Good Racing at Summerside On Dominion Day

The horse races held at Summerside Dominion Day were well attended and there were keen contests in every class.

The Free-For-All was won in split heats by Dan Patchen, that had as a close contender Bonique. It took five heats to decide the race. Colonel Waltz took the first heat, but went lame. However, he finished a good third in the fourth and fifth heats.

Ruby Aubrey driven by Mack Steele easily won the 2.24 trot in three straight heats, the fight for second money being between The Pup and Mack Todd for second place.

Horse Drops Dead

The 2.40 Trot and Pace was won in three straight heats by Major, S., owned and driven by Claude MacMillan of Charlottetown.

This race had a very tragic feature.

Soldier Boy, after taking second place in the second heat; as well as in the first, dropped dead at the end of the barn just after he was being led from the track.

Following is the summary:

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear husband, James I. McVittie died July 3rd, 1924.
This day brings back sad memories
Of the one who has gone to rest
And the one who thinks of him today
Is the one who loved him best.

Annual Session of P. E. Island Baptist Assn.

The Baptists of Prince Edward Island met in the annual session of their association in the Baptist Church on Thursday evening.

The Moderator this year is Rev Ross Eaton. He is presiding at the various sessions.

The first meeting was given to the subject of Religious Education, and was addressed by the Rev Alex Gibson who spoke especially of the work being done at Acadia University.

Friday morning opened with a devotional service led by Rev A. A. McLeod of Summerside. A welcome was given to the following new ministers who have come into the association during the past year. Rev. A. A. McLeod of Summerside and Alvin Robertson of Belmont also Mr. Whitney of Dundas.

Ross Bethune spoke in behalf of the Ministers Annuity. This is a new movement in the denomination by which it is proposed to provide a retiring allowance for all ministers when they reach seventy years of age.

J. P. Gordon presented the report on Denominational Literature in which he strongly emphasized the claims of the "Maritime Baptist" and asked that a strong effort be made to increase its circulation.

Rev H. R. Bovyer led a very helpful discussion upon the question of stewardship. The matter of titling apparently had strong support in the meeting.

At the afternoon session, Dr. Johnson presented the claims of the P. E. I. Hospital, and Col. MacKinnon spoke in behalf of the Orphanage, both of these institutions were heartily commended to the Baptist people.

Rev. H. Bovyer spoke in behalf of the girl's home at Truro, N. S., and the women's home at Moncton N. B.

At 3.30 o'clock the meeting was handed over to the Women's Missionary Society, Mrs Isabella Gliddon of Summerside presided. After devotional exercises a memorial service was held for the members who had died during the year. Mention was made of eight such. Very touching reference was made to their sisters by Mrs John Dawson of Bedeque and Rev W. R. MacWalker of East Point and Mrs S. H. Henderson very sweetly rendered a solo "Crossing the Bar."

The year has been a good one with the society. One new branch has been organized and the receipts have been very satisfactory. The Mission Band report was of a very encouraging nature. Charlottetown has the banner band and Tryon comes second. Mr. Lockhart returned missionary gave a very interesting talk on the work of Bible women in India.

Falconwood Hospital Graduation Exercises

The annual graduation exercises of Falconwood Hospital were held last evening in the Hospital Assembly Hall, and were well attended. The graduation class, consisting of four nurses, was addressed by Dr. James Warburton, and an excellent musical program was carried out. The function concluded with a reception and dance.

The exercises began with invocation by Rev. H. D. Raymond, and an address of welcome was delivered by Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan. A delightful violin solo was rendered by Miss Kathleen Hornby, followed by an entertaining reading by Mr. Edgar Shaw. A pleasing vocal solo by Miss Berna Huestis was followed by an address by the Superintendent of the Hospital Dr. V. L. Goodwill. The diplomas awarded to the graduating nurses were then presented by Hon. J. D. Stewart to the following nurses:

Miss Sarah Anne O'Hanley.
Miss Margaret Kathleen Clark.
Miss Mary Lillian Taylor.
Miss Margaret Evelyn O'Hanley.

The gold piece for general proficiency given by Mrs. Dr. Goodwill was awarded to Miss Sarah O'Hanley. The Florence Nightingale pins were presented by the matron, Miss Houston and bouquets were presented to each of the graduates by little Miss Margaret Houston.

The valedictory was read by Miss Margaret O'Hanley.

A reading by Mr. Shaw was followed by an excellent address by Premier Stewart. The musical portion of the program concluded with a violin selection by Mr. Maurice Weeks and vocal solos by Mrs. Ewen McKinnon, Mr. Harvey McPherson and Mr. G. R. Cunningham of St. Catherine's, Ontario.

A vote of thanks to the staff for the entertainment they had provided was moved by Hon. J. H. Myers.

The pianist of the evening was Miss May Sterns.

—RECOVERED — Mr Percy Enman who has been ill for the past two weeks has practically recovered his usual good health and returned to work yesterday.

—ORDERLY CROWD — One of the features of the big Dominion Day races staged by the Summerside Driving Park Association was the splendid order which prevailed all day. There was not one disturbance or even a "drunk" and Inspector Barbour and his staff had an easy time of it. Considering the largeness of the crowd this speaks volumes on the respect and decorum of citizens and visitors.
