THRICE IS CHOSEN PRESIDENT
—The Baltimore Sun of Nov. 11 says:
"For the third year in his course at the University of Maryland Law School, Wilfred T. McQuaid, former Canadian, has been elected as president of his class. Young McQuaid first was elected class president in his sophomore year. He came to Baltimore from Prince Edward Isle, Canada, to become a student several years ago at Loyola College. Other class officials selected by the members of the senior class at the law school were: Vice-president, Donald Shelhouse; secretary, Ephram Baker, and treasurer, Morris Brown. When the present senior class entered upon its studies four years ago last September, it numbered 55 students, including three young women. At present there are only 26 full-time students in the graduating class, all being males."

Enman struck his brother in the eye and knocked him out. I dragged my brother out and Enman came to the door and made at me with a bottle.

I then struck him and he came at me again and I knocked him down.
This story is quite different from the Crown witnesses. In their evidence it is shown that the Yeo boys had been drinking that day. One witness testified that they were drunk. It would not be a long stretch of imagination to say Kenneth Yeo was very drunk when he was lying on the floor of a public place sleeping. His actions on rising and the actions of his brothers would indicate that they were drunk. When Kenneth knocked down the scales, Charles Enman is stated by five witnesses for the Crown to have said, you are not going to run things here, which resulted in a clinch between him and Kenneth Yeo. The only witnesses stating Enman had a bottle in his hand were the four Yeo brothers. Seven Crown witnesses and five independent witnesses state that Enman was dragged out in a helpless condition. There is no evidence that Enman stated he would murder the Yeo brothers. The evidence for the Crown shows that the Yeo boys were drunk when they arrived at the store. That Roy Yeo dragged Enman out of the store and struck him in the face and knocked him unconscious and while in that condition he dragged him to his feet and let him fall again striking him again. He was then left in a helpless condition for an hour and a half.

His Honor remarked that it was a sad thing that anyone could leave a fellow creature in that state for an hour and a half. One witness for the Crown stated that when he offered some assistance to the injured man, that Roy Yeo struck him in the mouth and dared anyone to touch Enman. The Judge thought these were the actions of a drunken man and said, there is no reason behind what a drunken man will do.
The evidence of the doctors who attended the injured man, was that it would take at least a dozen blows to cause the wounds on his face. Roy Yeo stated that he only struck him twice. His Honor did not believe that the blows could be caused by the bottles, which it was stated were being thrown about that night. The statements of two witnesses, that Roy Yeo was bragging about the affair the next day, when the injured man was lying in the hospital, would lead one to suppose that it had not been done in the heat of passion and that the attack was of a vicious nature and not in self defense. There is very little evidence to show that Bayfield had very much to do with the actual attack.

In summing up, His Honor said that if there was any doubt in the minds of the jury that Bayfield had anything to do with the attack, he should be given the benefit of the doubt. In Roy's case, it was a question as to whether he used more force than was necessary to ward off the attack by Enman, providing that the story of the prisoner was true that Enman attacked him with a bottle.

The jury went out at 1.40 p. m. and returned with their verdict at 3.25 p. m. The court adjourned until 11 a. m. this morning.

Previous to the adjournment of the court, Mr. Jerome Bernard, Deputy Prothonotary at the Court House, Summerside was appointed Commissioner in the three counties for taking affidavits in the Supreme Court. Mr. Kennedy was discharged from serving any further on the jury on the plea that urgent business prevented his attendance.

Summerside
Supreme Court

(Special to the Guardian) SUMMERSIDE, Nov. 30—After being out nearly two hours, the jury empaneled to try the case of Roy and Bayfield Yeo, returned a verdict of guilty in the case of Roy and not guilty in Bayfield's case. The charge was one of assault causing bodily harm to Charles Enman of Springhill. The case had occupied the attention of the Supreme Court at Summerside for four days, commencing on Wednesday morning and closing on Saturday at 3.30 p. m. when the above verdict was brought in.
The court opened on Saturday at 10 a. m. when Mr. C. D. McCallum, Counsel for the defense addressed the jury at some length on behalf of the prisoners. In placing the case before the jury Mr. McCallum explained that the four Yeo brothers and their father had been placed under arrest at the time of this disgraceful occurrence, but at the preliminary hearing before Judge Ingram the father and two of the brothers had been acquitted; Roy and Bayfield were sent up for trial.
The evidence against Bayfield was slight and in regard to Roy it was a question as to whether his actions were necessary in self defense.

WHAT SIR HENRY THORNTON SAYS:

"I am very much obliged to you for the advance copies of the SOUVENIR EDITION. I congratulate you upon the excellence of the production which is really well done and full of interesting articles dealing with the Garden of the Gulf."

THE HALIFAX HERALD SAYS:

"With the compliments of The Charlottetown Guardian, we have received a brochure entitled "The Golden Future," setting forth the attractiveness of Prince Edward Island.

"The spirit of optimism which characterizes this publication is particularly commendable, and the fact that one of the provinces of Canada, in the face of a world-wide depression, is singing a song of faith and confidence, is a good indication that this Dominion has yet many things for which to be thankful.

"Prince Edward Island, pre-eminently a farming district, has led the way in many branches of progressive farming, and also in co-operative marketing. The people are, on the whole, exceptionally contented. They invite the rest of the world to share their happiness with them. And the initiative of the Charlottetown Guardian in the publication of this strikingly illustrated little booklet is highly commendable."

LIGHTNESS, NEATNESS, DAINYNESS. These are the desirable features in Ladies' Overshoes, this year combined with warmth and service.

We have selected ours to fill these requirements, not being able to several and now offer you, in our others the Slide fastener. The slides this year have a locking device, this keeps them from slipping. The Rub-found the cotton lining altogether too cool.

All our Overshoes have the fash-

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

It was pointed out a few weeks ago that November was Trinity's Anniversary month and that the services would register a high mark in its history. This has proven true in attendance, in contribution and in the quality of the services. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed, the visit of the Moderator of the General Council was appreciated, the observance of the 66th anniversary was inspiring and yesterday the last Sunday of the month, the morning service was of a most worshipful nature as the congregation sang such hymns "O for a thousand tongues to sing my great Redeemers Praise" and "Breathe on me, Breath of God, fill me with life new." It was regretted that Professor Kendall was absent through illness, but Miss Lillian McKennie very capably acted as organist and led the choir in rendering the "Te Deum".

Rev. Mr. Brown gave the address on the subject of Stewardship. "He took as his text Genesis 1-1 "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." These words not only open the Word of God but they also open the way of life. In the scheme of creation God made man and set him as master of all but we are but Stewards to administer that which God has placed in our hands and in the apportionment of that which is within our keeping it is obligatory to set aside a portion to God and for the purposes of God, that portion should bear a proper and reasonable relationship to what is set aside for other purposes. After the sermon short addresses were given by Messrs S. A. McDonald and Dr. Ayers, pledge cards were then distributed in connection with the Every Member Canvas and a large number was signed for the 1931 work of the Church.
The entire service was broadcast by C. H. C. K.

The evening service was a continuation of the subject of Stewardship. Rev. Mr. Brown was again the preacher as Dr. Ramsay was called to take charge of the services at Malpeque. Mr. Brown took as his text 2 Cor. 8: 5. "They first gave their own selves to the Lord." The sermon was again followed by remarks from Messrs S. A. McDonald and Dr. Ayers. Thus the every member canvas was given a splendid start and the response yesterday was both liberal and encouraging. Tonight a supper takes place in Heartz Hall when arrangement will be made to complete the canvass.

The music at the evening service comprised the anthem "Hear Then in Love" with Mrs. F. Ramsay as soloist and a solo "The Everlasting Hills" very sweetly sung by Mrs.
Fred M. Nash.

The attendance at Sunday School was 429 the largest for this season and a twelve per cent increase over the previous Sunday.
