WATCHES IN PAWNSHOPS.

Always the First Article to be Pledged in Distress.

"Most people suppose," said a down town pawnbroker the other evening, "that when a man 'goes broke' the first thing he thinks of pawning is his dress suit, but that's not so. While there might be some that do this, they are few and far between. By long odds, the great majority of those in distress first 'put up' their watches. In a big city like this, with clocks on every hand, a watch is almost an unnecessary luxury on the street, and so this is the first article pawned.
Watches are, so to speak, a drug in the pawnshop. We get so many of them that we often wonder where they come from.

"You might think that we never would have occasion to lend money on wedding rings, but you would be wrong, for we have several of them now. A woman must be in distress to pledge her wedding ring, and yet it is often done. We have engagement rings, too, but not so many in number as wedding rings. Sometimes men pawn engagement rings. We simply take that as a sign that they have broken an engagement, but when a woman comes to us with one of them, we know she needs the money.

"I've made quite a study of pawnshops," continued the broker, "and I find that in the majority of cases the dress of the person asking for a loan on some article has a great deal to do with the amount received. If the pawnbroker sees a well dressed person in front of him, he will naturally argue that he or she is a little short for the time being, but will return and take the article out of pledge in a few days. If, on the contrary, the person asking for a loan be poorly dressed, there is little chance that he or she will get a fair amount on it. In the latter case the pawnbroker usually offers only what he thinks the article will bring at private or public sale with the amount of his interest deducted."—Baltimore

KIDNEY A Disease Peculiar to Railroad Men, which is readily Cured by

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Did it ever occur to you that most railroad men die of kidney disease?

Such is the fact, however, and the disease is known among railroaders as "railroad kidney."

The first and most marked symptom is a weak, lame and aching back. You may think at first that you are only tired; but as this trouble increases day by day, kidney disease, with all its terrors, is fast claiming you as a victim.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over 20 years engineer on the Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says: "The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommended by my fireman, Mr. Dave Conley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me and I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends."
