THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Summerside J. Frank Lafferty, Manager. Alberton Herbert Clark, Manager.

Mrs. Crane, Summerside, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Meggs, Amherst.

Mrs. S. C. Goggin of Pettitcodiac, returned last week from a short visit at Bedeque, P. E. I.

Us and Mrs. King, Pettitcodiac, for the past few weeks, have been camping out at Bedeque, P. E. I.

Miss Francis McNeill arrived by the Empress on Tuesday last on a visit to her parents Daniel and Mrs. McNeill, Summerside.

Dr. E. F. Moyses, dentist, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Bedeque, left by the Empress yesterday morning for his home in Lynn, Mass., where he enjoys a steadily growing practice.

Joseph Webster of Searletown lost a valuable two-year old horse on Wednesday last. The animal was chasing a cow through a pasture field, when the cow trampled on the end of a stake, throwing up the other end, which penetrated the horse causing a deep wound. Dr. Black was summoned but could do nothing.

T. R. Cameron arrived by the Empress last night from Andover, N. B., and proceeded to New London on a visit to friends there. It is fifty-three years since Mr. Cameron last visited the Island, leaving his home in New London in 1855 as a boy of about 17. He first went to the United States, remaining there a few years, after which he returned to Canada and settled in Andover, N. B., where he now holds a responsible position in the customs department.

The many friends of M. and Mrs. Arthur met at their home near Alberton on Tuesday evening Aug. 25th, to bid them farewell, as they are about to depart for their new home in Kinistino, Sask. A jolly good time was spent and the evening passed all too quickly. Before dispersing the friends were presented with a beautiful volume of Whittier's Poems and an address for which they thanked the kind givers in a few suitable words. Then all sang "God be with you till we meet again" and the parting words were said, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Arthur all kinds of good luck in their home in the West.

W. R. Trotter, general organizer of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, was passenger by the Empress to Summerside last night. Mr. Trotter, who is a native of Winnipeg, has been travelling in the Maritime Provinces in the interests of the Trade and Labor Congress for the past three months during which time he has visited nearly all the principal cities and towns in the Maritime Provinces, organizing several local unions besides a Trade and Labor Council in Moncton and also one in Halifax. Mr. Trotter leaves for Charlottetown today, where he will remain for two or three days, before he will return to Halifax to attend the annual meeting of the Trades and Labor Council of Canada which opens there on Sept. 21st.

Ladies' Fall Coats

We are now showing in our ladies ready to wear dept one of the largest and best selected stocks of fall coats we have ever offered you, embodying the newest ideas both in materials and style.

They come in 3/4 and 7-8 lengths, in loose, semifitted and fitted styles, so that there is something to suit each individual taste or figure. Many are handsomely trimmed with braid, others show plain, finish, or are self-strapped but all show the true tailor touch.

We have all fashionable shades including navys, browns, fawn, heather, myrtle and black, while many new ideas in tweeds striped and chevron effects are shown. The prices are most reasonable also and range from $5.00 to $25.00.

Misses' and Children's COATS

For misses and children we also show some handsome styles in both plain and fancy cloth, at prices which you will find most moderate indeed. We cordially invite both ladies and children to view our handsome showing, and always remember that early selections are generally best.
