways. In the case of fruit and produce dealers, when retail merchants purchase fruit, vegetables, produce, poultry or eggs, etc., from farmers and market gardeners, it will be necessary for the farmers and market gardeners to carry at all times postage or revenue stamps with them, so that they can place them on the receipts they give to the retail merchants for the goods they sell to retail merchants when they want a receipt for the same. If the farmers and market gardeners refuse to place stamps on their receipts and to cancel the same they will be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars. Or take the case of a retail merchant who takes a receipt from his employees for salaries received, the employees must also carry a supply of stamps so as to place stamps on the receipts they give for their salaries, and cancel the same, or they will be subject to a fine.

Trade Must not be Hampered by Governments.

There are a large number of other illustrations that could be given, but the above are sufficient to show that this is another piece of annoying and badly considered legislation, that will not only annoy retail merchants, but it will add to the cost of doing business without giving the Government the amount they could secure by a less expensive system, as far as retail merchants are concerned. No effort, as far as we know, was made by the Government to ascertain what effect this complicated system would have on the retail trade; it has evidently been merely recommended by someone unfamiliar with retail trade conditions, and it was then thrust upon us when the Budget was brought down, in the most autocratic manner, to take effect on January 1st, 1923. In our opinion, it should be suspended, and as we are an active part of the electorate of the Dominion, every retail merchant should do all within his power to let the legislators of our Dominion Parliament understand that, as loyal citizens, we want to help to pay every cent of our war debt, but we must not be hampered and annoyed in our daily business transactions, and be subjected to paying heavy fines. In other words, Governments must be told to keep their hands off business, and allow it to flow as freely and as rapidly as possible through the natural channels of trade:

All Unnecessary Expenses Should be Avoided.

Before we are asked to pay we should be consulted as to what effect any proposed system would have on our business, as the more unnecessary expenses that are put upon us the more the public will be called upon to pay in the end. Every retail merchant knows that when postage stamps are placed on receipts, or cheques, or on any other documents, for the purpose of paying our war debts, that it is an unbusiness-like system, as we have been led to believe that postage stamps and Inland Revenue war stamps are for entirely different purposes, and if they cannot be kept separate—and it appears that they cannot—this fact alone should be sufficient to condemn that method of the collection of revenue. The present system of placing stamps on cheques drafts, notes and bills of exchange is bad enough, and, in our opinion, should be abolished, without adding the further annouance by adopting the same system on receipts.

We Must Take United Action.

We want every retail merchant in Canada to take a deep personal interest in this matter. We must stand united; it is the concern of all. No single line of trade alone can defeat a measure of such importance; we must all work together and act together under one common direction, as it affects us all alike.

We have been made partners with the Government but without a voice on matters affecting us.

This legislation, if it goes into effect on January 1st next, will affect all classes alike. Farmers Market Gardeners, Manufacturers Wholesalers, Retailers, Bankers the Laboring classes, and all Municipalities and Corporations. We are well aware that the Government wants money to pay our war debts, but we want it raised in the least annoying manner, and we consider that when we are made partners with the Government in order to collect it, we should be consulted as to how we think the money should be raised, without disturbing our commercial operations. This is an age when Governments must learn that they must consult those whom they want assistance from, otherwise our boasted democracy is a failure. There can be no excuse for passing this legislation before consulting with those who are to be called upon to operate it. This fact must be impressed on the minds of all Governments, no matter which party is in power.

Those who have sense enough to elect, should have sufficient sense to advise, and especially on matters they fully understand.
