Sea View and Vicinity

Mr. J.C. Trainor of Charlottetown was a recent visitor to Sea View in the interests of his business. The home of Mrs. Frank McKay was the scene of a large and happy gathering on Wednesday evening to tender a miscellaneous shower to her daughter Jeanne who was shortly to become the bride of Pte. Bruce Ramsay of His Majesty's Service. The drawing room was tastefully decorated in pink and white streamers with wedding bells suspended over a corner containing a prettily decorated set of honor with a background of roses and evergreens. The bride was escorted downstairs to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Chetwood Bates and by Miss Helen Champion. A miniature bride and groom, Margaret Crozier and Clifford Donald brought in a gaily decorated basket of all kinds of gifts which had to be refilled several times. The parcels were opened by Mrs. F.W. Donald and Miss Evelyn Donald and the accompanying verses were read by Mrs. Horace Paynter and presented to the bride while Miss Ruby Casley and Mrs. James Hickey arranged them on the table. Miss Jean then thanked all friends for their great kindness and their expression of goodwill. All joined in singing For She's A Jolly Good Fellow. The gifts were lovely and consisted of silver, linen of all kinds, chinaware, pyrex, etc. besides a large number of envelopes of money. A dainty lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in social intercourse.

WEDDING BELLS

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Parish House of Rev. Father Trainor of Indian River on Saturday evening July 31st when Miss Mary Evelyn, daughter of Mrs. Thompson and the late John Robert Thompson of Darnley became the bride of Mr. Everett Burt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Burt of French River. The bride looked charming in her wedding dress of sunny blue with matching accessories and was attended by her sister Miss Lillian Thompson while the groom was attended by Mr. Andrew Casley. At the close of the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the groom's parents where a delicious wedding supper was served to the immediate relatives of the families. In the course of the evening a merry bunch of friends arrived to serenade the happy couple and to offer their congratulations in their own manner. The happy couple will reside in French River where the groom is a prosperous farmer. A short time previous to her marriage the bride and her neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. William Burt to tender the bride a shower. The room was decorated in pink and white. The bride-to-be was escorted to a seat of honor by Miss Laura Mountain. Wallace Mountain and Mildred Burt as miniature bride and groom carried in a gaily decorated basket containing many parcels which were opened by Laura Champion and Lillian Thompson and the names and verses were read by Mrs. F.W. Donald and Miss Ruby Casley arranged them on the table. The guest of honor then expressed her thanks to all in a gracious manner for their lovely gifts. All joined in singing For She's A Jolly Good Fellow. A dainty lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing. Music was furnished by Messrs. MacKinnon and Holmes and greatly enjoyed. A host of friends join in wishing this young couple much happiness in their wedded life.

To Winnie--With Love

In case you had any doubts of the regard Britain's plain folk have for their lighting Prime Minister, the photograph above should dispel them. Wilson Churchill was merely calling at London's National Liberal Club to see the unveiling of his portrait when he was engulfed in this spontaneous demonstration of affection and loyalty. With faces alight, cheering, shouting "It's Winnie!", men and women struggled to get near enough to touch him. Some succeeded. The girl in the light suit at his left has him by the shoulder, while the man behind her stretches his arm to slip "Mr. England" on the back. Miss Churchill is there too, but all you can see of her is her broad-brimmed black hat, indicated by arrow.
