SEARLETON NOTES.—We learn that Mr. Bradford Farrow lately returned from the Upper Provinces, and who has for a few days past been visiting his sister, Mrs. Joseph Webster Searleton, has purchased the splendid farm, farming implements and stock of Mr. Charles Crosby, Bedouque. Mr. Farrow has decided to settle in his native place. The land in this vicinity is quite dry. On Saturday last teams might be seen working the land, planting potatoes etc.—The bay is quite free from ice and lobster fishermen are engaged in running their lines.—Aurora Division is becoming under our energetic W. It is really astonishing how The Canadian Magazine keeps up the value of its contents and the excellence of its appearance. Among the contributors to the May number are John Charlton, M. P., Robert Barr, John A. Ewan, Henry J. Morgan, Joanna E. Wood, Beckles Willson and W. A. Fraser. One of the brightest pieces in the issue is Robert Barr's encounter with three bicyclists who were exceedingly clever tellers of fairy tales. Barr is a genuine humorist of the gentler type. His jokes never hit like sledge hammers and are never rough. The illustrated article on the Prince of Wales will be read with interest, especially as his famous Canadian trip is fully described. The article on the Dairy Industry of Canada, with its numerous pictures of cheese and butter factories from the Atlantic to the Pacific, is one which should interest every active Canadian mind. The whole number is beautifully printed.

MR. JOHN McLEOD of Hamilton, Ont. formerly of Flat River had a narrow escape from death quite lately. COVEHEAD NOTES.—Mrs. Lanks of Covehead, who has been ill with pneumonia and pneumonia, is, we are pleased to hear, now convalescent.—The fishermen are waiting for the ice to move in order that they may get their traps out. Big catches of herring are reported from Covehead and Rustico, six hundred barrels, being seized in one day.—The framing of Col. Orr's residence at Grand Terrace is now finished, and the work of completion is rapidly being pushed forward.—A vicious dog attacked a workman, who was employed by Messrs. Schurman, Lafargue & Co. at the residence of Col. Orr. The animal bit him through the wrist, and it will necessitate him to cease work for some time.

What a man attains to seems for a little time to be the highest rung in the ladder, and during that brief period he may be content, but when he discovers that there are other rungs, still higher up, ambition gives birth to discontent, and he begins once more to climb. To climb is really man's chief end. It isn't in attainment, but in work, that man finds his real happiness, consequently it is not strange that we find men working until they break down when there is no real necessity for it. If men only knew it, they could work to almost any extent on through middle life and into old age, if they would only take a little common sense care of their health. The trouble is that they do not take the little stitches here and there that are necessary to preserve health. They pay no attention to the signs of on-coming ill-health. A little biliousness, a little indigestion, a little loss of sleep and appetite, a little nervousness, a little headache, a little sickness in the morning, and a little dullness all day, a little this and a little that—all these little things they neglect. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the appetite keen, digestion and assimilation perfect, the liver active, the blood pure and the nerves steady. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It is the great liver invigorator and nerve tonic. It fits a man to work and work and work. Medicine dealers sell it and have nothing else "just as good."

"I was a sufferer five or six years from indigestion," writes B. F. Holmes, of Gaffney, Spartanburg Co., S. C., "also from sore stomach and constant headache. I then used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets, which in a few days gave me permanent relief."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers sell them.

GENTLEMEN

We believe that nothing in a mans outfit is of more importance than his suit. No matter how nice his shoes may fit, or how fashionable his hat or tie or gloves, if his suit don't fit it spoils the whole effect.

A very liberal patronage accorded us the past few years, encouraged us this season to greatly increase our Stock in variety and quality, and we claim that our make of suits are up to date in style, fit and finish. If you have not yet given us an order we feel that it would be a good time for you to do so.
