Distinguished Visitors At Miscouche

On Friday evening last, just as the last session of the Acadian Teachers' Convention at Miscouche was about to close, the meeting was agreeably surprised by the unexpected visit of Mr. Gabriel Remond, general secretary of the Alliance Francaise of Paris, accompanied by Reverend Brother Leopold, C. S. C., of St. Joseph's University, Memramcook, N. B. Although many of the members had already left for their homes, those remaining were delighted to meet this distinguished representative of France and listen to his very interesting address on the present situation in his homeland and his optimistic hopes for a new and better France. Brother Leopold also spoke briefly congratulating the teachers and wishing them success in their work for the coming year.

After the meeting, Mr. Remond, Brother Leopold, and a number of friends enjoyed the hospitality of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick C. Martin, Supervisor of Fisheries. After partaking of a bountiful lobster supper, the guests spent a delightful hour in conversation and the singing of popular French songs, Mrs. Martin accompanied on the piano. This very pleasant meeting closed with the singing of "La Marseillaise" after which the visitors left for Charlottetown on their way to Halifax where they will spend two or three days before Mr. Remond leaves for New York.

In Memoriam

MRS. J. ALBERT BRENNAN
' Tignish

A shadow of sadness was cast over this community, when in the early hours of Saturday August 23rd death visited the home of The Brennan Family, this time to take away the mother Mrs. J. Albert Brennan Nee Annie Phee after an illness of three months.

Though reaching the advanced age of eighty one, Mrs. Brennan was active until her recent illness and fortified with the consolation given a true Christian spirit, was aware, that for her, the sands of time were run out. From time to time during her illness, she was visited by her pastor Rev. J. A. McDonald who also administered the last rites of The Holy Catholic Church.

Her passing has taken from the Parish of S. S. Simon and Jude in general, and from the Village of Tignish in particular, not only one of its landmarks, but one of its builders, for hers was a life of activity, not in the church and home only, but in all things pertaining to the advancement and welfare of her community, and her resigned and cheerful disposition through all, proved that her duties so well preformed was not for material gain, and to such as her, we expect to hear on that Day when all is made known "Well done good and faithful servant."

The great number of Mass Cards and Floral offerings were silent testemony of the place she held in the hearts of her fellowman.

Left to mourn a loving and devoted mother, are four daughters, (Mae,) Sister Marie of the Order of Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception, Holdfast, Sask., (Rita) Mrs. Ray Prought of Charlottetown, (Stella) Mrs. Alex McDonald of Dorchester, N. B. and Kathleen of the Post Office staff Tignish.

Her husband predeceased her in 1932.

The funeral held on Monday, August 25th was largely attended, when Solemn High Mass of Requeim was celebrated by Rev. J. A. McDonald P. P. with Rev. Douglas McNeil as Deacon and Rev. M. J. Rooney as Subdeacon.

Pall bearers were: C. F. Morrissey M. L. A., C. P. McCarthy, P. A. Burk, E. J. McTague, J. N. Richard and Clifford Phee

HOLMAN STORE NEWS
—G. H. M.—

Everyday in the Ladies' Wear Department, fascinating Fall Clothing is being unpacked — to a chorus of OHS and AHS! They're certainly different.... As you know the skirts are longer and straighter—softly rounded hips and waists are accented, consequently both Suits and Dresses are dressier.... The materials are softly draped and satin is used extensively for trimming. The Wool Dresses are terribly smart —on many of them plaids and plain colors are cleverly combined...... Come in and see these NEW - NEW styles.....You'll be intrigued!
