People of Victoria and surrounding districts were shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. Parker Rogerson on Sunday, Nov. 21st. Mr. Rogerson had not been in good health for some months but had been able to be around every day. Death came very suddenly. He is survived by his wife, formerly Cella French; also five daughters and one son; one daughter predeceased him eleven years ago, and one sister Fannie, of Victoria. Sympathy goes out to the family in their bereavement.

Those who had the privilege of attending the annual Masonic goose supper at Crapaud on Tuesday evening expressed the opinion that it was the best yet. It was put on by the Women's Institute of Crapaud in their usual excellent style. After supper speeches were made by Mr. W. R. Shaw, Mr. George Wood and Mr. Allan Stewart and others. A presentation was also made to Mr. Manford Beer, who has acted as secretary for over fifteen years and so faithfully did his duties. Mr. Arthur Dawson addressed Mr. Beer and Mr. George Wood presented him with a valuable Mason's Apron as an appreciation for the services he has rendered.

Mulligan-Smith Nuptials

A wedding of much interest to a large number of friends and relatives within and outside the province was solemnized in St. Malachie's Church, Kinkora, on Tuesday morning, November 9th, when Rose Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Mulligan, Kinkora, was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Francis Plus, son of the late Mark A. and Mrs. Smith of Kelly's Cross.

The Nuptial Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Francis McQuaid who also performed the marriage ceremony. Rev. Father Keefe, parish priest of Kelly's Cross was present in the sanctuary and a large congregation of friends and relatives were also present to witness the ceremony.

The bride, who was attended by Miss Bertha Stordy, was attractively attired in royal blue velvet, with matching accessories and wore a beautiful silver fox cape, a gift of the groom and a shoulder bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaid wore heavenly blue crepe, with fox furs and corsage of red roses. The groom was very ably supported by Mr. Justin J. Kelly of Kelly's Cross. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold compact and to the best man a gold signet ring.

The bridal party entered the church to the joyous strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Elaine Roberts while Mr. Raymond Kelly rendered several hymns in his usual good form during the ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party accompanied by their immediate relatives motored to the "Birch Hill Tourist Home" near Summerside, where they partook of a delicious wedding breakfast. The toast to the bride was proposed by Father McQuaid and was ably responded to by the groom. A number of the guests also spoke briefly expressing their pleasure at being present, and wishing the newly weds every success and happiness.

During the day the bridal party visited a number of friends in Summerside and Kinkora and left in the evening on a pleasant tour of the Maritimes.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower by her friends in Kinkora, at which she was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts as well as a large sum of money.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have since taken up residence in Charlottetown where Mr. Smith is employed on the postal staff. Their many friends throughout the province as well as old army friends of the groom in the "West Nova Scotia Regiment" will wish the newly married couple many years of health, happiness and prosperity.
