FUNERAL SERVICES.—The funeral of the late Judith Peters, who passed away at the Sacred Heart Home on Saturday, was held yesterday morning from the residence of Mrs. Riley, 21 Bishop St. to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. P. McMahon, D. D. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. R. McCarthy.

OUR PURE WATER.—A visitor to the city recently took a sample of our water and submitted it to the Physicians Diagnostic Laboratory, Inc., New York for analysis. The report of the analysis reads as follows: "Results of analysis shows the water to be of a very good quality, free of impurities and practically free of mineral substances. Special attention was given to the lime content. Results of same are that the water is free of any iodine salts, or iodine in any other form."

MARRIED IN NEW YORK.—The marriage took place in New York on December 3rd, of Miss Marjorie Stuart (Miss) Currie, R. N., youngest daughter of Mr. D. K. Currie, Charlottetown, to Mr. H. Roy Cromwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cromwell, Sawyerville, Quebec. The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip by automobile for Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore and other cities. On return they will make their home at 168 East 3rd St. Patterson, N. J. The bride's many friends in Charlottetown and the province will wish her a happy voyage on life's matrimonial sea.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place at Lynn, Mass. on Nov. 22nd, 1926, between Miss Elizabeth Wheatley Large, formerly of Charlottetown, but lately of Lynn, Mass., and Mr. Frederick P. Sands, of Kensington, N. J. The marriage was solemnized during the absence of the bride's family in Philadelphia, Pa. The family of the bride, as well as her many friends and relatives, were both astonished and delighted to receive the announcement of the wedding, which was made on the first anniversary of the event, Nov. 22, 1927. Her friends in this province will recall the pleasant visit Mrs. Sands made to the island quite recently. To the happy couple the Guardian extends sincere congratulations and best wishes for future happiness.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very interesting event took place at St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, when Miss Gertrude Coady became the bride of Mr. W. J. Hennessey, Charlottetown. The bride, who for many years had resided at her father's home in Bonaventure and lately had entered the Charlottetown Hospital training school for nurses, and in the year 1926 became a graduate nurse. During her training, she was loved by every person, and her kind disposition made many friends. Whilst the groom is one of the island's best men and holds a very responsible position. The bride's maid was Miss Marie Murphy, R. N., whilst the groom was very capably supported by Mr. Walter Coady, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a very delightful party was given. The bride took the early express for a long and extensive honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Hennessey will reside in Charlottetown on their return.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Patrick's Church, Seven Mile Bay, on Wednesday morning, Nov. 23rd, when Tessa W. Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Campbell, Cape Traverse, and Mr. J. Harry Green of Bedouque were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Monaghan, priest. The bride was given away by her father, becoming attired in a coat of French blue broadcloth with opposum trimming and hat to match. The wedding march was skillfully rendered by Mrs. E. R. Foley of Summerside, cousin of the groom. The bride was attended by Miss Edna Green, sister of the groom, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Harold Campbell, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the bride party motored to the Mainland, returning home in the evening, where a reception was held at the home of the bride, only the immediate friends of the bride and groom being present. Previous to her marriage the bride was an employee of the staff of R. T. Holman Ltd., Summerside, for the past four years. Before leaving Summerside her girl friends tendered her with a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Leigh Stewart, where she received many costly presents, including cut glass, silver etc. She was also tendered a miscellaneous shower by her friends of Cape Traverse and vicinity, at her own home, where she received many useful presents, including a large sum of money. Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside in Bedouque.

THURSDAY

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Thos. Howatt is in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, suffering from a fractured hip, the result of a fall on the slippery sidewalk.

WINS LONG SERVICE PIN.—Last week Mr. Reg. Cox, long time foreman for the Maritime Electric Co. received from the Company a long service gold pin, with three stars which is presented to all employees having thirty years service with the Company. For forty years' service a diamond pin is presented and as Mr. Cox has over thirty three years' service and is still "fit as a fiddle" it is to be hoped he will have the honor of wearing the diamond pin.

At the age of three score years and ten Mr. H. James Anderson, Registrar of the Probate Court passed away at his home 19 Pleasant Street, at half past six Tuesday evening. The late Mr. Anderson had been in failing health for the past three years. About a year ago he was seized with an attack of heart trouble which compelled him to lay aside from his work for about four weeks. His health improved, however, and with the exception of two weeks rest last October he was able to attend to his duties until Saturday last when a return of his illness confined him to his home.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage took place in Summerside, Wednesday evening, Nov. 23rd, of Mr. J. H. McNaught, of O'Leary, to Gertha Matheson, daughter of the late John and Mrs. G. Martin of Summerside. Rev. J. C. Martin officiating. The happy couple will reside at O'Leary.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS.—A meeting of the City School Board was held on Monday night at 8 o'clock. The Christmas vacation came up for discussion, and it was decided that the city schools should close on Thursday, December 22nd and re-open on Wednesday, Jan. 4th.

STRANGE STORY.—A man consulted one of the City doctors on Tuesday night to receive treatment for a badly blackened eye. He claimed that he had been set on by thugs and robbed of $140.00 in seven twenty dollar bank notes. Enquiry at the police station elicited the information that this story had rather too much in the way of strong waters abroad.

ST. JAMES GUILD.—The annual meeting of St. James Guild was held last evening with a good attendance. The past year has been most successful and a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the retiring president, Miss Irving. The newly appointed officers are: President, Mrs. W. Ethel Stewart; Secretary, Miss Ina Gillan; Treasurer, Miss E. Ross. After a discussion of the work of the coming year, the disposition of the funds and the appointment of sewing and flower committees, the meeting closed with a bright outlook for the future.

DOUBLE WEDDING.—A very pretty double wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bruce Muir, with the assistance of the choir. The prayers at the grave were also said by Mr. Muir. The pall bearers were: W. A. Stewart, D. A. McKinnon, K. C. Kenneth Finlayson, K. M. Martin, D. MacKinnon of the Savings Bank and James Stewart.

NEW PASTOR.—Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Tingley of Windsor, N.S., arrived in Charlottetown last evening en route to Montague, where they will probably be residing for several months. Mr. Tingley's work will be in connection with the pastorless Baptist Churches on the Eastern end of the island. The three circuits, Montague-Georgetown-Sturgeon; Summerside-Georgetown; and Murray River and Harbor will receive the benefit of his work. Mr. Tingley has had a board and rich experience in his work as pastor of the churches in his country.

WEDDING BELLS.—At St. Peter's Church, Seven Mile Bay, on Nov. 23rd was the scene of a quiet wedding when Teresa Winifred Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Campbell, Cape Traverse, and Mr. J. Harry Green of Bedouque were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Monaghan, priest. The bride was given away by her father, becoming attired in a coat of French blue broadcloth with opposum trimming and hat to match. The wedding march was skillfully rendered by Mrs. E. R. MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

However, he was up and around this week, and had his meals Tuesday as usual. After supper he complained of weakness, and shortly after, the end came rather suddenly.

Mr. Anderson was a son of the late Captain Alexander Anderson, a native of Scotland, and was born at Cable Head, West St. Peter's Bay. He was engaged for a number of years in school teaching prior to taking his position in the Probate Court, the duties of which he fulfilled with courtesy, efficiency and fidelity. He was a man of splendid qualities of heart and mind, and for a number of years an elder in St. James' Church in this city, holding that office at the time of his death.

He was the youngest member of his branch of the Anderson family, and all his brothers and sisters predeceased him.

He leaves to mourn besides his widow in this city, two nephews and three nieces in St. Peter's Bay. The funeral will take place this afternoon. After a private service at the house at two o'clock, the funeral will leave at 2.10 for St. James' Church for service, starting at 2.30. He will be laid to rest in the People's Cemetery.

FRIDAY
PAINFUL INJURY.—Mrs. Jesse Bernard, of Summerside, met with a painful accident on Sunday evening. She and her husband were proceeding arm in arm to church when Mrs. Bernard slipped on the icy sidewalk and in falling pulled Mr. Bernard down. He fell on his left arm and broke it between the wrist and elbow. An X-ray at the Prince County Hospital on Monday morning showed that only one bone was broken. This was set and the injury is now on the mend.

LAI D TO REST.—The funeral of the late H. J. Anderson, Registrar of the Probate Court, took place from his residence, 19 Pleasant Street yesterday afternoon. After a short service at the house, the cortege proceeded to St. James' Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. W. Bruce Muir, with the assistance of the choir. The prayers at the grave were also said by Mr. Muir. The pall bearers were: W. A. Stewart, D. A. McKinnon, K. C. Kenneth Finlayson, K. M. Martin, D. MacKinnon of the Savings Bank and James Stewart.

Capt. Murdoch A. MacLeod

Master of Department of Public Works Dredge No. 115 died very suddenly at his home on Water Street, about 5.30 p. m. yesterday. It seems that he had just entered his house when he collapsed into the street. His body being found a few moments later by his son who had gone on a short errand. Medical aid was at once summoned, but before the physicians arrived, life was extinct. It is thought that his death was due to heart failure.

He leaves to mourn, besides his widow, three sons, Arthur, Ivan and Munroe, five daughters, Mary and Alice at home, Mrs. John B. MacKay, Springfield, P. E. Island; Mrs. W. G. Campbell in Massachusetts and Gladys in Alberta; also one brother, Neil MacLeod, Orwell and one sister, Mrs. Roddie MacLean of Dundas, P. E. I.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Gillis was held from the residence of her daughter Mrs. Joseph Smith on Sunday, November 20th. There are left to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, two sons and one daughter, namely: Daniel and John, City; Mrs. Joseph Smith, City; one sister, Mrs. Jane Chandler, Boston, Mass.; one brother Donald MacDonald, Bethel Lot 48. The pallbearers were: John Carmichael, Thomas Smith, Capt. Ryan, James Currie, Edward Doyle, Patrick Dennis. The funeral service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Father Walsh.

Following were the floral tributes: Wraith, The Family, Wraith, Labor Protective Union; Spiritual offerings Mr. and Mrs. W. Brydges and family; Mass Carr, Miss Josie McGeek.

ago, where she lived three years. She was united in marriage to Mr. Gust Frizel in 1917 at Minot, N. D. Following their marriage, they lived at Minot a year and then moved to Portal, N. D. In June, 1919, she came to Hoffman, having made her home here since that time.

Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn her loss, her mother, Mrs. Mary MacLean, Chelsie, Mass.; four brothers, Martin and Ronald MacLean, Chelsie, Mass.; Dan MacLean, Chicago, Ill.; Charles MacLean, Port Washington, Wis.; and two sisters, Mrs. A. D. Brown, Gloucester, Mass., and Mrs. Corbet, Chelsie, Mass.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Nov. 23, from the home at 3.30 a. m., at St. Olaf's Catholic Church, Elbow Lake, at 10 a. m., Rev. Austin J. Kinsella officiating. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Otto, Ed. Lawrence and Clarence Fritz, brothers of the deceased's husband; R. E. Shauer and R. M. Lang.—Hoffman Tribune, Hoffman, Minnesota.

William Alfred MacKay, whose decease occurred in the early morning hours of Wednesday, Nov. 30th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Forsyth, in Alberton, was born at the Wharf, P. E. I., Dec. 7th, 1860.

After a long struggle with an incurable disease, during which he had all that medical science could do and give to help him fight that disease, together with the devoted, tireless care of a loving wife, he calmly passed within the veil.

The last few weeks of his earthly life were spent in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Forsyth, who with their son Ralph, rendered a most valuable service to Mrs. MacKay in their constant nursing and care of the suffering patient.

With his good wife he was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian Church to which they gave faithful service.

The funeral services were conducted from the Forsyth home and were largely attended.

Rev. W. A. Morrison and the choir from the Presbyterian Church were in charge. Mrs. Fraser-McArthur sang a solo. Interment was made in the new Presbyterian Cemetery. Loving hands and thoughtful hearts having prepared the grave to receive the last remains.
