DAILY SELECTIONS FOR GUARDIAN READERS

SABBATH BREAKING.
There is a side to Sabbath-breaking which is not so strongly emphasized as it might be, namely, how one man's wife breaking of it compels another's. The thousands who use Sundays for excursions make other thousands work. The thousands who insist on Sunday newspapers make thousands of boys deliver them on Sunday. Some years ago an article in a Scottish magazine on the moral side of golf, called attention to the growing custom of taking boys to the golf links Sundays for the whole day, thus depriving them of religious training. Last week the General Assembly of the Northern Presbyterian Church took up this question with great earnestness. In its decidedly emphatic protest against Sabbath-breaking it asserted that "one hundred thousand caddies are kept from Sunday School by golf." Not long ago the pastor of a suburban church complained that the golf links were depleting his Sunday School. In connection with this, it is worth while to remember another line of the report: "Nine-tenths of those who enter prison were started on their way by Sabbath-breaking, largely by Sunday sport."—The Congregationalist.

HAIR BEAUTIFIER.—All who desire beautiful hair should get Mrs. White's hair lotion. Call on her at The Lennox Hotel. 3235.

BROOKFIELD.—Tanton Lodge of Loyal Orangemen invited Rev. George Orran, Past Grand Master, to preach to them on Sunday, July 12th, in the Presbyterian Church. The weather was most unfavorable but the members were out in force, which added to the usual congregation. Made quite a respectable showing.

ICE CREAM FESTIVAL.—Among the automobile owners who attended the ice cream festival at Covehead on Wednesday last were Messrs B. Roy Holman, S. A. McDonald, W. K. Rogers, D. A. Wedlock, and Dr. E. E. Robins. After partaking of the delicious refreshments prepared by the ladies, the audience gave the young folks a drive in their luxurious touring cars which was greatly enjoyed.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Mr. Wallace D. Murray of Clyde River, to Miss Catherine M. MacDonald, daughter of Archibald MacDonald of the same place, was solemnized at Watkinson's, July 15th. They were unattended. Shortly after the performance of the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's parents where a few of the immediate friends of the contracting parties had assembled to give them a reception. The very best wishes of a large circle of friends will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Murray through their married life. The Guardian extends its congratulations.

KING WILLIAM LODGE.—Kingston King William Lodge Loyal Orangemen invited Rev. G. C. Taylor of Zion Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, to preach to them on Sunday, July 12th, in the Methodist Church, which was kindly lent by the trustees. The weather was most unfavorable, but a goodly number of Orangemen, including visiting brethren from Hamilton Lodge, Clyde River, attended and there was a large congregation. The offering realized $10.50 and was divided equally between Mount Herbert Orphanage and the P. E. I. Hospital. The strong, able Protestant deliverances of the preacher were appreciated by all. The Lodge feels grateful to him.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE PICNIC.—The largest outdoor temperance demonstration held for many years, took place on the beautiful farm of Mr. Frederick Haslam, Springfield, Friday. It was conducted under the auspices of Union Division No. 45, and Excelsior, Highland, Olive Branch, New Glasgow, Prince William, Pearley Stream, Refuge, Springfield, Triumph and Harmony. All divisions of the Sons of Temperance within a ten mile radius participated. There was a well stocked refreshment booth under the efficient management of the members of Union Division. This was patronized by the proceeds for the work of the Provincial Temperance Alliance. The usual picnic sports, such as tug of war, football, baseball, races in variety and swings were fully enjoyed by the happy company. An open air meeting was held after the sports came to an end. This was presided over by Brother Thomas Haslam, D. G. W. P. of Union Division, and opened with a short address from the Chairman, a chorus by the audience. Instructive addresses were then delivered by the Grand Worthy Patriarch of the Order, Mr. L. P. Tanton, Rev. W. D. Wilson, Field Secretary of the Temperance Alliance, Rev. Leonard Haslam, of Nova Scotia, Mr. J. F. Proffitt, Grand Secy, and Mr. J. C. Clarke, P. G. W. P. The tables, presided over by the ladies, were supplied with an abundance of good things, a feature in which this part of the country is especially notable. The day was ideal, the country decked in nature's richest garb of green and wild floral bounty, and the attendance large and orderly. The day's pleasure closed with the singing of God Save the King.
