IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ELIZABETH LEFURGEY

There passed quite suddenly but peacefully away at North Tryon, on her birthday, viz. August 10th, inst., Mrs. Elizabeth Lefurgey at the advanced age of 79 years.

The late Mrs. Lefurgey was a woman who was the possessor of a wide circle of friends, and being the possessor of a very pleasing personality and sterling christian character which characterized all her relations to her family, to her community, and to her Church, it might well be said of her: "she has been a true Mother in Israel, and one of those who are the Very Salt of the Earth."

For a number of years the late Mrs. Elizabeth Lefurgey has been an active and consistent member of the Tryon Presbyterian Church. In the absence of the Pastor the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Daggert of the Tryon Baptist Church, who spoke in touching terms of the deceased as one of the ideal mothers of our province whom he had learned to know and greatly respect, and in his message to the living he graphically pictured the vast contrast between the lives of those who build upon the right foundation and of those who build upon that which will not stand the test when the storms descend upon it.

The late Mrs. Lefurgey (whose husband predeceased her by quite a number of years) leaves to mourn one son A. H. Lefurgey, who resides on the homestead, one sister, Mrs. Major Huestis, of Summerside, and besides a large circle of grand children (who were deeply attached to her) a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances who assembled to pay their last tributes of respect at her funeral on the 11th, inst., who have planted in the depths of their affection one sweet "Forget Me Not."

All that was mortal of the late Mrs. Lefurgey was laid quietly to rest in the beautiful Cemetery at Cape Traverse, the pall bearers, bearing the remains to the hearse and to the grave being Mr. George Wood; Mr. David MacKay; Mr. D. J. Thomson and Mr. William Mullins.

MISS MARGUERITE M. O'MARAH

The news of the death of Miss Marguerite M. O'Marah, daughter of Mrs. and the late John O'Marah, which occurred on Saturday, Aug. 2, 1924, at her home in Mitchell River, at the early age of forty-two years, will be received, not only by the people of Prince Edward Island, but by all parts of Western Canada and Nova Scotia with the deepest regret. After receiving the last Sacraments of Holy Mother Church, administered by the most worthy and esteemed Pastor, Rev. Bernard Gillis, quietly passed away to the silent majority after a very short illness borne with true Christian patience and fortitude. Having contracted jaundice a few months ago, was not considered dangerous until the day previous to her death when a sudden change for the worse banished all hope in spite of all medical aid and attention, the cordly tried bowed their heads and murmured "not my will but thine be done."

Miss O'Marah was one of the highest characters that the world could produce. Strictly honest and straightforward in all her dealings, charitable and kind hearted to the poor, and those in trouble, she won the respect of all classes. Devotion to her people for whose welfare she was ever solicitous, made of her a daughter and sister worthy of love and everlasting remembrance.

She was one of the leading teachers not only of Western Canada but of the Dominion of Canada, having taught in the West for a number of years, being principal of St. Mary's School, Regina, Sask. and of the Sacred Heart, Separate School, Watson, Sask. having conducted in the latter, 65 pupils, seven teachers passing out last June and four more coming in. Each school she conducted through the west she won a report of the highest praise. She was loved and respected by all rich and poor and was noted for her industry and integrity. On her holidays each season she corrected examination papers in the Normal School, Saskatoon, Sask.

Before teaching in Western Canada, she taught in Georgetown, P. E. I., where she was highly esteemed by all.

The funeral which was delayed awaiting the arrival of her two brothers William and John from the U. S. A. and Vincent from New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, was held on Wednesday 6th, and was one of the largest seen in that part of the country. Her uncles Thomas M. Hughes and J. M. Hughes, Charlottetown, including her nearest relatives from Montague and St. Mary's Road respectively were also present.

High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the pastor after which the remains were conveyed to the cemetery where all that was mortal of a kind and loving daughter and sister was laid to rest.

The pall bearers were: Ernest Mahar, (nephew), Edward Mahar, John Ryan, Joseph D. Campbell, Colin Campbell and Roderick McAnlay.

She leaves to mourn a sorrowful mother, five brothers and three sisters, namely, William, John Vincent, Thomas and James.

The sisters are: Mrs. Frank Ryan, Mrs. J. Frederick Curran and Miss Martha M. O'Marah, who has retired from her profession as teacher and stenographer at home.

The heartfelt sympathy of the MOON IS EXONERATED TORONTO, AUG. 20.—The harvest moon is set in the heavens to illumine the late labors of the harvest field, not to act as a weather prophet, meteorologists say. Some farmers, who have been predicting that if the full moon passes without a frost there will be none until the crop is harvested, are de-luding themselves, state the weather sharps here, who do their prophesying by rule and reason and not by guess.

The moon has absolutely nothing to do with weather conditions, according to Sir Frederic Stupart, of the Dominion Meteorological Office, when approached last evening for an opinion on the popular theory that if there is no frost before the full moon passes, there will be none until the crop is harvested.

"We do not consider that the moon has anything to do with it," he stated. "It is just an old wives' tale."
