Please, Mother! It's Nasty! Give Me a Candy Cascaret!

TO MOTHERS! Instead of the dreaded dose of castor oil drops, calomel or pills, give your children Cascarets and save money, worry and trouble. Children love Cascarets because they taste like candy. Nothing else acts so gently but surely on the child's little stomach, liver and bowels.

When one of the kiddies has a white tongue, tainted breath, sour stomach or a cold; when cross, bilious, feverish, constipated, remember, a Cascaret to quickly "work" away the nasty bile, sour fermentations and poisons should always be the first treatment given. Cascarets never gripe the tender bowels, never injure, and never disappoint the worried mother. Each 10 cent box of Cascarets contain directions for children's dose from one year old and upwards. Also for adults.

—LABRADOR HERRING—Genuine, fat Labrador herring at Holman's, Summerside. 3299-1-6m2iell —LAD TO REST.—The funeral of the late Ulic McPherson, who passed away at his home in Summerside on Thursday morning was held on Friday afternoon to the People's Cemetery and was largely attended. The pall bearers were Messrs. Stanley Taylor, Robert Gorrel, Arol Mathison, George Morrison, Chas. Peters and Bradford Bernard. Rev. Mr. Mitchell officiated at the house and grave.—L.

—HERO RETURNS.—Pte. Henry McLean, M. M. of Alberton, left Thursday for Halifax, where he will undergo treatment. This brave young lad arrived home a short time ago apparently unknown to anyone, and although he has done his bit does not boast of his noble work. He is only 20 years of age, enlisted in the old 105th Battalion over three years ago, has won the military medal for bravery on the field when he was severely wounded in the right leg in August 1917 having put the remainder of the time in the different hospitals in England. Needless to say he is glad to be back in Canada once more. The numerous friends of this gallant young soldier wish him a quick restoration back to his former good health.

A CRY FOR PEACE

He's crying for peace, the yellow cur.

With his legions in cowardly flight He's begging the chance he never gave France

When he struck like a thief at night But he didn't cry peace four years ago

As he murdered a cringing child— When Belgium's death was the Hun's life's breath, And his bloody hordes ran wild.

He's begging to save his tarnished crown

And his vandal sons as well. With his hand of stone he craves the throne

Of a race matured in hell. But he didn't mind thrones four years ago

As he slaughtered babes at play, When with beastly stroke the world's war broke And his bloody hordes ran wild.

So he'll get the peace that he deserves

And mercy's a missing ban. When his blinded slaves are in trench-like graves

And we've crushed his filthy clan. When we've rid the world of a cancerous sore

And banished the golden fleece— When the last Hun's gone, and there's clear, pure dawn

We'll grant the Kaiser peace.

SPLINTER CAUSED

BLOOD-POISONING

From just such simple injuries, serious cases of blood-poisoning sometimes develop. Mrs. Helm of Tidnish River (R.R. No. 1), N.S., ran a splinter into her hand, and as she could not get it all out, the place became very sore and festered. Finally, despite all her efforts, blood-poisoning set in.

Writing about it Mrs. Helm says: "The pain I suffered was at times intense, and although I tried remedy after remedy, it got no better and eventually turned to blood-poisoning. I had suffered for several months, when one day I saw Zam-Buk advertised, and decided to give it a week's fair trial. By the end of that time my hand was so much better that I was able to extract the splinter. I continued using Zam-Buk. Gradually the poison was all drawn out, the pain was ended, the swelling disappeared, and finally the sore place was entirely healed." The above case is typical of scores: Keep Zam-Buk handy in your home, and by applying it immediately an injury is sustained, prevent any possibility of festering or blood-poisoning. You will find Zam-Buk equally good, too, for all skin troubles, eczema, boils, pimples, ulcers, abscesses, running sores, bad legs, piles, cuts and burns. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c box, 3 for $1.25.

FREE TRIAL—Send this advertisement and 1c. stamp (for postage) to Zam-Buk Co., Dupont St., Toronto, and receive free trial box.

—Mrs. Bessie Griffiths, Montague, and her daughter Miss May left on January 3rd for New Glasgow, N. S., where they will reside with Mrs. Griffiths three sons who are holding good positions with the Telephone Company in that town. These boys have a house all furnished for their mother and sister, and their friends wish them all a happy reunion after some years of separation. Mrs. Griffiths will be missed in Montague, as she was a competent nurse, and was always ready to respond to a call when health permitted.—T.

—SAD DEATH.—Seldom is your correspondent called upon to report a death which seems so very sad, as that of Mr. Martin Lannaghan, which took place at his home in Montague on Thursday, January 2nd, after a few days illness of influenza, followed by pneumonia. The late Mr. Lannaghan was a young man of more than ordinary intelligence, and seemingly, had a very bright and prosperous future, he was of a kind and courteous manner, and was generally loved and respected, and his untimely death leaves a lonely vacancy among his unusually large circle of friends that will not soon be forgotten. He was a valued member of the staff of Poole & Thompson, Montague, for a number of years, and his place in that capacity will be hard to fill; he was also a trustee of the Montague school. The funeral which was attended by the Knights of Columbus, was held on Wednesday, January 3rd and was largely attended. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing young widow and two small children, besides a large number of relatives and friends. Interment was in Montague. The floral tributes were beautiful.—T.

—A RESPECTED RESIDENT DEAD.—The death of Mrs. Isaac Bears, Montague, took place at her late home, on Monday, Dec. 30th. The late Mrs. Bears, who before her marriage was Miss Bruce, was a woman of quiet and unassuming disposition and of a highly moral character. She was only sick a short time of kidney trouble. The sudden and sad death of her daughter, Mrs. McEachern, Cardigan, recently, caused her much heart grief, and hastened her earthly career. She leaves to mourn a large family of daughters and sons, besides a devoted husband, who have the sympathy of this entire community, in this their hour of sorrow. The funeral was held on New Year's day, and was largely attended.—T.
