Elegant Autumn Millinery Creations Designed by Artists

Our present showing of authoritative millinery creations sets the standard of style in this city.

Our milliners have digested the ideas of Parisian and American designers and carried to Charlottetown the correct development of fashion's decree regarding the most correct and becoming creations in fall millinery.

You cannot appreciate the marvellous beauty, the original designs and handsome finish of our fall hats until you have seen them in our store and then on your own head. Every hat in our millinery exhibit is specially adapted for Island ladies. Your hat is here, come and get it—and at a saving.

A splendid exhibition of elegant, distinctive furs is shown here in all the variety in price, material, and shape that will please the smart dresser as well as her modest sister. The present line of furs is the best we have ever stocked and the prices are ranged so that every woman can find her favorite at a price easily within her reach. Our furs are high-quality furs but are selling at just the price of the ordinary. Come and see our showing.

- "THE CRIMSON STAIN."
(An episode in the life of "Sherlock Holmes.")
No doubt the many lovers of the famous writer Sir Conan Doyle will avail themselves of the opportunity to witness his latest and greatest triumph this evening at the Opera-house, where that favorite organization, the Colonial Stock Co., will present for the first time in Charlottetown "The Crimson Stain." The readers of Conan Doyle are doubtless familiar with the wonderful character who while escaping from prison received a wound which left him marked in such a manner that he was given the sobriquet of "The Crimson Stain." Lorne Elwyn has made the dramatization and appears as "Sherlock Holmes." As the great detective Mr Elwyn is credited by the dramatic critics of the United States as being second only to Gillette in his impersonation of this well known character.
- The role "Lady Mary" falls to Edith Warren and gives this clever actress an opportunity seldom developed in one part, leading as it does for the lightest comedy to the heaviest emotional work.
- Courtland Hopkins as the man with "The Crimson Stain" will give the Charlottetown public another of those wonderful characterizations for which this actor is noted.
- The mysteriousness of this drama
