"77" Breaks Up All Kinds of COLDS

Nothing makes one more susceptible to catching cold than a bad stomach, or in fact, to any contagious or infectious disease.

While "77" prevents, cures and "breaks up" a cold, its strongest ally is a sweet stomach and good digestion.

Humphreys' Specifics are put up in handy vials of pleasant pellets that fit the vest pocket.

S. S. LESSON.

NOVEMBER 17.

THE CHILDHOOD OF MOSES.

Exod. 2: 1-10 Memory verses, 7-10 GOLDEN TEXT.

Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.—Prov. 22: 6.

OUTLINE.

1. Among the Rushes, v. 1-6. 2. In the Palace, v. 7-10.

Place.—The scene of this lesson is the banks of the Nile, perhaps at Tanis, the Zoan of Scripture. It is the frontier of Goshen.

LESSON HELPS.

1. "A man of the house of Levi"—His name was Amram, and he was a descendant of Levi.

2. "He was a goodly child"—Every child is beautiful in a fond mother's eyes, but this child had a beauty which showed itself in his character in after years.

3. "An ark of bulrushes"—That is, of papyrus. From the reed paper was first made, and hence the name.

4. "His sister"—Perhaps Miriam, but she was probably younger, and this sister was older than Moses.

5. "The daughter of Pharaoh"—A princess with wealth, royal blood, and influence. Also well-educated, for the position of women in Egypt was one of prominence, and this is a tribute to the ancient civilization of that land.

6. "Had opened it"—That is, the little ark, which was really a chest or box.

7. "A nurse of the Hebrew women"—How sweetly is the narrative given, and though in a few words, how suggestive.

8. "A nurse of the Hebrew women"—How sweetly is the narrative given, and though in a few words, how suggestive.

9. "The child grew"—and he became his son.—That is all we know of the childhood of Moses, and it is but little; but from other sources we know the nature of the education Moses must have received, and the civilization of Egypt.

10. "The child grew"—and he became his son.—That is all we know of the childhood of Moses, and it is but little; but from other sources we know the nature of the education Moses must have received, and the civilization of Egypt.

Help At Hand.

The Terrors of Dyspepsia Have at Last Been Overcome—No one Need Suffer a Moment Longer.

Since man began to eat, his stomach has been a source of trouble. Often he eats what he should not, and how he should not.

Then nature protests in Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion.

For many years, laxatives were the only treatment thought of for such troubles.

Now, however, man has become wiser, and has at last found a better medicine; one that cures.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have never failed to cure stomach weakness.

They are composed of the very best digestive and curative agents known to medical science.

The proof that they are right, is found in the fact that they always relieve, and when used persistently, never fail to cure.

And still, many suffer the troubles of Dyspepsia, because they have not heard of this wonderful medicine, or because having heard, they confuse Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets with the thousand and one so-called Dyspepsia Cures.

There is only one sure cure, and the name is Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are 50c. a box. All druggists sell them. If you are a sufferer, don't hesitate a moment. If you are not, but know of one who is, let him hear the good news.

AN IMPENETRABLE BREAST-PLATE.

The German paper lately stated that Herr Szepepanik, a former Polish professor well known as an inventor, who is now serving in the German army has invented an impenetrable breast-plate of which he has sent a sample the Emperor William.

It weighs less than 4 lbs and consists of a silken fabric. A ball fired by a Maublier rifle at a distance of five paces is said to have penetrated less than one-eighth of an inch into the substance.

There has been so many attempts to make impenetrable shields and clothing that we shall wait for further information before giving entire credence to the report of Herr Szepepanik's success.

Dear Sirs,—I was for seven years a sufferer from Bronchial trouble, and would be so hoarse at times that I could scarcely speak above a whisper. I got no relief from anything till I tried your MINARD'S HONEY-BALSAM. Two bottles gave relief and six bottles made a complete cure. I would heartily recommend it to any one suffering from throat or lung trouble.

Consumptions Dreadful Ravages.

St. John's, Nfld., Evening Herald: Consumption is making dreadful ravages on parts of the Southern Shore, especially about Toads Cove and vicinity.

The necessity of building an hospital for the exclusive use of those afflicted with tuberculosis is becoming more and more apparent.

Asthma Gasp

Too many asthma sufferers give up their search for cure, believing that their particular case is beyond the control of scientific treatment.

It is only necessary to point all such to a new hope in Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, the one great remedy which has proven its efficiency not only as a prompt relief, but also as a thorough cure for asthma.

Mrs. George Budden, Putnamville, Ont., says:—"I feel it my duty to recommend Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, as I had the asthma very bad, could get nothing to do me good. A friend of mine persuaded me to try this remedy, I did so, and it cured me."

It is impossible to imagine a better treatment for asthma than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It soothes the excited nerves, clears the bronchial tubes, gives prompt relief to the frightful spasms, and when used regularly, thoroughly and permanently cures asthma. 25 cents, all dealers, or Edmanson Bates & Co., Toronto.
