Girl Guide News

1st Southport Company

Except for two girls who were absent the 1st Southport girls completed the Tenderfoot Test at their meeting this week and are all set to begin work on the Second Class. A new Progress Chart was commenced and the girls were delighted to see the stars being placed. Bily Aylward was appointed in charge of the Chart. These little girls have worked very hard to pass the tests and at the rate that they are going we shall have some Second Class Guides in record time. The Captain, Mrs. Neil Matheson, reported that over $18 had been made on a candy sale. The candy was put up in most attractive boxes and was most attractive by the Guides and my gift sample was certainly good. The 1st Southport are making grand progress. Keep it up girls.

1st Central Royalty Company

Miss Helen Agnew is now the Leader of this Company and with Miss Eleanor Lockhart as Lieut. they have a very happy and contented Company. We were sorry to lose our former Leader, Mrs. Lloyd Ward, but also happy to welcome a former Guide back again as a Leader. Eight Guides were enrolled by the Field Secretary, Mrs. Jenkins, namely, Janet Spillet, Patricia MacMillan, Bertha Morrison, Catherine Beck, Edna Ross, Janet Wood, Helen Stewart and Marlene Roper. The Patrol Leaders carried out their part of the enrollment ceremony splendidly and the whole Company are to be congratulated on their efficient organization after being in operation only six weeks. A new Progress Chart was enthusiastically received and it will not be long before more stars are on it. At Camp Fire, a song of the Gipsies was introduced by Lieut. Eleanor Lockhart, followed by many of our own Guide songs. The Guides were performing in the school concert being held next week. It is wonderful how that last verse of H. A. will be arranged, save it for me B. J.)

3rd Charlottetown Company, St. James

We are still without a regular in the 3rd but that does not stop us from doing some good Guiding meanwhile. Progress Chart, for which we owe a "thank you" to the mother of Jean Isabel Macdonald, was started this week and written up beautifully by Jean Isabel herself, although we spent a large part of our Guide evening getting the stars in the right places. We all felt it was worth while. Priscilla Griffiths conducted the game Town Clock, and Connie Rogers later. Hat in Ring Tag, Lieut. Barbara Rogers conducted a study group for first aid and four recruits passed part of the Tenderfoot Test. The meeting closed with "Taps" and regrets that it was the end of another Guide evening.

15th Parkdale Browne Park

The little Brownies of Parkdale have sent a donation of $3 to help a poor Guide Company obtain equipment. Thank you very much Brownies, you will know later how it was spent. At this time of the year it is very gratifying to know that our Guides and Brownies can think of others not so fortunate as themselves, and so carry out part of our Promise.

7th Company, Trinity (By The Company Reporter)

The 7th held their meeting as usual this Tuesday evening. Following inspection we had "Battle Fames" (What was this a row game Joan) and a bandage relay race. Lieut. Phyllis Lutes directed the singing of Christmas Carols. During Camp Fire, Mrs. Cudmore read a story of "St. Christopher" which everyone much enjoyed. The meeting closed with Prayers and "Taps."

CITY POLICE COURT—At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court yesterday, a man charged with assaulting a peace officer was sentenced to six months in jail. Two cases under the Temperance Act were heard and adjourned for one week. A man charged with theft, appearing for preliminary hearing, was remanded for one week.

Address and Presentation

On Wednesday night, Sept. 22, the members of Riverdale-Churchill Women's Institute gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McQuillan, Bonshaw, to do honour to Mrs. McQuillan (the former Blanche Murray) who had been a member of the Institute for the past year. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Oliver MacLeod, who called upon Mrs. Garfield MacFadyen to read the address, while Mrs. Guy MacLeod, though taken by surprise, thanked them for their kindness and extended an invitation to visit them soon again.

Afterwards her friends gave her a hearty bounce and all joined in singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow". A delicious lunch was served by the members of the Institute and a sociable evening was spent.

The following is the address. Mrs. Eugene McQuillan, Dear Blanche:

In just a few words we should like to tell you why we are gathered here tonight. It has always been the custom of our Institute to remember all our newly married members and tonight we are indeed very glad to be able to remember you in this way. During the time you were with us you were always ready and willing to do anything that would be for the betterment of our Institute. You have indeed been an ideal member and we would be very pleased if you could continue as a member and attend our meetings; and now we ask you to please accept this small gift as a token of our esteem for you.

May the joys of a pleasant life be yours and the best it has to offer. May each day be a perfect day as long as you both shall live. It is the sincere wish of all your Institute members.

Signed on behalf of the members of Riverdale-Churchill W. I. On Friday night, Nov. 26th, the usual this Tuesday evening. After receiving a thorough bouncing, all sang "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow". A dainty lunch was served by the Institute members and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. The following is the address. Mrs. Eugene McQuillan, Dear Blanche:

We, the members of the Emyvale Women's Institute met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McQuillan in honor of Mrs. McQuillan who had been a member of their Institute for two years. The gathering was brought to order by Mrs. P. J. Trainor, while Miss Myrtle Costello read the address. Presentation of the gift was made by Mrs. Matthias Callaghan.

Mrs. McQuillan made a fitting reply and expressed her appreciation and thanks, also assuring them that a warm welcome will always greet them whenever they call upon them. After receiving a thorough bouncing, all sang "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow". A dainty lunch was served by the Institute members and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. The following is the address. Mrs. Eugene McQuillan, Dear Blanche:

We, the members of the Emyvale Women's Institute have called on you this evening for the purpose of expressing our appreciation for the work you have done towards the organization of our Institute, your untiring efforts while secretary-treasurer, also your great interest and readiness to help in anything that furthered the success of the Institute.

We hope what is Emyvale's loss will be Elmwood's gain. In closing, Blanche, we ask you to please accept this small gift, not so much for its monetary value but as a mere token of our gratitude. We all join in wishing you and Eugene many years of wedded bliss. Signed on behalf of the members of Emyvale W. I.

Santa—Man of the Hour to This Little Girl and Other Youngsters

Santa Claus is just about the busiest man in the country these days. The friendly old man with the white whiskers, the red fur-trimmed coat, and the belly laugh, just hasn't a minute to spare when you consider all the little girls and boys he has to visit to find out their Christmas wishes. And then with Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Dunder, Vixen, Comet, Cupid, and Blitzen drawing his sleigh, he has to hurry back to the north pole, and with the aid of Mrs. Claus fill all his orders. Then, on Christmas Eve he comes down the chimney and delivers his parcels. But he won't come till you're sound asleep, children, so listen to Mommy and go to bed when she tells you!
