I. O. D. E.—A meeting of Royal Edward Chapter I. O. D. E. was called for October 15th to discuss business left over from the September meeting which could not be deferred until regular October meeting. Reports were read from Secty. Treasurer and different committees and adopted. A letter was read from Miss Hunt, Regent of Abegweit Chapter, Summerside, regretting that their executive was unable to accept the invitation of Royal Edward Chapter for an October meeting. Payment of calendars was ordered and the assistant Sec'y authorized to order announcement cards. A lengthy discussion followed as to whether the chapter would proceed with the regular Trafalgar Day sale, and an unanimous vote decided the sale be dispensed with for this year. To make up the amount usually produced by this sale it was agreed that each member be taxed $2. Those present resolved themselves into a committee to notify all members to bring or send their contribution into chapter funds and meeting adjourned in regular order.

PERSONALS

Mrs. F. J. Casey and sister Miss MacCarthy, Charlottetown are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. P. MacInnis Summerside.—S.

Miss Ruby Benoit left yesterday morning for New York on a visit to her sister, Miss Claire, and will spend some time in Toronto before returning home.

Mr. J. J. Johnston, K. C., left yesterday morning for Halifax, N. S., in connection with the matter of the seizure of the schooner "Wilson T." with a cargo of liquor by Customs Officials some time ago. The case will be heard at the present sitting of the Supreme Court in Halifax.

Miss Edith Ings of Vancouver, B. C., is now on her way to Charlottetown to join her parents Col. A. E. Ings and Mrs. Ings. Miss Ings is making the trip via the Panama Canal and is expected to arrive here from New York about November 1st.

Mr. J. P. Simmonds, managing director of the Central Creameries Ltd., leaves this morning for Toronto to attend the International Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers and also the Dairy Industries Exposition being held in the Royal Coliseum Oct. 21st, to 26th.

The condition of Master Louis J. Butler, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Butler, who suffered a broken arm recently, the result of a fall and is now a patient in the City Hospital, suffering from gas gangrene remains unchanged. It was found necessary to amputate the infected arm.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thompson of Winnipeg Beach, who have been visiting relatives and friends on the Island for the past two weeks left on return this week by motor for their home. They were accompanied back by Miss Jean Thompson of Dunstaffnage. On the way back they will visit Mrs. Thompson's brother at Niagara Falls, also Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrew of Gladstone, Michigan.

Grath, widow of John McGrath, Tignish. Mrs. McGrath had been slightly indisposed since coming to Charlottetown on a visit about ten days ago. On Tuesday her illness took a more serious turn and since then she gradually grew weaker until the end came.

She was born in Tignish on September 5th, 1843 and was therefore in her 87th year. She was a most estimable woman, possessing those admirable qualities of mind and heart which endeared her to all who knew her.

She leaves to mourn three sons, Capt. James McGrath of Tignish, Dr. Frank McGrath of Newcastle, N. B., and Maurice McGrath of Montana; also four daughters, Sister St. Joseph. Tignish, Mrs. S. N. Robertson, Charlottetown, Miss Antoinette McGrath, Lake Placid, New York, and Miss Ella McGrath, Charlottetown. Two brothers and two sisters survive, namely, Michael Nelligan, Montana, Thomas Nelligan, Tignish, and Mrs. Reddy and Mrs. Gavin, Tignish.

The remains were taken yesterday afternoon to the railway station and thence by train to Tignish where she was laid to rest this morning, after services had been held in the Roman Catholic Church there.

The Charlottetown pall bearers who accompanied the remains on Thursday afternoon to the station were Prof. J. H. Blanchard, Prof. J. G. Bennett, J. J. Johnson, K. C., Gavin Duffy, K. C., H. R. Hillson, and George MacLeod.

MRS. CATHERINE McGRATH

The death occurred on Thursday morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Dr. S. N. Robertson, Upper Prince Street, of Mrs. Catherine McGrath, widow of John McGrath, Tignish. Mrs. McGrath had been slightly indisposed since coming to Charlottetown on a visit about ten days ago. On Tuesday her illness took a more serious turn and since then she gradually grew weaker until the end came.

MT. STEWART AND VICINITY

The many friends of Mr. Melvin Jardine, Hd. Hillsboro, are sorry to learn that he has entered the P. E. Island Hospital for treatment and hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Agnes Doyle, Savage Harbor, left Saturday on return to U. S. A., after spending some time visiting her parents J. F. and Mrs. Doyle.

The people of Mt. Stewart and vicinity were shocked to learn on Wednesday evening, Oct. 9th., of the sudden death of Mrs. Robert MacKenzie. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Miss Cora Douglas spent Sunday at her home in Mt. Stewart.

Mrs. George Jay, Mt. Stewart, spent some time visiting friends in Borden.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Stephen McKay and family, Savage Harbor, in the loss of a wife and mother who passed away on Thursday morning Oct. 10th., after a very short illness.

Misses Ethel and Ida Affleck, Donaldston, paid a visit to friends at Hd. of Hillsboro, recently.

Mrs. Daniel McAssey and son Wendell were visitors to Morell on Sunday.

Miss Marion MacKenzie, Mt. Stewart, paid a visit to her uncle Mr. Alfred Affleck, Charlottetown, on Saturday last.

Mr. Howard Court, School Inspector, visited Mt. Stewart School, on Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Court.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Clark, Charlottetown paid a visit to friends at Mt. Stewart, recently. —D.
