RUSSIAN AIRPLANE MAKERS
ORGANIZE OPERA TROUPE

STRATFORD, Conn., Mar. 19.—A group of White Russians engaged in the manufacture of airplanes here have organized a grand opera troupe.
The prima donna is Mrs. Boris Sergievsky, wife of the chief pilot of the Sikorsky Aviation Corporation, a former member of the Russian Imperial Opera of St. Petersburg.
Her husband, holder of four world's seaplane altitude and speed records, sings supporting roles.
A recent production was La Tra-viata. Mrs. Sergievsky sang Violetta, her husband, Alfred de Ger-mon, and G. Tereshenko, formerly with the Imperial Russian Opera and Ballets Chauve Souris, George de Germon.
All of the players are members of the World and Civil Wars Russian Veteran's Association of 1914-1920, a White Russian group which came to America under the leadership of Igor Sikorsky, noted airplane designer, after the Bolshevik revolution.

WARNED AGAINST SALESMEN

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., Mar. 19.— Two Hartford women who said they failed to make a final $5 payment on a piano they bought because the salesman told them not to worry about it were advised by Judge Morris Saxe: "Never believe a piano salesman." He ordered them to pay up, but dismissed action brought by the piano firm for $58 interest charges.

INDIAN GIRL ATHLETE
TO END COLLEGE CAREER

TUCSON, ARIZ., March 19. (U. P.) —At least four athletic groups will regret the graduation this spring of Christine Garcia, Papago Indian girl of the University of Arizona.
Miss Garcia is the first string pitcher on the girls' baseball team, a guard on the basketball team, a back on a hockey team, and a member of the girls' tennis squad.
The remarkable athletic ability of the Indian girl is fast becoming a campus tradition. One of the best stories concerning her is the time a specially selected all-star girls baseball team played a team composed of university men, who were surprised when the girl pitcher struck out 11 of the male batsmen and won her own game by getting a home run and a double in three times at bat.

Oldest Atlas

PARIS, March 17. (U. P.)—The oldest atlas in the world is now in the possession of an American writer, living in Paris, Paul Rockwell, of Atlanta, Ga., brother of Kiffin Rockwell, famous World War ace killed in the French service. It has had four other owners before Rockwell found it in a little shop.
The atlas was done by Abraham Ortelius and published May 20, 1570.
Ortelius was born in Antwerp, April 14, 1572 and died there in 1598. This first world atlas was published under the title of "Theatrum Orbis Terrarum" and the colorings of the maps are as vivid today as they were when the plates were first made by hand 360 years ago. It is written entirely in Latin.
The four other owners have inscribed their names on the front page and affixed the date that it came into their possession. The first was Thomas Radley who lived in London and had the book in 1583, thirteen years after its publication.
The second owner was Ramond de Roux, who obtained it in 1637, whether direct from Radley, or by a cir-cuitous route, is not known. There may have been other owners who failed to add their names.
The third recorded possessor was Jacob Nicholas Delahaye, who appears to have been a Dutchman of French descent. The book was his in 1766, ten years before the Revolutionary War. He kept it until 1829, when it came into the hands of Hy-acinthe Langlois, of Point de l'Arche, in Normandy. He was a painter and a member of many royal societies of Antiquarians.
Where the valuable book remained during the last hundred and two years is not known, but it drifted into the Paris bookshop not long ago. Rockwell has a valuable collection of rare books, maps, prints and steel engravings that he has collected during his travels.

WILLIE MEEHAN, FIGHTER
NOW MOVIE OPERATOR
WHITING, Ind., March 19. (U. P.) —Motion picture operating has claimed Willie Meehan, one of the greatest fighters of all times, because he "likes to be a movie operator." Meehan is 36. Not many of the younger generation remember him.
Old-timers, however, have vivid recollections of Willie, the San Francisco fight boy, for years a favorite on the Pacific Coast.
In 18 years Meehan appeared in 1,000 fights. He is credited with beating Jack Dempsey three times.
From 5 p. m. to late at night Mee-han can now be found in the projection room of a local theatre.

SEKINS-GROVE, Pa., Mar. 19.—A Pullman car berth, in which President Lincoln was said to have slept, is a prized possession of Miss May Barry here.
The berth was removed from one of the early Pullman cars by C. C.
Mason, for 50 years head of the upholstering department of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Altoona.
Mason made his home with the Barry family at Altoona and used the berth as a bed for many years.
It is covered with dark red velvet, excellently preserved. The berth, when not in use, folds up like the berths now used on sleeping cars.
Miss Barry is a daughter of the Rev. D. R. P. Barry, former Luther-

TRAVEL BY ICE UNSAFE—The ice on the rivers in the vicinity of the City is at present generally considered unsafe for travel. Few, if any crossings have been made during the last few days and a number of teams are reported to have broken through at various points. The greatest danger exists around the wharves and shores.

several weeks from Mr. George Chandler, a member of the St. John made available to the corps through the courtesy of the C. N. R. It is the intention of Police Commissioner Trainor to have his force proficient in first aid methods by the time the that the course will prove invaluable to the officers in the event of an accident, where medical help is not immediately available.

MAY BE ICE SHORTAGE — A shortage of ice is feared for the summer months, at the present time, although the shortage may not be serious. If this condition should obtain it will be the result of the weather in which the ice was harvested. Ice dealers state. The usual amount has been stored away, but existing mild weather when the ice was cut and hailed is not conducive to the preserving of the ice.

The Late Dr.
Charles Kennedy

Mr. Samuel Kennedy of this city received the sad news by wire this morning of the death in New York city of his brother, Dr. Charles Kennedy. Dr. Kennedy, who was a patient at a hospital for the past ten days, was 66 years of age. He was a son of the late Samuel Kennedy of Breadalbane. He received his degree of M. D. in New York about thirty-two years ago. He carried on the practice of his profession successfully for twenty years. As he had also graduated in law in 1914 he took up that profession exclusively in 1918 and since then has been practising as a medical attorney.
He leaves a widow, one son and two daughters, also four brothers and four sisters.

Mr. Samuel Kennedy was all ready to leave for New York to visit his brother when the news of the latter's death reached him.
Another brother, Hon. Murdoch Kennedy, was at Moncton attending a meeting of the C. N. R. directors when he received the wire announcing the serious illness of the Doctor. Fortunately, both were able to reach the latter's bedside before he passed away.

Dr. Kennedy and his family have frequently visited Prince Edward Island during the summer season, and the news of his death will be learned with deep regret by a very wide circle of friends in this city.

Laemle Sees Direct
Studio Pictures

NEW YORK, March 17.—"Twenty five years from now, motion picture theatres will present pictures direct from the studios by television" Carl Laemle, president of Universal Pictures Corporation believes. He is celebrating his quarter century in the film world.
Laemle predicts that picture advancement in the next 25 years will rival the imagination of Jules Verne.
"News weekly films will be sent by television," he prophesied. "Hence a shipwreck in the China Sea will be broadcast to all the world within a few hours after it is photographed.
Within a few years school houses will be equipped with television sets which will permit famous educators, surgeons, musicians and lecturers to make a motion picture and then have it broadcast to all the world while they themselves take up their work.
"We are living in an age of miracles and the imaginary developments of today will be actualities to our children. The great major changes in film entertainment that have occurred in recent years are nothing compared to those to come."

CARAVAN TO BLAZE TRAIL OF PAN-AMERICAN HIGHWAY

SEATTLE, March 18. (U. P.)— 15 persons in two trucks and a touring car will leave Seattle May 1 for a 30,000-mile-motor trip down the coast, through Mexico, Central and South America to Rio de Janeiro.

The trip will be sponsored by advocates of the highway and others who are interested in gathering scientific data along the way it will be called the Pan-American Pacific Overland Expedition, and is expected to take nearly two years for the caravan to reach its destination.
Return will be made by steamer from Rio de Janeiro.

DOG EATS AUTOMATICALLY

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 19
—The case of a dog which is able to eat regularly although it has been unconscious ever since an automobile ran over it some time ago has been reported by Dr. P. H. Browning, veterinary. Despite brain concussion, the terrier eats automatically when food is placed in its mouth and is said to be gaining strength.

Porto Ricans Got Aid From
Saint Patrick

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 17.
(U. P.) March 17, is not kept as a "dia de fiesta" in Puerto Rico, but according to a legend this island as well as Ireland shared in the benedictions of Saint Patrick. A thousand years after he drove the snakes from the Emerald Isle he is credited with freeing Puerto Rico from a scourge of insects.
The story of Saint Patrick's intervention is told by the late Cayetano M. Colly Toste for many years the island's official historian in Porto Rican. Traditions and Legends.
According to Dr. Colly Toste about the middle of the 16th century, during a period of prolonged drought, there was a plague of plant destroying insects and ferocious ants. The latter made their way into the homes and tormented, and even endangered the lives of the children. Bishop Alonzo Manso was urged by his parishioners to seek the intercession of a powerful saint to rid the island of the pest. The Bishop called a council meeting and put the matter before his associates who decided that it would be discreet and proper to draw lots to discover to what saint supplications should be made.
The names of the different saints of the church were written on slips of paper and drawn from a box. After a fervent prayer a slip was drawn and passed to Don Alonso's secretary who read in a loud voice "Saint Patrick."

Since Ireland's patron was hardy known here those present naturally gazed at each other with astonishment. They expected, the historian states, the name of Saint Joseph, or some other well known saint.
Although they were disposed "to respect the will of heaven," when one of their number suggested that it might be well to repeat the drawing they agreed. Thereupon a slip was drawn from the box again and for the second time it read "Saint Patrick." So the congregation was advised to address their prayers to Ireland's apostle. Saint Patrick's intercession was effective for there came torrential rains that ended the drought and the insect scourge.
Devotions to St. Patrick continued for about a century, but later fell into disuse.

ARIZONA'S "DESERT EATS" AID UNEMPLOYED

YUMA, Ariz., March 18.—Aided by old time "desert rats," a number of persons solved that unemployment problem here this winter.
The nearby desert and hills contain a quantity of gold and the dirt covering it in many instances was washed away by heavy rains.
Several hundred unemployed men, guided and instructed by old time prospectors who they "grub-staked," left town and panned gold. The average return was between $2 and $3 per day.
"We aren't getting rich," one amateur miner explained, "but we are eating and can hold out until something better turns up."

ANCIENT CITY GIVES THANKS

KYRITZ, Brandenburg, March 18.
—This ancient city in the northwest part of the province Brandenburg, has a Thanksgiving celebration which is different.
Every year on the last Monday in February each citizen who attends the traditional morning church services is given a loaf of bread in memory of the defense of the city against destruction by the Duke of Mecklenburg, and the repulse of Mecklenburg's riders.
The feud between Mecklenburg, and the nobility of Prignitz, of which Kyriz is the capital, began in 1381.
Mecklenburg's chief lieutenant, Von Bassewitz, made two unsuccessful attempts to capture the city. He was killed in the last one when he tried to enter the city by tunneling under the walls to the church, whence he planned to attack.
His calculations miscarried, however, and the tunnel ended in the market place, where the burghers promptly slew him and all his men.
The city council decreed perpetual commemoration of the victory. Each citizen now receives a loaf of bread on the anniversary. Larger loaves are given to the poor. The town orchestra plays old hymns from the church tower.

CONVICT'S HAZARDOUS
DASH FROM JAIL FAILS

MENARD, Ill., March 17.—An unnamed convict is sojourning in solitary confinement at the Southern Illinois State penitentiary here today because of a recent unsuccessful, but daring dash for freedom during which he had two narrow escapes from death.
The convict concealed himself in a large truck which was hauling freight from the prison to a freight station and managed to obtain his way out of the prison. The truck, however, had gone but a short distance when it was stopped by a patrolman. The convict fled, but the motor began to sputter.
In desperation he leaped from the truck and made for a passing freight train. Apparently due to near exhaustion the convict failed in his attempt to "hop" the train and fell to the ground. A few minutes later he was captured and returned.

EUGENE, Ore., March 18.—Plece by piece, over a mountain trail through deep snow, the shattered airplane piloted by J. R. Cunningham is being taken from near the summit of the Cascade Mountains, where it crashed New Year's Day. It will be reassembled at Oakland, Cal., Cunningham escaped injury.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 18.—The Pacific Air Transport (Boeing-System) failed to complete only two per cent of its airmail schedule on the 1100-mile Pacific coast run last year, according to Lee B. Jamison, of the line. The P.A.T. mail pilots flew 616,000 miles, and 70 per cent of the flying was done at night.

MEMPHIS, March 18.—Memphis airport pilots operated a "Red Cross plane" here each Sunday during January and February, the receipts for passenger trips going to that organization's fund drive for drought sufferers.

KEWANEE, Ill., March 18.—Three airplanes here have been made available for emergency use by state highway policemen. State police officers can use the planes free of charge whenever occasion demands in the apprehension of criminals.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 18.—Edward Dapp, inventor of a message parachute, has received a certificate of appreciation from Rear Admiral Richard E. Boyd, who used the Dapp device on his South Pole expedition. Dapp made the parachutes for the Byrd expedition. The Dapp parachute was carried across the Atlantic by the Graf Zeppelin on its first trip.

CHICAGO, March 18.—Rumors are current to the effect that several passenger lines are planning night flights starting from Chicago at 11 p. m. or midnight. It is pointed out that commercial lines could offer a definite advantage to passengers who wish to arrive in time for a full-day's business transactions in such cities as New York, Atlanta, Kansas City, Tulsa, Denver and St. Paul. Officials and pilots agreed that there is no reason why the larger cabin ships and lighted for such service.

BASEBALL GATE AT NOGALES

(By George D. Crissey, United Press Staff Correspondent)
PHOENIX, Ariz., March 18.—Internationalism will provide a gate receipt stimulant to the Arizona State baseball league this year as a result of a franchise being granted to the Internationales de Nogales, Sonora. The Mexican club is a newcomer to the league, replacing Miami, Ariz., which, at the end of the 1930 season, found the financial burden of approximately $25,000 per season too heavy. Although starting out in life as an all-Arizona circuit, the league now has clubs from Texas and Mexican towns. Franchise holders, other than Nogales, are Phoenix, Tucson, Globe, Bisbee and El Paso, Texas. Although a Mexican team, the Internationales have the whole-hearted support of Nogales, Ariz., businessmen. They understand that Nogales, Ariz., could not support a team alone and that the residents of Nogales, Sonora, just across the street, are not interested in baseball unless part of the team members are Mexican. As it is, it is pointed out, Mexicans will patronize the home team liberally while a journey across the line to see a ball game will be a lark for most Americans. Governor Francisco Elias of Sonora, a rabid baseball fan, is one of the team's backers. It is understood he will pay the salaries of the Mexican players. One drawback to the new internationalism is that the Mexican club cannot be conveniently used as a "farm" by Pacific Coast league clubs. This was offset however, by exempting Nogales from a monthly league

(By George D. Crissey, United Press Staff Correspondent)
PHOENIX, Ariz., March 18.—Internationalism will provide a gate receipt stimulant to the Arizona State baseball league this year as a result of a franchise being granted to the Internationales de Nogales, Sonora. The Mexican club is a newcomer to the league, replacing Miami, Ariz., which, at the end of the 1930 season, found the financial burden of approximately $25,000 per season too heavy. Although starting out in life as an all-Arizona circuit, the league now has clubs from Texas and Mexican towns. Franchise holders, other than Nogales, are Phoenix, Tucson, Globe, Bisbee and El Paso, Texas. Although a Mexican team, the Internationales have the whole-hearted support of Nogales, Ariz., businessmen. They understand that Nogales, Ariz., could not support a team alone and that the residents of Nogales, Sonora, just across the street, are not interested in baseball unless part of the team members are Mexican. As it is, it is pointed out, Mexicans will patronize the home team liberally while a journey across the line to see a ball game will be a lark for most Americans. Governor Francisco Elias of Sonora, a rabid baseball fan, is one of the team's backers. It is understood he will pay the salaries of the Mexican players. One drawback to the new internationalism is that the Mexican club cannot be conveniently used as a "farm" by Pacific Coast league clubs. This was offset however, by exempting Nogales from a monthly league
