ON Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock a meeting will be held in the Baptist Church of all Sunday School superintendents and teachers, to make arrangements for the annual Sunday School convention to be held on the 22d and 23d of November. A full attendance is requested.

Y. M. L. A.—S. James' Church.—In the views to be shown at Mr. Bartlett's lecture on Tuesday evening, Nov. 1st, are several of the Basilicas of St. Peter's the grandest and most imposing Christian edifice in the world; also several views of the noble cathedrals, for which Rome is justly celebrated.

Who can beat this?—Messrs. Geo. Carter & Co. report a sale of 365 Bulbs to a leading citizen of this city, and all have been planted in one garden bed. This will be a beauty spot next spring. Hyacinths and Tulips are perfectly hardy and stand our winters well. Easily planted, cost very little, and bloom in early spring when flowers are scarce. Every garden should have a bed of Tulips or Hyacinths. Now is the time to plant.

CARDIGAN NOTES.—The picturesque little village of Cardigan presents a busy scene at present. There are quite a number of vessels in port. They came mostly from Nova Scotia.—A large number of her school-mates and friends assembled at the station last Wednesday morning to say good bye to Miss Rita Owen, who has gone to reside in Montreal.—Mr. Wallace Parker, long a clerk in Mr. J. F. Norton's shop, has lately gone to British Columbia.

THE marriage vows of Mr. James B. MacMillan Western Covehead and Miss Mary McKenzie, Flat River were solemnized at noon Thursday at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Hector McKenzie. Rev. A. McLean Sinclair, was the officiating clergyman. The attending parties were Bostonians, Mr. W. B. Seller and Miss Lizzie McKenzie, sister of the bride. After luncheon the bridal party drove to Charlottetown and thence to the groom's home where a reception was held. The wedding gifts were a unique and useful variety. THE GUARDIAN extends congratulations.

Marion & Marion, Solicitors of Patents, New York Life Building, Montreal, a depository by them for the benefit of our readers: 61,371, F. Ponton, Joliette, P. Q., and P. Grant, St. Jean-Baptiste de Rouville, P. Q.; Drain Ditching Plow: 61,383, Frank Swales, London, England; Curb Hook: 61,401, George D. Bryar, St. John, N. ON the 28th inst., Fathers McLellan, Monaghan and Gaudin, with four lay Professors, viz.—Messrs. Theodore Gallant, John J. McLean, Gregory McLellan and Kenneth McPherson, accompanied by thirty students of St. Dunstan's College, visited the Hospital for Insane, distributing sweets and tobacco among the patients and to their great delight regaled them with music on the cornet and violin, winding up patriotically with God Save the Queen. It would be difficult to decide which were the more delighted the patients or the students. Soon may they come again and many thanks for their thoughtful kindness in brightening even for a short time the monotonous existence of the most unfortunate of God's creatures.
