EVERY SUFFERER NEEDS SYMPATHY

And More Than That, the Nerve Cells must be Restored and Revitalized by the Use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Too many doctors have no sympathy with the sufferer from diseases of the nerves. They do not understand the nervous system, and when the victim of nervous exhaustion or prostration appeals to them he is told to "brace up," forget his trouble, and he will soon be all right.

This famous food is not a stimulant to arouse false hope, but a true restorative, reconstructing wasted cells and tissues, and instilling into the blood and nerves the essential principles of life and vigor.
