LATEST FROM THE THEATRES

B. F. KEITH'S, N. Y.
UNION SQUARE THEATRE.

There never seems to be any diminution to the tremendous business at B. F. Keith's Union Square Theatre where the whole city goes for its vaudeville entertainment. During the entire summer, there has been a series of audiences that have crowded that popular theatre to the walls. This has not only been the case evenings, but the afternoon houses have been just as big. That the entertainments have been worthy of this big business is evident to anybody who has been observant of the great lists of attractions that the progressive management of that house has offered week after week. Under the Keith plan, vaudeville has grown to be a most important branch of theatricals and there is just as much demand for big novelties in that line as in the legitimate, consequently, new things are constantly being sought for and there is never a week throughout the year in which B. F. Keith's Union Square Theatre does not offer something that has never before been offered to the public.

For the big holiday week, commencing next Monday afternoon (Labor Day) September 1st, the management has arranged a bill unsurpassed for brilliant novelties, and, above all, comedy. Heading this tremendous aggregation of headliners will be the greatest comedy entertainer on the American stage, Eddie Foy, who will make his premiere debut in Vaudeville. Mr. Foy will be remembered as star of his own company in that great success, "Over The River," and for this special engagement, he will have the assistance of the Seven Little Foys, who are the cutest little bunch of artists on the stage, who give everything known to vaudeville even to a clever impersonation of their father. Mr. Foy and his midget entertainers will give their latest skit and as on the occasion of their last visit, will keep the audience in convulsions for twenty-five minutes.

Mr. Roy will not be the only headliner on this big grogram, for we have Harry Tighe, who has starred in several successful plays and has just been persuaded to again enter vaudeville. Mr. Tighe will be supported by a company of five players, known as "Harry Tighe and His Bollegians", in a skit formed of songs, dances and brillant patter.

Other prominent names will be Foster Ball and Ford West, presenting the great character study, "Since The Days of '61"; Robert Fulgora in his great transformation specialty "Great Men, Past and Present,"; Jean LeBonita, a European musical sensation, in xylophone solos; the Three Melvines; a trio of gymnastic wonders; Skaters Bijouve, a novelty on rollers, and a host of other stars to be announced later.

THE ESCAPE OF HARRY THAW AT THE EDEN HOUSE.

Harry K. Thaw, as he made his sensational escape from Matteawan, is shown on a new group in the historical chamber at the Eden House, New York City. The notable figure in this group and the life like figures of the other principals in this real drama is most exact. It shows Thaw slipping past the keeper and about to enter the high speed automobile that was in waiting by his alleged confederates. In order to get an exact representation, the Musee artists were given permission to visit Matteawan to gather points and get local color in order to make the group as near the real affairs possible. The story of Harry Thaw is one of the most romantic and sensational of modern times.

Several figures equally as much in the public mind just now are also to be seen in this wonderful exhibition of wax figures and tableaux which represent every phrase of life of interest to the general public. Governor Fulzer, Mayor Gaynor, President Hilson, Secretary Bryan and among those talked about!

The extra added features are an entirely new program of moving pictures, which are shown every hour, and the band concerts are heard every afternoon and evening There is always something of interest added to the Eden Musee exhibition which makes a visit to this most popular place of amusement in the country a most pleasant one and which will linger in the mind of the visitor for years to come.

CANADA'S TRADE GROWTH.

OTTAWA, August 28.—The Customs' Department statement for July and the first four months of the current fiscal year indicates a most striking growth in Canadian trade. Total trade for July was $100 357,000, as against $91,423,000 in July last year. For the four months, trade totalled $358,488,000, compared with $328,635,000 in the same period of 1912.

The duty collected in the four months was $38,531,000 as against $35,990,000 in the corresponding period last year.

The imports for July are given as $58,928,000, and exports of Canadian produce $33,660,000. For the four months imports were $225,887,000, and exports of Canadian produce $117,180,000.

Valuable Foxes For Sale

The undersigned offers for sale the following valuable Foxes:-
Four male Foxes—pure black.
Five Female Foxes—pure black.
Six Female Foxes—pure silver (some dark silver)
Two Male Foxes—pure silver.
One Cross Fox—mostly black and silver.

I claim an expert knowledge of foxes and fox fur. There is only one section of Canada where the Hudson Bay Company gets its choicest fox furs. These rank on the London market with the best furs from this province.

Since last fall I have been in correspondence with the fur dealers of this Hudson Bay section with a view to securing some of their very best stock I visited the section recently and out of hundreds of foxes offered for sale I had first choice and selected the above. They are all free from rust and the blacks have no white hairs except the white tipped tail. They are all young foxes, now quite tame, larger, stronger and better developed than the Island fox. This province is now suffering the penalty of too much inbreeding Here is the very stock with which our best Island foxes should be mated to produce the surest crop and the best results in the choicest fur.

These foxes will be sold singly or in pairs, or the whole may be disposed of in one lot. The foxes may be inspected at any time by proposed purchasers. For time and place of inspection and terms of sale apply at once to Mr. John H. Bell, K. C., Summerside or to the undersigned.

Another Municipal Offering

Our recent purchase of Halifax 4 1-2 p. c. Debentures was immediately absorbed without advertisement. The Amherst 50 p. c. Debentures which we had previously advertised also met with a ready reception and our holdings of this issue are now exhausted.

This activity conclusively shows that discerning investors recognize the present price level of all municipal debentures as being unusually attractive. Just now we offer a block of New Glasgow 5 p. c Debentures, due 1955, at 99 1-4 p. c. and interest to yield over 5 p. c. Undoubtedly this lot will likewise be promptly taken up, Further information available on request.
