CHAUFFEUR APPROPRIATES CAR.—The local police were called upon the other day to help some American tourists out of difficulties. It seems that a chauffeur who had driven a lady and gentleman here from Massachusetts was loaned his owner's car to take his mother and sister to the country. Neither chauffeur nor car was seen for a week, but some days ago he was met by the lady owner on the Rocky Point wharf. He at that time, relinquished the car, but refused to give up passports and other papers necessary for his employer's return to the United States . On Tuesday the chauffeur was again found and brought to the Police Station by officer Dominic Doyle, and was induced to hand over the credentials to their rightful owners.

Campaign Gems

The cuttlefish spurts out black fluid and itself hidden strikes its enemy. This is Hon. Chas. Dunning's method. He said, "A Tory spy (employed by Duncan) every evening wired to Ottawa the result of the investigations." There was no evidence to support his statement, he made it, like many others, out of whole cloth. Why not have courage to name his man? The sworn evidence shows how Hon. Mr. Stevens got his information, and puts the black brand on Dunning's falsity.

"It only required one half hour for the Chief Justice of Quebec.... to find the baselessness of the charges" (against Lapointe); Hon. Chas. Dunning. Yes; but it will take him a much longer time, in his investigation, which starts tomorrow at Halifax, to clear up the rest of the "Margaret" mess.

Hon. Mackenzie King is laboring hard to convince western audiences that Mr. Meighen had received the Governor General. In view of the fact that all the incidents complained of by Mr. King took place before Meighen was called by His Excellency, the yarn wont go down. But it is the record of history that the same Mr. King, not only deceived the Governor General, but is trying his best to deceive the whole country.

In the election campaign of last October, Premier King asked, "What are Maritime Rights?" The people gave him a pretty effective answer, but failed to convince him. Make it more effective on the 14th of September next.

It is surely the saddest of misfortunes that the "constitutional issue" has been lost in the maelstrom of political turbulence. It was the only camouflage of defence against attacks on Liberals dishonesty and incompetency—the last leg knocked from under their tottering Liberal-Progressive combination.

"In 1922 the debt was increased by 92 million dollars." Hon. J. A. Robb in the Strand Theatre. Did it occur to the ex-Finance Minister that that was the first year of King government mismanagement?

In 1921 the Meighen government received $24,815,246. in interest upon active assets. From the same source the King government received only $11,916,479—less than half as much. It looks like the familiar Bell government trick, of selling the assets (Victory Bonds) to create imaginary surplusses.

Hon. Mr. Robb, and a host of other Liberal spell binders, are making a big noise about their vaunted income tax reductions. In actual fact the King-Robb administration collected $9,866,218.51 more income taxes from the people in 1925, than the Meighen government collected in 1920-21, their last year in office.

The Liberal boasts of reduced expenditures are shouted from every platform, and headlined in their press. In 1919-20 the Conservative government had to pay out three hundred and sixty million dollars in war and demobilization costs. In 1924 the King government had to pay less than half a million on this account. How could they help having a decreased expenditure?

If you want to get a straight statement of the business of the country, and a dependable account of how your money is being used at Ottawa, do as you did in the Provincial election—elect men to support a Meighen business like government to handle your affairs.

It was a Frenchman who was credited with the remark, after giving his note of hand for a bill that he owed,—"Tank God, that's paid. This is in part the Liberal method of debt reduction. We all remember the facility of the Bell government, spending hundreds of thousands on sand-hill roads with the declaration that it "wasn't costing the taxpayers a single dollar." They were giving their note, or bonds in payment.

The King government were evidently educated in the same school. By handing the Railway debts and deficits over to Sir Henry Thornton—to be paid by issuing railway notes, or bonds,—they devoutly call on the whole country to "Tank" the Liberal aggregation for so easily paying their bills, and, by this waving of their magician's wand, reducing the public debt.

The government railways deficit is as much a liability against the Federal Treasury, as any other of our obligations, and must be ultimately paid by the people. If, instead of staving it off by the issue of Railway Bonds, they charged it up to our Liability account, you wouldn't hear a whisper, from any Liberal politician, on this hackneyed subject of debt reduction.

..... Stability of Leaders .....

We hear of late about "stability of policy"; now how about stability of leaders? A few days ago the Patriot published quotations from speeches delivered in almost every part of Canada, East and West, by the Hon. Arthur Meighen, showing his strict adherence to the one policy of protection wherever he spoke. It would be interesting to read a similar attempt to publish the utterances of Mackenzie King There would be difficulty in getting any of his speeches, out and dried for a particular locality, to harmonize with his baits thrown out to other portions of the country. In fact his Western speeches would no more mix with those of the East than oil would mix with water.

All is not gold that glitters is a truism of the Liberal stage. On the one hand they boast of alleged tax reductions, and then, in an hour of forgetfulness, they boast of increased revenue from their tax collections, this is how it works out in actual practice,

They raised the income tax limit from one to two thousand for single, and from two to three thousand on married persons. Then they put another tax on his earnings from dividends in industrial investments, which were formerly exempt from income tax. Thus they relieve the spendthrift earner of a few dollars, and pile a double tax on the thrifty person who has invested his savings in industrial stocks. It is one of those smooth confidence games of dangling a $10 saving before your eyes, while, with the other hand they are picking a $20 bill from his pocket. This is why they are collecting more income tax than ever, and shamelessly boast of it.

The same principle applies to the automobile tax. More duty is being collected than ever. Of course. More auto's are being imported, more of our money going to the United States workmen, less employment for Canadian workers, and less money circulated in our own country, and less consumers for our own products. But in real fact the customs revenue increases and instead of less taxes we are actually paying more than before.

And all their vaunted tax concessions can be brought under the same category.
