Macdonald, was appointed Chairman. The following were duly appointed officers: Mr. Peter A. McPhee, President; A. J. Keays, Vice President and Mr. Chester Macdonald, Treasurer: It was unanimously decided that the Club should be named the Progressive and that the night of meeting should be Wednesday. After routine matters had been disposed of all sat down and enjoyed themselves to the fullest for three hours in the good old game. The gentleman's prize was won by Mr. Stephen Macdonald, and the lady's by Mrs. Frank B. Macdonald. Consolations were captured by Mrs. Michael McDonald and Frank Macdonald. Mrs. Chester Macdonald assisted by Mrs. Mary Macdonald served a most appetizing supper, after which the Club was addressed by its President. It was decided also that the next meeting would be held at the residence of Mr. Frank B. Macdonald. The singing of the National Anthem brought this most pleasant gathering to a close.

MOONSHINE

(Copied by Queen Victoria, date 1835—Kensington Palace)

Take a tin the shape of a half moon, and as deep as a half pint basin, and another in the shape of a large star and two or three smaller stars. Boil 2 calves' feet in a gallon of spring water till reduced to a quart, strain it off when cold, skim off the fat, and sweeten half the jelly to palate with sugar. Beat up the whites of 4 eggs, stir all together over a slow fire till boiling, and then run through a flannel bag till clear. Put it in a clear saucepan, and take half an ounce of blanched sweet almonds, beaten till fine in a mortar, and mixed with 2 spoonfuls of rosewater and orange flower water. Strain through a coarse cloth, mix it with the jelly with 4 spoonfuls of fresh and thick cream, and stir all together till it boils. Then have ready the dish it is intended for, lay the tin in the shape of the half moon in the middle an dthe stars around it, with little weights on the tins to keep them in their places. Now pour the alone blanch-mange into the dish. When quite cold take out the tins and fill up the vacancies with calves' feet jelly. If you like you can colour the blanch-mange with cochineal and chocolate to look like the sky, and the moon and the stars will then shine the brighter. Garnish with rich candied sweetmeats round the dish.

NOTE—Would garnish with friandises.

RASPBERRY CREAM

(In Queen Victoria's hand-writing, Dated 1836, Kensington Palace)

Rub well a quart of raspberries or of raspberry jam through a hair sieve, thus removing seeds and making smooth. Beat the whites of 5 eggs, mix all, and stir it, one way only over the fire, till it grows thick and white. Strain through a gauze and stir till cold. Then beat the yolks of 5 eggs very well and put in the pan with some cream, and stir over a very slow fire till ready to boil, then pour it into a basin to cool, and having stirred till quite cold, put into glasses.

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night.

And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for, behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

And this shall be a sign unto you. Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of heavenly host praising God, and saying:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another: Let us now go even unto Bethlehem and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning the child.

And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

—St. Luke II.8-20.

IN MEMORIAM

EVELYN ROSAMOND VESSEY.

The many friends of Miss Evelyn R. Vessey throughout the city were deeply shocked when on Wednesday morning, December 9th, they learned that she had passed peacefully away to her eternal reward.

Although for some months past the late Miss Vessey was under medical treatment it was not thought, even by her most intimate friends, that the end was near, consequently her sudden death at the early age of twenty-one was a severe shock to her family and friends.

The late Miss Vessey was a general favorite both in the home and with her friends, her bright, kind and cheery disposition endearing her to all.

The numerous floral and spiritual offerings received testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The late Miss Vessey was employed as stenographer with the Charlottetown Guardian, where her devotion to duty and genial personality made her many friends. Besides her sorrowing mother, Mrs. Margaret Vessey, two sisters Evangeline and Mildred and two brothers William and Frank all at home are left to mourn the loss of a devoted daughter and loving sister, to all of whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

The funeral took place from her late residence, 76 Upper Queen Street on Friday morning, December 11th. to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Maurice McDonald, Rev. A. L. Sinnott conducting the services at the grave.
