

DESPAIRING WOMAN NOW HAPPY MOTHER

Mrs. Stephens Did Not Need The Surgical Operation.

Patoka, Ill.—"I had been married five years and my greatest desire was to become a mother. The doctor said I never would have a child unless I was operated on for female troubles and I had given up all hopes when a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly for some time, and I am in better health than ever, and have a healthy baby girl. I praise your Vegetable Compound for my baby and my better health. I want all suffering women to know that it is the sure road to health and happiness."

—Mrs. GEORGE STEPHENS, R. F. D. No. 3, Patoka, Ill. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

—ABRAM'S VILLAGE.—The condition of Mrs. P. Phlip Arsenault, Abram's Village is not improving as fast as her friends would wish. Mr. Arsenault is travelling salesman was in Abram's Village last week on business. A meeting of the patrons of the Abram's Village cheese factory was held at Egmont Bay on Wednesday afternoon 19th inst. Miss Loretta Gallant continued her course in Charlottetown where she was attending a short course in household science. Preparations are being made for the Short Agricultural course to be held in Egmont Bay next week. Messrs. Ben. Poirier, Stanley Poirier, Ben. Poirier, B. DesRoches, De. Arsenault, Ernest DesRoches, Miss Celine Poirier all of Miscouche, paid a visit to Abram's Village on Sunday evening the guests of Mrs. Jas. C. Gallant, Adolphus O. Gallant.—M.

L'ASSUMPTION.—An important meeting was held on Wednesday evening in the C.M.B.A. Hall, Egmont Bay, when the members of the Succursale Boudreault, No. 20, of Society L'Assumption, convened for the installation of their officers. Rev. Dr. P. C. Gaudet of Palmer Road, performed the ceremony, assisted by Mr. Etienne M. Arsenault. After each officer had been assigned his place, the President made a short but impressive discourse in which he thanked the members for their confidence in him and promised to do his utmost in power to help the branch along. He then called on Rev. S. Baudreault, to address the meeting. The Rev. Father complimented the members on their choice of officers, and laid stress on the fact that the progress of this branch was due to the regularity and punctuality of attendance in the part of the members. He anticipated a still greater progress this year. Rev. P. P. Arsenault then spoke; he also congratulated the members on the high standing of the society, and touched on the great benefit derived from the educational standpoint. He also touched on the disaster of the Caraquez College, the noble indication that had done so much good to our French Acadians. Rev. Father Gauthier spoke impressively on the society. He explicitly showed the great advantage of being a member. The national pride the French Acadians should have in their nationality. Speaking of the recruiting he was glad to be able to say that the French Acadians were not behind in their loyalty. And this was nothing strange. They had on all occasions showed their patriotism, and loyalty. It was practically all due to their ancestors, if Canada had been saved to England, when the American gained their independence. He encouraged the young men to go to war, so that later on, in presenting their claims for their rights, they would have something to rely on, namely their loyalty to the British Flag. Both visiting clergymen were tendered the unanimous vote of thanks of the meeting. At the beginning, the Ave Marie Stella was sung. Several songs were given throughout the meeting, some of which were highly amusing. Remarks were made by Mr. Etienne M. Arsenault and others. The following is the list of officers newly elected:—Spiritual Director—Rev. S. Baudreault; President—Joseph G. Arsenault; Vice President—Peter Gallant; 2nd Vice President—Clovis Gaudet; Secretary—Charles M. Arsenault; Assistant Secretary—Jas. A. S. Gallant; Treasurer—Aime D. Arsenault; Directors—Augustin LeClair, Joseph P. Arsenault and John S. Peters.—M.

show this marvelous war picture at his theatre Tuesday night Jan. 25th, for one night only. This picture has been the talk of the country during the last two months, people have been turned away at every performance wherever it has been shown. The picture is one that no one can afford to miss it as it depicts the actual fighting that is being done by the Mother Country and her allies. It shows the Tommies in the trenches the battles in the air with German Biplanes, the heroic Belgian troops with their gallant King at their head defending their beloved country against the invader. Also can be seen the Serbian soldiers fighting side by side with the British Marines and a thousand other scenes whose vividness and reality show what soldiers have to put up with. 6096-1-2411pd.

—PATRIOTIC AT BEDEQUE.—Considering the severe cold and storm of Monday night the 17th the Hall at Central Bedeque was well filled when Rev. Dr. Gauthier arrived to deliver his lecture here. The Rev. Dr. Gauthier was introduced by the Chairman, Mr. Albert Schurman and for about three quarters of an hour delighted the audience with his description of the war, its causes and its horrors as well also as the unity and sympathy with each other of the whole British Empire regardless of nationality or religion. There was also a musical program in connection which opened with a chorus, 'We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall' by the children of Centerville and Central Bedeque Schools and was beautifully rendered by the flag on the stage being ably supported by little Miss Hazel Greene and Master Bert Cahill. Next on the program was a chorus 'The Best Old Flag of All' by about twenty male and female voices and was listened to with much pleasure by all. The next was a solo by Mrs. Jenkins which she sang in her usual pleasing manner. Mrs. Earl Leard also sang a solo to the pleasure and delight of the audience. The male quartet by Messrs. George and Percy Bowness, Leonard and Elias Schurman was a real treat to all. Dr. Gauthier sang a solo also, 'The French National Anthem' in his deep clear voice which touched the hearts of all. The closing choruses 'Rule Britannia' by a number of male voices was certainly a credit to the local talent of Bedeque. Much praise is due Miss Mary Schurman who so willingly undertook the training of the young people and also to Mrs. Ward Green who so untriflingly managed the whole affair. The accompanists of the evening were Miss Mary Schurman, Mrs. Leard and Mrs. Walter Leard. The proceeds of the Lecture go towards the Red Cross.

MILITARY CUSTOM AND ETIQUETTE.

"There is a certain etiquette and custom to be observed in military and naval matters that the ordinary civilian is ignorant of, and now that we have military and naval men among us a few hints may be useful to those in doubt," says a St. John Exchange.

"Take the case of addressing or speaking of officers. All subalterns—that is, officers under the rank of captain—should be referred to as Mr., the rank is not mentioned, but he is spoken of as Mr. Brown, not Lieutenant Brown, while letters should be addressed 'J. Brown, Esq.,—Regiment, except official communications, which show his rank. His visiting cards should also be written without naming rank but showing his regiment."

"In speaking to a captain the rank and name is always used, as 'Good day, Captain Smith,' but never 'How are you, Captain?' On the contrary, it is quite correct for intimate friends to address a Major, Lieut. Colonel or Colonel by rank only as 'Good morning, Major,' 'Good-by, Colonel.'"

"A Lieutenant Colonel is called Colonel by courtesy and letters are addressed to Captains, Majors, etc., stating rank as Colonel, Jones. Regiment. Officers having brevet or honorary rank as addressed by the higher title, that is a captain holding the rank of brevet-major would be called major. Then there is the case of officers holding administrative positions in addition to their rank such as Quartermasters, Adjutants, Paymasters, etc., which are appointments only, so it is absolutely wrong to speak of Adjutant Robinson or Quartermaster Thomson. The correct way is Captain Robinson, the Adjutant, or Major Thompson, the Quartermaster."

"In the Navy, Lieutenant-Commanders and Commanders receive the title of Captain by courtesy, and so Commander Johnson, R. N., is addressed as Captain Johnson. The relative rank of officers in the army and navy is sometimes puzzling; a lieutenant in the Royal Navy ranks as a Captain in the Army, Lieutenant-Commanders with Majors, Captains with full Colonels, and so on."

"The etiquette of the soldiers' head-dress is also a complex one and there are certain rules and customs which must be observed. A soldier never salutes unless he has his cap or other head covering on, and so an officer not having his head covered does not return the salute of a A soldier, and so in the street military men acknowledge the bow of a friend do not remove their caps, but simply salute, and so soldiers present when the National Anthem is played stand at the salute until it is finished. But without any head-dress they stand at attention. Individual soldiers meeting a battalion on the march should halt, turn toward the commanding officer and salute, and also pay similar honors to the colors if any. Similarly, civilians should pay the same respect by raising their hats. "A body of wounded are always to or a body, who should present arms, a mistake often made is to refer to
