

MONDAY

ISLANDER'S SUDDEN DEATH.—It will come as a great shock to his many friends to hear of the sudden death in Boston of Mr. Frank Gillis Saint Peter's Bay. On Friday evening last, Mr. Duncan Gillis, father of the deceased, received a telegram announcing the death but giving no particulars. The late Mr. Gillis, who was secretary of the St. Peter's Bay Silver Black Fox Company left his home about six weeks ago for Boston in the interests of the said corporation. He had written several letters home in some of which he stated that he was not very well. Nothing serious however, was thought of until Friday the news of his death came. The deceased was a quiet unassuming and popular young man greatly respected and his sudden death casts a deep gloom over the neighborhood. Besides his sorrowing father and mother four brothers and one sister are left to mourn. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Annie Banman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Banman of Silver Lake, Minn., to Mr. James Callaghan, formerly of North Wiltshire, P. E. I., took place June 17th at 10 o'clock in St. Boniface Catholic Church, Minneapolis, Minn. Rev. Claude Weiman read the service and music was rendered by the children's choir. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Cecilia Banman. She wore a frock of flowered tulle and carried pink carnations. Mr. Peter Clarkin, his cousin was best man. Anthony Banman and Frank Gillis brother and cousin of the bride were ushers. The bride was gowned in white crepe and shadow lace and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. A large reception was held at 3 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Callaghan will reside near New Brighton, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. McNaughton of Moore, Montana, were among the out of town guests.

METHODISTS APPOINTMENT.—A conference held in Chatham last week the following nominations to the Board of Regents of Mt. Allison were accepted: Ministers: Revs. Howard Sprague, D. D.; H. E. Thomas and R. G. Fulton, Laymen: Principal Palmer and Messrs. R. C. Fair and J. R. Dinis. The representatives to the General Mission Board are Rev. Thomas Marshall and Col. F. S. Moore. The representatives to the Annual Conference Missionary Committee are Rev. H. E. Thomas and Dr. Palmer. Delegates to attend General Conference are as follows: Ministers: Revs. F. A. Wightman, Howard Sprague, D. D., Thos. Marshall, H. E. Thomas, Geo. Steel, G. F. Dawson, M. A.; D. R. Chown, B. A.; J. K. King, J. L. Dawson, B. A.; Wm. Harrison, D. D.; (Reserve) and G. M. Young and G. A. Ross (alternates). Laymen: Col. F. S. Moore, Hon. J. Wood, R. D. Smith, Alfred Rowley, J. Palmer, S. McLeorn, J. Lindsay, H. Smith, E. R. Macburn, J. Weddall (Reserve) E. H. Wright and E. T. C. Knowles (Alternates)—E. E. Styles Conf. Reporter.

WELCOMED BACK.—The St. John Times Star says that the return of Rev. Thomas Marshall of Charlottetown, to a Methodist pastorate in New Brunswick will be an event of interest to all who are engaged in temperance work. When stationed in the province before Mr. Marshall was one of the most active in the promotion of that work.

"The beautiful little edifice of St. Elizabeth's Church, Springfield, was the scene of an event of great interest to a large circle of people on Wednesday afternoon, the 24th inst., at 3 p.m., when Annie Florence, youngest daughter of the late Robt. Haslam and Mrs. Haslam, was united in the Reverend Basil Phillip, eldest son of the Rev. P. Ireland Jones, of Karachi, India.

Under a sky of cloudless beauty the bride drove to and entered the church on the arm of her eldest brother, Geo. L. Haslam of "Hazeldean," and to the hymn, "We lift our hearts, O Father." She was dressed in white champagne, trimmed with Indian lace and the conventional wreath of orange blossoms, carrying a white Prayer Book. The maid of Honor was Miss Clara Balderston, daughter of the Hon. John Balderston of North Wiltshire, also gowned in white and carrying a bouquet of lovely lilacs of the valley. The groom was supported by Mr. Lionel Pencelly, of London, England, and the ushers were Messrs. Rob. Howard and Will Haslam. In a manner which impressed the large congregation with the calm dignity of the Church's marriage service the ceremony was performed by Rev. R. T. Dobbie, Rector of the Church, assisted by Rev. H. L. Haslam, of the parish of Liverpool, N.S., brother of the bride.

During the signing of the register, the hymn, "O Perfect Love," was feelingly sung; after which the bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, beautifully rendered by Miss Vera Haslam, of Alberton. After the ceremony a large number of guests drove to Stege Cottage, where the reception was held and where the newly wedded couple received the good wishes of all.

Mr. and Mrs. Colclough will spend the next two weeks on the Island, visiting various places, and will then leave for the Peace River District, Northern Alberta, where the groom's work will be centred for the near future.

The number of gifts in gold and silver and beautifully wrought needle-work, the heartfelt good wishes of the guests, mingled with a deep regret for the loss of one of Springfield's loveliest girls, the tasteful decorations of the church, the work of Miss Haslam's life-long friends, are all tokens of the high esteem in which both the bride and groom are held, and their course will be followed with the deepest interest.

It is a matter of interest to note that St. Elizabeth's Church in which the wedding took place, was originally built in 1849 by the grand father of one bride, Thomas Haslam in memory of his wife whose name it bears.—Mr. Haslam being one of the earliest settlers of the Island. A happy day was brought to a close by the arrival of two cablegrams from India, with heartiest congratulations from the brother of the bride and from the parents of the groom.

TEA AT ELMIRA

The parishoners of East Point parish intend holding a grand Tea at Elmira Station on Tuesday July 7th in aid of St. Columba's Church.

Everything possible will be done to make this day one of genuine pleasure. As usual the tables will be well furnished by the good ladies of the parish. Amusements in keeping with the cause will be many and various, while a rare musical treat is in store for all, furnished by a band that has won well-merited distinction in the Capital City. The League of the Cross Band has guaranteed a choice programme of Sweet Music on that day—Don't miss it.

A special train at lowest possible rates, will leave Charlottetown at 8 a. m. for Elmira. A special also from Souris leaving at 10 a. m.

We extend to you all a cordial welcome and wish you a happy day.

By order of Com.
L. MacDONALD, Sec'y.
